

A Call for Help

We need the assistance of a number of bright young men to help develop the sales of The Busy Man's Magazine.

Our proposition is a particularly attractive one,—in addition to a cash commission, we are offering the following prizes to the individuals booking the largest number of subscribers during 1906:

First Prize

CHOICE OF

1. A University Education Free, or
2. A Trip Around the World, or
3. One Thousand Dollars in Gold.

Other Prizes

1. $250 in Cash to be divided among nine competitors.
2. A $25 Watch to other competitors.

The Busy Man's Magazine reproduces for busy men and women the cream of the current literature of the world.

You can work this during vacation, either alone or in connection with other propositions.

We are Canada's leading publishers, and will give every assistance to students taking up this proposition.
