

CONTENTS OF VOLUME II.

THE FOURTH BOOK, ENTITLED, SAL GENTIUM.

	PAGE
It contains an account of the New-English University,	7

THE INTRODUCTION.

PART I.—The Laws, the Benefactors, and the Vicissitudes of Harvard-Colledge; and a Catalogue of its Graduates; with Remarks upon it,	8
PART II.—The Lives of some Eminent Persons therein educated,	34

CHAPTER I.

Fides in Vita ; or, Memorables concerning Mr. John Brock,	35
--	----

CHAPTER II.

Fructuosus ; or, the Life of Mr. Samuel Mather,	39
--	----

CHAPTER III.

The Life of Mr. Samuel Danforth,	50
--	----

CHAPTER IV.

Ecclesiastes ; or, the Life of Mr. Jonathan Mitchel,	60
---	----

CHAPTER V.

Drusus Nov-Anglicanus ; or, the Life of Mr. Urian Oakes,	114
---	-----

CHAPTER VI.

The Life of Mr. Thomas Shepherd,	119
--	-----

CHAPTER VII.

St. Stephen's Reliques; or, Memoirs of Mr. Joshua Moody,	125
--	-----

CHAPTER VIII.

Gemini ; or, the Life of the Collins's,	139
--	-----

CHAPTER IX.

The Life of Mr. Thomas Shepard,	142
---	-----

CHAPTER X.

Early Piety Exemplified; In the Life and Death of Mr. Nathaniel Mather,	153
---	-----

THE FIFTH BOOK, ENTITLED, ACTS AND MONUMENTS.

It contains, the Faith and Order in the Churches of New-England, agreed by their Synods: with Historical Remarks upon all those Venerable Assemblies; and a great variety of other Church-Cases, occurring and resolved in those American Churches,	177
---	-----

THE FIRST PART.—The Faith professed by the Churches of New-England. With Remarks,	179
---	-----

THE SECOND PART.—The Discipline practised in the Churches of New-England. With Historical Remarks; and a Rich Collection of Church-Cases happily decided,	207
---	-----

APPENDIX.—The Heads of Agreement, assented to by the United Ministers, formerly called, Presbyterian and Congregational,	271
--	-----

THE THIRD PART.—The Principles owned, and Endeavours used, by the Churches of New-England, concerning the Church-State of their Posterity. With Remarks,	276
--	-----

THE FOURTH PART.—The Reforming Synod of New-England; with subsequent Essays of Reformation in the Churches,	316
---	-----