Scribner's Monthly.

So great has been the demand for recent numbers of this magazine that the monthly circulation has increased more than 20,000 copies within the year, and the edition for November, 1900, was exhausted within two weeks after issue. The English edition has recently doubled, and the magazine has everywhere taken its place as the most handsomely illustrated popular periodical published in the English language. Every number contains 160 pages of contributions from the best American authors, and from 50 to 100 wood engravings. The publishers call attention to the following

ANNOUNCEMENTS FOR 1890.

The Reign of Peter the Great,
 by Eugene Schuyler, will begin in an early number, and continue through two years. It will be a work of great historical significance and of rare graphic and dramatic interest. Bureaus of illustration have been established in Paris and St. Petersburg, specially for the execution of the pictorial part of this enterprise—an enterprise involving a greater outlay than any previously undertaken by a popular magazine.

Three Serials in Scribner's Monthly by American Writers.

"The Grandisimes," a story of New Orleans Creole life, by G. W. Cable, author of "Old Creole Days." "Louisiana," a new novelette of American life, by Frances H. Burnett, author of "That Lass o' Lowrie's." "Confidence," by Henry James, Jr., begun in the Midsummer Holiday (August) number.

Canada Picturesque.

A number of papers by Principal Grant, of Queen's University, Kingston, and W. G. Beers and Chas. Farnham, are in course of preparation for "Scribner's," which will give thorough accounts of the historical, political, picturesque, and other phases of the country.

Papers on Art.

The growth of Art has made it necessary for the modern magazine to devote considerable attention to this subject, and in this respect "Scribner's Monthly" will continue to occupy the leading place, both in the judicious selection and in the artistic execution of the subjects chosen.

Poets and Poetry.

Edmund Clarence Stedman will contribute to "Scribner's Monthly" during the coming year critical essays on this subject, including the beginnings of the poetic art in this country, and its subsequent history. Richard Henry Stoddard will furnish studies of subjects connected with English poetry, the first paper being on "The English Sonnet."

Saunterings with Dickens.

A number of unique papers to be contributed to "Scribner's Monthly" by Alfred Rimmer, Esq., of Chester, England. For the illustration of these, Mr. Charles A. Vanderhoof has been sent on a special trip to England.

Practical Papers on Home Subjects.

This class will include a number of finely illustrated papers on "Small Fruits and their Culture," by Rev. E. P. Roe, of Cornwall, N.Y., one of the most successful of horticulturists. Papers on "Church and Home Architecture" will be contributed by Russell Sturgis, Esq.

Sports and Recreations.

In addition to an illustrated account of the recent excursion of the Tilo Club in a canal boat, there will be a number of special papers during the year, upon odd personal experiences, such as Porpoise Shooting, Walrus Hunting, Lobster Fishing, Canoeing in the Rapids of the Hudson, and several papers of a novel character.

Other Features of Scribner.

"Extracts from the Journals of Henry J. Raymond," edited by his son, H. W. Raymond; Accounts of the South Pass Jetties, American Arms and Ammunition in Europe. The U. S. Coast Life Saving Service, The New Albany Capitol, Child Saving Work, etc., etc. Sketches of Louisiana Life and Scenery, New York City and Vicinity, American Life in Florence, Kansas Farming, California Mountain Sheep and Forests (by John Muir), House-hunting in Paris, Sheep Ranching in the West, and many other interesting subjects. And there will be the usual variety of essays, poems, and short stories.

Price 35 cents a number, $4 a year. For sale and subscriptions received by all booksellers, Newsdealers, and Postmasters, or sent post-paid by the publishers on receipt of price.

BALDNESS!

Neither gasoline, vasoline, carboline, nor Allen's, Ayer's, or Hall's hair restorer have produced luxurious hair on bald heads. That great discovery is due to Mr. Wintercocklyn, 61 King St. East (late 123 Church-st.), as can be testified to by hundreds of living witnesses in this City and Province. He challenges all the so-called restorers to produce a likeness. SEND FOR CIRCULARS.
