MARKHAM FEASTS HER FIGHTING MEN

Banquet at Agricultural Hall Unique Event in County

Ideal weather, the presence of nearly 5000 of the best citizens of Markham Township, and the Village of Markham, together with more than 100 of her returned heroes, all served to render the banquet and reception tendered the vetbanquet and reception tendered the veterans in Markham Village yesterday an event long to be remembered. No such gathering has ever been held hitherto in the historic old town, and a feature of which was the splendid reception tendered Lieut.-Col. F. F. Clarke of the 12th York Rangers, and Captain George B. Little.

Ir all, Markham Township sent about 240 soldier boys, and of these about 170 will qualify for the magnificent gold watches given by the township, a portion of which was raised by levy and the balance by voluntary contribution.

tion of which was raised by levy and the balance by voluntary contribution.

An abundance of the choicest viands dispensed with prodigality greeted the banquet. And why not? Their sons and brothers were home from the war and joy and happiness reigned supreme. The Agricultural Hall, where the festivities were held, was lavishly decorated with bunting. Seats were arranged for more than 500, and there was not a vacant one.

more than 500, and there was not a vacant one.

Toast List.

And the toast list, itself a short one, was happily chosen, including, of course, that of "The King," proposed by Reeve George B. Padget of Markham, and followed by the National Anthem, rendered by the Queen's Own Band and the Highland pipers. "The Veterans," proposed by Hon. George S. Henry (in the absence of Major T. H. Brunton), and coupled with the names of Lieut.-Col. Clarke and Captain Little, was the signal for a volley of cheers. In modest terms, typical of the man, Col. Clarke referred to some of the incidents connected with the war. Vimy Ridge was recalled, where the Markham boys unseasoned, and originally intended as defence troops, were thrown into the breach, and covered themselves with glory. "We are back in civil life," said Col. Clarke, and we are trying to forget some of the awful scenes we saw there, but these things are hard to forget. He referred to the fact that Corp, Joyce of Unionville was the first man to enlist, and paid a high tribute to the men of York County, and Canadians generally.

Captain Little spoke briefly, but effec-

Captain Little spoke briefly, but effectively, and said that the men were returning to civil life more than ever impressed with British traditions and British love of fair play.

To the Ladies.

The only other toast was that of the "Ladies," proposed by G. A. M. Davison of Unionville, who referred in happy terms to the great work performed by the women of York County in providing some of the comforts and many of the necessities of life. Coupled with this toast was the name of Mrs. H. S. Graham of Markham. Short devotional exercises were conducted prior to the banquet by Rev. Frank Rae of Unionville.

On the grounds during the afternoon on the grounds during the afternoon was a great game of baseball between the Millikens and Markham team, which went to Millikens by a score of 5 to 6. The batteries for Milliken were Mackin and Smith and for Markham, Wales. Prince and Reesor. There were lots of other events, and all run off in splendid shape by "Bert" Ferrier of Markham.

Those Present.

A few of those noticed on the grounds during the afternoon were extraorden Jonathan Nigh. Reeve Keith and Deputy Reeve Pearson of Newmarket, ex-Reeve Harry Lapp, ex-Warden Forster, Alex. Bruce and ex-Reeve Walter Scott, Ald H. H. Ball of Toronto, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Sifton, Rev. J. J. and Mrs. Ferguson, R. J. Cunningham, ex-president Markham Agricultural Society; Col. Deacon, R. A. Fleming, reeve of Markham village; Dr. G. E. Kelly, ex-Warden J. G. Cornell, Reuben Stiver, T. W. Underwood, Archie Camplin and scores of others equally prominent in the agricultural and commercial life of the municipality and county.

