

District Grand Secretary shall submit to the District Grand Master as soon as practicable that he may consult the District Grand Officers with reference to the same previous to the meeting of the District Grand Lodge.

XVIII:

The Master of every Lodge in the District shall, at the Quarterly Communication in March, produce, or cause to be produced, the Minute Book of his Lodge, for the inspection of the District Grand Master.

XIX.

No Motion for a Grant of Money, for a new Law or Regulation, or for the Alteration or Repeal of an old one, shall be made until communicated to the District Grand Secretary Fourteen clear days before the Quarterly Communication, nor until it shall have been handed up in writing to the District Grand Master; after having been perused and found by him not to contain anything contrary to the Antient Landmarks of the Order, the motion may be proposed, and, on being seconded, the question shall be put thereon; if carried and confirmed at the next ensuing meeting of the District Grand Lodge, it becomes law, provided that, (if other than a money vote) it be approved by the Most Worshipful The Grand Master.

XX.

The District Grand Master shall only be applied to on any business concerning Masons or Masonry, through the Deputy District Grand Master, the District Grand Registrar, or the District Grand Secretary.