

interest is manifested in French Evangelization. In rehearsing his experience, he was glad to say that he had met with much kindness and liberality and was thus enabled to give a satisfactory financial statement.

Mr. Charles reported on the success of the St. Jean Baptiste school, which was organized in January last, with Mrs. Charles as assistant teacher. This school has been progressing favorably in the face of many difficulties. During the month of June there was an average of over thirty in attendance. Besides the regular day classes, Mr. Charles has under his supervision, Sabbath meetings, a singing class, and night school; all of which are giving strong evidence of the untiring energy and Christian seal of the workers.

The next item of business was the election of officers for the ensuing year, in which the following were the names of those appointed: President, Mr. Vessot; 1st Vice President, Mr. McGregor, B.A.; 2nd Vice-President, Mr. D. J. Fraser, B.A.; Recording Secretary, Mr. Townsend; Treasurer, Mr. Gordon; Executive Committee, Messrs. Maynard, Graham, McLean, A. MacVicar, Reid, B.A.; News Committee, Messrs. McKenzie, Charles, B.Sc., Mahaffy, Dobson, Proctor, A. McGregor.

Mr. D. MacVicar, B.A., as treasurer for the past year, then handed in his report, and Messrs. McKenzie and D. J. Fraser were appointed to audit the books.

Touching the matter of supply for Petite Côte, it was agreed that the students should take up this work during the winter. The meeting then adjourned.

PHILOSOPHICAL AND LITERARY SOCIETY.

A meeting of this society was held on Friday evening, Oct. 23rd. There was a large representation, as might be expected from the nature of the programme, which gave promise, apart from everything else, of a lively discussion on student preaching. The debate "Resolved that students should not enter the mission fields of the Church before completing their arts or literary course," was ably supported on the affirmative by Mr. J. K. Fraser, B.A., and Mr. McLennan.

On the negative was Mr. Vessot as leader, followed by Mr. Tenor, who in their turn ably upheld the practice of the Church with respect to the matter in hand. Although an old and much vexed question of the Society,
