

Village bells. — A youthful visitor. — The charm broken. — Lake St. John. — The Saguenay.

CHAPTER IX.

Night sail. — Kamouraska. — Malbaie. — Lovely panorama. — Floating with the tide. — Preparations. — Isle-aux-coudres. — St. Anne's. — Evening. — The Traverse. — St. Thomas'. — Arrival at Grosse Isle. — Signal.

CHAPTER X.

A hasty visit. — An old friend with a new face. — Blighted hopes. — A polluted stream. — Steamers. — Canadian priests. — Beauty of the isle. — Transmission of patients. — Funerals. — Friends.

CHAPTER XI.

Another death. — Doctor's second visit. — Separations. — Afflicting scene. — Walk on Grosse Isle. — Doctor's residence. — A Fort. — Delightful prospect. — A store. — An untimely dance. — A rash vow. — Vessels in quarantine. — A busy scene.

CHAPTER XII.

An inspection. — Deep affliction. — A chase. — German emigrants. — A recognition. — Seamen's hospital. — Clean Bills. — Vesper hymn. — Departure.

CHAPTER XIII.

Sail up the river. — Scenery. — Canadian Cottages. — Short