New York, Oct. 21.—A special from London says: Paderewski, about whose sanity sensational runors have been current, is at present in the south of France, busily engged on a new opera, which he hopes to publish early in the new year. He is in vigorous health, and, except for an occasional visit to Paris, has been hard at swork for the last six weeks.

His London agent received a long letter from the great musician last week, in which he remarked how well he had been, and told what pleasure work on his new opera afforded him.

Paderewski would very much like to undertake another tour of the United States. but his agent is convinced that this will be impossible for some time to come.

ct al Argued But Not Finished.

Ottawa, Oct. 21.—(Special.)—In the Supreme Court to-day argument was taken up in the case of the Niagara District Fruit-Growers' Co. v. Walker, et al. The action was against the defendants as sureties of the company's local agent at London, for faithful service. The surety bond was renewed every year from 1891, and at the end of each year the account of the agent was settled and the bond given up. The agent each year mas behind, and settled by paying part and giving an endorsed note for the balance. In 1894 no settlement was made, and the action was brought, resulting in a verdict for the company of $1774. This verdict was set aside by the Court of Appeal, on the ground that the sureties were discharged by failure of the company to notify them of the default in previous years, which the Court of Appeal held was a fraudulent concealment by the company. The argument was not concluded to-day. Moss, Q.C., and Meyer for appellant; Armour, Q.C., for respondent. The next case is Kingston v. Drennan.

Winnipeg, Oct. 21.—(Special.)—Mr. Sifton, at the Brandon convention yesterday, decilining to accept the Liberal nomination, was a great surprise. The Free Press editorially points out the injury the school question is deling Manitoba in depriving it of representation in the Cabinet.

It now develops that there is no settlement of the school question in sight as yet as between the two Governments, and it has been quite apparent to any intelligent observer for some time that, was there such settlement was reached or not as between these parlies, there was a third party to be considered, who at present was not being reckoned with ac all, and without whom no final settlement could be reached."

Paul, Minn., says: "The attention of James J. Hill, President of the Great Northern Railway, was called to a sensational story printed in a New York paper yesterday, to the effect that he, Charles A. Pillsbury, and other men of wealth had entered into a gigantic combination to corner wheat. Mr. Hill characterized the story as wholly absurd. He said reports from the various stations along the Great Northern road indicated that there was far less wheat in the elevators than at any time for the last three years, and that he had no doubt that the grain was moving to market with unusual speed, owing to the great rise in the price of wheat since last Friday. Grain was even moving in large quantities from as far west as Idaho and Washington, some of it going directly to Portland, thence to be shipped to India. Mr. Hill rejects the idea that there is any politics in the rise in the price of wheat. Both Mr. Washburne and Mr. Pillsbury last evening denied that they had any interest whatever in a wheat corner."

What must he think, then, of his leader, Mr. Tarte, when he learns that the Minister of Public Works to-day started on his western jaunt in one of these private cars, with well-stocked larder and a darkey porter to serve up the good things of this life, and all at the public expense? But, to quote a Liberal campaign document, which did good duty a few months ago: "Farmers of Canada, what do you think of this?"
Mr. Tarte was accompanied by Mme. Tarte, Miss Tarte. Miss Robillard, Mr. Bourassa, M. P., and Mr. Getinas, the Minister's private secretary. May they have a good time on their western trip, and may Mr. Tarte come back with his ideas broadened.
