TARMER'S INSURANCE

AGRICULTURAL MUTUAL ASSURANCE COMPANY OF CANADA.

HEAD OFFICE, · · · LONDON, ONTARIO.

Capital, · · · $284,996.67.

The pioneer of cheap Farm Insurance in Canada. The first company that ever attempted successfully to place insurance on ordinary farm property at the rate of twenty-five cents for $100 per annum.

This old reliable Company continues to take the lead of all others in the amount of business done; it has now, let of Nov., 1875, nearly 40,000 members, chiefly of the Agricultural class, and is continually increasing.

The affairs of the Company are conducted on the purely mutual plan, by a Roand of Directors, who are all themselves Farmers.

Since the formation of the Company over half a million of dollars have been distributed in the payment of losses. Detached Private residences are taken at liberal rates.

Farmers sons and daughters

How many of the honest tillers of the soil have suffered at the hands of "sharpers," on account of not being educated in the customs and laws of the husbess workl.

The sons and daughters of every farmer should be so trained that they will be fully equal to point of intelligence to the sons and daughters of the wealthiest merchant or lawyer in the land. THE DEST BUSINESS TRAINING SCHOOL IN AMERICA

Jones' Commercial College LOCATED AT

London, - - Ontario. One of the Proprictors of this institution, (Mr. Jones.) is the well known founder of the first College of the kind ever established in Canada, and his partner, (Mr. Yerex.) is the Champton Pennan, who, without any previous preparation, went to the last Western Fair, and carried off the

FIRST PRIZE FOR BUSINESS PENMANSHIP simply by writing before the eyes of the Speciators in the Palace Building. One party who competed with him, had spent nearly the whole summer in getting up specimens to exhibit on that occusion.

By taking a course in this College, you will be fully fitted to, not only thoroughly look after your own business interests, but also to represent your neighbors in Township or County Corporations, or in the Provincial or Dominion Parliament. Send for Circular containing full particulars, and state where you saw this advertisement. Address—

JONES & YEREX, P.O. Box 99 F. London, Ont N.B.—Be careful to not mistake the address, as there are a few counterfeit imitations of this college in London and else where. Oct. 1875 by
