

associated with him in the Lord's service, and some of us for many years, prove faithful unto death; and, when our work is done, may we receive the approval of our Divine Master: "Well done, good and faithful servants; enter ye into the joy of your Lord."