

Master My friend

is one in affection to sister

to which I feel bound to do so

August 9th 1863

Dedication.

TO

GEORGE K. INGELOW.

YOUR LOVING SISTER

OFFERS YOU THESE POEMS, PARTLY AS

AN EXPRESSION OF HER AFFECTION, PARTLY FOR THE

PLEASURE OF CONNECTING HER EFFORT

WITH YOUR NAME.

KENSINGTON, June, 1863.

*Be with me in your undertakings;
gather a chosen part of the spirit's chosen
I have done for you and now Let them of me be some
at home a great and true with a shake and holy surprise to take off the part with you.*
