

EMPLOYERS' LIABILITY ACT.

(Concluding Article.)

X. PERSONS ENTITLED TO SUE UNDER THE ACTS.

1. General remarks.
2. Servants temporarily under the control of the defendant.
3. Volunteers.
4. Persons who have temporarily or permanently ceased to be in the employment of the defendant.
5. Independent contractors.
6. Servants of independent contractors.
7. Railway servant.
- 8.—"Workmen," meaning of, as used in the English and Colonial Acts.
 - (a) Domestic or menial servant
 - (b) Labourer.
 - (c) Servant in husbandry.
 - (d) Journeyman.
 - (e) Artificer.
 - (f) Handicraftsman.
 - (g) Miner.
 - (h) Persons "otherwise engaged in manual labour."
 - (i) "Working under a contract with an employer."
9. Seamen.
10. Servants working in Government Departments.

XI. DAMAGES RECOVERABLE.

11. Damages recoverable where the injured servant survives.
12. Damages recoverable by the representatives of an injured servant

XII. TRIAL PRACTICE

13. Scope of sub-title.
14. Institution of distinct suits at common law and under the statute.
15. Joinder of causes of action under the statutes and at common law in the same suit.
16. Joinder of causes of action under the Employers' Liability Acts and the Damage Acts.
17. Removal of actions to higher courts.
18. Joinder of employer and negligent co-employee as parties defendant.
19. Within what period the action must be brought.
20. Service of summons, waiver of irregularity.
21. Sufficiency of the complaint.