PRAYERS

Mr. Turner (Ottawa-Carleton) for Mr. Jamieson, seconded by Mr. MacEachen, by leave of the House, introduced Bill C-246, An Act respecting pilotage, which was read the first time and ordered to be printed and ordered for a second reading at the next sitting of the House.

The text of the Message and recommendation of the Governor General printed pursuant to Standing Order 62(2) in relation to the foregoing Bill is as follows:

His Excellency the Governor General recommends to the House of Commons a measure respecting pilotage; to provide for the establishment of Pilotage Authorities as proprietary corporations; to provide that the property, rights, assets, privileges and franchises of Pilotage Authorities presently constituted under the Canada Shipping Act shall in certain instances vest in the respective Authority established under this Act; to provide that the Authorities may be deemed Public Service Corporations for the purposes of section 23 of the Public Service Superannuation Act and that subsection (5) of section 30 of the said Act shall apply; to provide that the officers and employees of the Authorities shall for purposes of the Government Employees Compensation Act and any regulations under section (5) of the Aeronautics Act, be deemed to be employed in the public service of Canada;

and to provide further for the consequential repeal and amendment of related statutes and for provisions in connection with the administration of the Act.

The following Notice of Motion having been called was transferred to Government Orders for consideration at the next sitting of the House pursuant to Standing Order 21(2):

That a Special Joint Committee of the Senate and House of Commons be appointed to examine, inquire into and report upon the nature and kind of legislation required to deal with emergencies that may arise from time to time in the future by reason of lawlessness or violence in Canadian society and that endanger the existence of government or the maintenance of the peace and public order;

That twelve members of the House of Commons, to be designated by the House at a later date, be members of the joint committee on the part of this House;

That the committee have power to sit during sittings and adjournments of the House;

That the committee have power to report from time to time, to send for persons, papers and records, and to print such papers and evidence from day to day as may be ordered by the committee;
