CHARGES AGAINST POLICE DF ASSISTING PRISONERS

Alleged That Officials Advise Getting Certain Counsel and Send Notification.

Chief of Police Grasett has been instructed to investigate certain charges that the police of No. 1 station, Court-street, have used improper influence Jelfs. Richard Duniop, a Scotchman, to secure clients for J. Walter Curry, was given three months in jail x-crown attorney. This was decided at the meeting of the police amissioners yesterday afternoon. The investigation arises out of a letter from the sheriff of Linn County, Iowa, enclosing an affidavit of Mrs. Asenith Evan, who was extradited from Toronto on a charge of theft several weeks ago. The affidavit sets out that after Mrs. Evans was arrested the detectives and lodged in the station an officer in charge of the station told her that Mr. Curry was the best man to get to defend her and that she then wrote a note at the instance of this officer with material provided in the station which was iven to another for delivery. She says further that the same officer advised her to fight extradition.

Mr. Curry explained in court on the first day of Mrs. Evans' arraignment the street, and that that was how he came to be employed. Mrs. Evans, at the time, denied having written the note or having in any way employed Mr. Curry. Her husband also denied having retained counsel. Mr. Curry acted as Mrs. Evans' counsel for some time, but the woman finally consented

HAMILTON, Oct. 8 .- (Special.) - The Sunfield murder case will not be called before noon Wednesday. Perkins v. T. H. and B. will not be fintshed before noon, and the Sunfield case cannot be called until it is disposed of. Shaved Sunfield.

Jake Sunacia was taken before Chief Justice Falconbridge at the assizes to-day and entered a plea of not guilty to the charge of murdering Andrew Rodzyk on July 12 last.

He appared to be slightly agitated. His trial will likely commence to-morrow moreing at the conclusion of a civil action which is being heard. The prisener was shaved this morning by permission of the chief justice, the corration taking place in the the operation taking place in the sheria's office. The crown has a new witness in the son of Police Sergt. Walsh, who specied the prisoner. Mr. Waish works at the International Harvester works, and he was at the scene of the murder before the peace arrived. It is stated that he will testify that the murdered man told him that Sunfield shot him. The grand jury is still working on the grocers' combine case, and ad-journed this evening, without bringing
