

who have passed in Latin, Greek and French in the Degree Examinations, or who have taken at least second class standing in these subjects in their Intermediate Examination, shall be entitled to receive first class Academy Diplomas, provided that they have also taken the regular course in the Art of Teaching at the McGill Normal School, or other public training institution outside the Province approved by the Protestant Committee.

"Graduates who have not passed in French as prescribed above may, on application, be examined in that subject before the Principal of the McGill Normal School, and, if satisfactory, such examination shall be accepted in lieu of the prescribed standing in French in the University examinations.

"58. Graduates in Arts from any British or Canadian University, who have passed in Latin and Greek in the Degree Examinations, or who have taken at least second class standing in these subjects in their Intermediate Examination, shall be entitled to receive second class Academy Diplomas from the Protestant Central Board of Examiners, provided they pass the examination in the Art of Teaching, School Law, Drawing, Physiology and Hygiene, and in French, if not taken in the University examinations, as prescribed in the syllabus of examination for candidates for Academy Diplomas."

4. On the motion of Mr. Masten, seconded by Dr. Cameron, it was resolved: "That the next examination of the Protestant Central Board of Examiners be opened on Tuesday the 30th of June, 1891."

Moved by Reverend Dr. Shaw, seconded by Dr. Cameron:

"Whereas the Protestant marriage license fee in the Province of Quebec ($8) is generally regarded as excessively high, and is much greater than the license fee exacted in the other provinces of the Dominion;

"Whereas this high rate of taxation, especially in the frontier counties of the Province, tends to lead many to resort to the United States for the solemnization of matrimony, a procedure which not only is inimical to the spirit of patriotism, but also exposes to the lax views of marriage which, unfortunately, prevail so largely in the neighboring states;

"Whereas the Protestant Ministerial Association of Montreal—a large and representative organization—has petitioned the Government to reduce the marriage license fee; and

"Whereas this high rate of taxation of Protestant marriages has been continued presumably on account of the needs of our Institutions of Superior Education;

"It is therefore

"Resolved: That we are of opinion that the amount granted by the "Jesuits' Estates Settlement Act" for Protestant Superior Education should be so divided among the beneficiaries of the Marriage License Fund as to protect them from loss in case of the reduction of the marriage license fee now proposed being made, and that we