A tribute of praise is due Reeve Padget and all the other members of the Markham council; Messrs, Gohn, Mitchell, Smith and McKinnon, G. A. M. COULD SETTLE DISPUTE BY MILEAGE FARES

"The Toronto street car muddle could be settled to the satisfaction of all parties in my opinion by adopting the zone system," said Albert Hanna, secretary of the Danforth Ratepayers' Association, to The World yesterday, "The system works satisfactorily in Glasgow and other cities in the United Kingdom, and it is worthy of prompt consideration in Toronto by our civic authorities.

"It is a self-evident fact that the extra wages demanded by the men together with the building of sufficient road bed and linking together of the suburban systems will increase the cost of service to 7 or 8 cents, when taking into consideration the extra men required to run the cars and the building of new cars to give an efficient service.

"Instead of increasing the present fares, a charge of one cent a mile would cover the increased expenditure in my opinion." said Mr. Hanna, who added that the present high rate for short distances is the root of the whole trouble.

ST. JOSEPH'S GARDEN PARTY.

The annual garden party in connection with St. Joseph's Church, Leslie street, was held yesterday on the church grounds, which were tastefully laid out for the occasion. Gaily decorated booths in charge of the members of the young ladies' sodality were well patronized by the large crowd in attendance and good returns are anticipated from the brisk sales of confectionery and all kinds of fancy goods. Games and other amusements were much in evidence for the children and young people, and a string band provided music during the day. Among those present were Rev. Dr. A. O'Leary, pastor, and many friends from other parishes.

The proceeds will be devoted to the church debt.

JITNEYS AVOID "DIP."

It is a subject of comment in the Riverdale district that jitneys and taxis are carefully avoiding the "Devil's Hollow" on East Gerrard street, both going and coming. Asked as to his experiences, Mr. Stephenson said: "Never again do I want to go thru such a terrible experience. We were all sound asleep when the crash came. It felt as if the when the crash came. It felt as if the whole earth had gone smash. Up went the car in pitch darkness and then over on its side, hurling the passengers across the corridor. Men and women cursed, shrieked or prayed, as their nature directed. Mothers called for children. Husbands for wives. I grop-ed for my wife and found her unconscious, and, as I thought, dead, but she soon came to, and, I am glad to say, is only badly bruised and shaken, as far as can be ascertained. I managed to climb up over the splintered frame work of the bunks and to open a window. It was a great change from the pitch dark of the car, where the rush of water from broken pipes made many think we had fallen into the river, and to see as a contrast the lights of the main street of Dunkirk, in which the collision took place. But the feeling of relief was changed to one of disgust when dozens of drunk-em toughs, holding their last orgy on the eve of prohibition, clambered into the cars, robbing the injured, and, it is said, the dead. They respected neither death nor the fears of distract-

In his letter of transmittal, which was dated June 24, and is now made public today, Premier Clemenceau points out that in the first place the treaty does not constitute any fresh departure. "It has for long been the established procedure of the public law of Europe, that when a state is created, or even when large accessions of territory are made to an established state, the joint and formal recognition by the great powers should be accompanied by the requirement that such state should, in the form of a bind-ing international convention, undertake to comply with certain principles of government," he declares.

Religious Liberty

In emphasising the necessity of es-tablishing the principle of religious liberty, Premier Clemenceau said: "The principal allied and associated powers are of the opinion that they would be false to the responsibility which rests upon them if on this occasion they departed from what has become an established tradition. In this connection I must also recall to your consideration the fact that it is thru the endeavors and sacrifices of the powers in whose name I am addressing you that the Polish nation dressing you that the Polish nation owes the recovery of its independence. It is by their decision that Polish sovereignty is being re-established over the territories in question and that the inhabitants of these territories are being incorporated in the Polish nation. It is on the support which the resources of these powers will afford to the league of nations that the future Poland will to a large extent depend for the secure possession of these territories. There rests, therefore, upon these powers an obligation, which they cannot evade, to secure in which they cannot evade, to secure in which they cannot evade, to secure in the most permanent and solemn form, guarantees for certain essential rights which will afford to the inhabitants would be poor policy to argue the the necessary protection whatever changes may take place in the inter-
