

SUNBEAMS OF HEALTH AND TEMPERANCE. 4to.

This is a unique work, in which the author has undertaken to present a vast amount of interesting information in such a manner as to be not only instructive, but entertaining. The following are the titles of the principal sections of the work: The House We Live In; The Habitations of Men; Some Strange People and Their Strange Manners; The Bills of Fare of all Nations; Dame Fashion and her Slaves; Health and Temperance Miscellany; Hygiene for Young Folks. Over 224 quarto pages. Illustrated by hundreds of engravings. One of the most interesting volumes ever published. Sold by subscription. Agents wanted. Prices, cloth, plain edges, $2.15; cloth, gilt edges, $2.50.

IN THE HEART OF THE SIERRAS. By Col. J. M. Hutchings. 8vo.

The most authentic and intensely interesting description of the Yo Semite Valley and Big-Tree Groves of California ever written. It contains nearly 500 pages of text with more than one hundred and fifty illustrations, 28 of which are beautiful full-page artotypes. By aid of the artist's genius and the author's facile pen, it portrays the lofty mountains and charming valleys, the placid lakes and thundering cataracts, of the world-renowned Yo Semite. The mission of this work is to make the best possible representation of the marvellous scenery and sublime natural wonders of this region. Sold by subscription. Prices, from $3.25 to $6.00.

TOURISTS' EDITION. — We have just issued a TOURISTS' EDITION of this grand book. It is the same size page, and contains everything that our elegant Subscription Edition does, except the artotype plates. It is printed on a fine quality of thinner paper, bound in flexible cloth, and makes a beautiful book. Price, $1.50.

