

mention the Names of those Governors, but rather chuse to avoid it, as they did it for want of a true Knowledge of the Trade, and therefore were liable to be imposed upon by designing People. Sir George Rodney, when he was Governor, invalidated several of them, and one, in particular; which was a Patent for a Man to have the sole Privilege of drawing Baite at a certain Beech; which, had it remained in Force, would have ruined the remaining Part of the Inhabitants for Forty Leagues along the Coast.
