A RATIONAL OPINION ON THE POOL QUESTION.

In commenting on the pool bill the Rocincater Union makes the following very sensible remarks, which should commend themselves to any cool-headed, unprejudiced thinker, who has paid any attention to the subject:

"Many very good and highly moral people who never bet on anything, and who regard that species of gambling with no favor, doubted the virtue of an attempt by legislation to prevent wagers upon horse races. Mankind has always admired, and will always admire, exhibitions of speed in that noble animal, the horse, and so long as mankind exists there will be horse racing. So long as there is horse racing there
