

same work was read by Ruth Packer. Nathan Edsall and John Cory made some very interesting remarks, the latter telling how he had seen Friends and other religious people treated in England some 50 years ago. After a few moments silence, we adjourned to meet at J. T. Packer's 3d mo. 26th.

DELLA CORY, Marietta, Iowa.

Our hearts are the thrones and Christ is the King. So long as we are loyal subjects and his reign is undisputed there will be peace and happiness in the realm, but if we allow an enemy to slip in and dethrone Him, there will be misrule and unhappiness until the lawful king is restored to His place.

YOUNG FRIENDS' REVIEW.

We are desirous for a largely increased circulation of the "Young Friends' Review." It is really essential to its proper maintenance. Its primary object is to encourage and benefit the young people of the Society of Friends. In our efforts in that direction we think we have succeeded in making it helpful and interesting to both old and young. We purpose, during this year, sending out hundreds of sample copies to non-subscribers, and we wish these to be to each receiver a direct personal invitation to become a subscriber. To such we will send the "Review" to 12th Mo., 1893, at the rate of 3c. a number—that is, 9 mos., 27c.; 8 mos., 24c., etc. This offer is to new subscribers only. Its object—to increase its usefulness. Send stamps. Send now. Address—

HARNED ACADEMY

A FRIENDS' BOARDING SCHOOL FOR BOYS.

PLAINFIELD, " NEW JERSEY.

This is a select home-school where each pupil is treated as a member of the Principal's family and brought under the influence of refined home culture, situated in the pleasant and healthful city of Plainfield, with large grounds and a good gymnasium. The buildings are brick, heated by steam and lighted by gas. The aim of this school is to prepare students for the Swarthmore College, or any other college they may desire to enter, and to furnish a good business education. We endeavor to develop our pupils mentally, morally and physically so as to produce the best results.

We desire to develop intelligent, upright, honest men, and to this end we aim to surround them with such influences as will bring out their better natures, and inspire a desire for study and improvement. For particulars address, EDWARD N. HARNED, Principal.
