A. L. Meyer Charged With Fraud
In Manipulating Stocks of Webb-Meyer Syndicate.

New York, May 4.—The Tribune says: The rumor current on Friday afternoon that legal proceedings were impending against one or more of the prominent members of the so-called "Webb-Meyer syndicate" was substantiated yesterday, when it became known that Justice Giegerich, sitting in chambers, had issued an order of arrest for Arthur L. Meyer on affidavits alleging fraud at his office, in the Broad-Exchange Building, during the morning until about 1 o'clock, when he went out to luncheon. He did not return, and it was said that he had gone uptown, but later in the afternoon it was understood that he had started for Long Branch, where he had a summer home. Private detectives and a deputy sheriff, armed with a warrant of arrest, waited for hours yesterday for Mr. Meyer to come back, guarding both exits of the building, but in vain. It was learned late at night that Mr. Meyer was not in Long Branch, and he could not be found at his home uptown.

Another Airship Flies.
Senior Augusto Severo Makes a Successful Ascent in Paris.

Paris, May 4.—In spite of the threatening weather, Senior Augusto Severo, the Brazilian aeronaut, made a successful first trial with his airship at the Vaugirard Aerostatic Park today. Senior Severo's airship is called La Paix. The balloon, held by a rope, ascended 40 metres and obeyed the impulse of its propellers, steering easily and maintaining perfect equilibrium. After manoeuvring for a short time Senior Severo safely returned the airship to its shed.

Another Consumption Cure.
Iodide of Potassium Used to Check Incipient Cases.

Paris, May 4.—Another attempt to combat tuberculosis has just been communicated to the Academy of Medicine by Dr. Spadari. He claims that iodine consumption by administering iodide of potassium in solution in very small doses, each dose followed by an inhalation of essence of turpentine, has a beneficial effect. This treatment is concurrent with the usual hygienic and dietetic treatment.

Southampton, May 4.—Dr. Jameson, Field Marshal Lord Wolsley, Rudyard Kipling and Mr. Mitchell, manager of the Cape Town branch of the Standard Bank and one of the executors of Mr. Rhodes' will, arrived here from South Africa today on the steamship Walmer Castle. Dr. Jameson was welcomed by J. F. Hawley, the solicitor for the late Cecil Rhodes, and other members of Rhodes' staff.

Wilhelmina Dying.
Small Hope for Her Recovery Entered Late Sunday Night.

The Hague, May 5.—It was announced from Castle Loo at midnight last night that Queen Wilhelmina had been prematurely confined at 10 o'clock Sunday evening. Prof. Rosenstein, Dr. Roessingh and the other doctors were in attendance. The Queen suffered intense agony. She was unconscious and critical, and small hope for her recovery was entertained.

Who Would Succeed.
London, May 5.—Apart from the difficulties surrounding the question of the succession to the throne of Holland, the death of Queen Wilhelmina, if this should unannouncedly occur, would tend to convulse the continent politically. In Germany especially it is a matter of the deepest import. The names of the candidates are: Prince Albert of Hohenzollern, the acting regent of Brunswick, is among the names of the candidates. The absence of a direct heir to the throne in Berlin is regarded as Germany's natural right.

MR. WHITNEY AT HUNTSVILLE

Together With Messrs. Crawford and Foy He Makes First Speech of the Tour.

MET AT STATION BY BRASS BAND

Meeting in the interests of A. A. Mahaffy, the Conservative Candidate—A Pleading Incident.

Huntsville, May 4.—Opposition Leader Whitney's invasion of the northern districts of Ontario has commenced auspiciously. Huntsville last night capitulated to his friendly overtures and gave him as warm a reception as could have been desired. Whitney, together with J. J. Foy, K.C., and Thomas Crawford he addressed a gathering that filled Church Hall to overflowing. An improvised gallery had been erected at the end of the hall, but even with that additional accommodation many could not gain admission. All three speakers gave a campaign of argument.

They appealed to the thinking classes, and their criticisms of the government and declarations of its incompetency to properly grapple with the affairs of the province were reinforced by reasons for their contentment with the present administration. The speeches of all three were short and snappy, intently listened to and enthusiastically applauded. In short there was about the whole meeting an interest and an enthusiasm that portends success for A. A. Mahaffy, in whose interests it was primarily held.

Greeted By a Band.
When the visitors arrived they were met by the prominent Conservatives of the town and the Huntsville brass band, escorted thru the streets to their hotel. At the hall station Whitney, Crawford from side to side bearing such inscriptions as "Mahaffy to redeem Muskoka," "Whitney for Mahaffy," "The town is yours." From distances of 20 miles or more people came to greet the visitors and they were thoroughly representative of the constituency.

The chairman, William Wright, in a happy speech, introduced Candidate Mahaffy, and that gentleman, well-known throughout the district, commended with prolonged applause. Short, clearly and without any frills, he made what was obviously an effective appeal for his listeners. "Mahaffy," he made no bones about telling them why Mr. Whitney spoke on his behalf in Huntsville. It was because the town had the curious habit of rolling up a Liberal majority. [Laughter.] However, he hoped they would rise over the prejudice against the Conservative party and roll up a majority the other way.

A voice: "That's what we will do." Crawford and Foy.
Thomas Crawford, who followed, explained that this was his first visit to Huntsville, whereas some one cried, "He sure and come here before." He made no bones about telling them why Mr. Whitney spoke on his behalf in Huntsville. It was because the town had the curious habit of rolling up a Liberal majority. [Laughter.] However, he hoped they would rise over the prejudice against the Conservative party and roll up a majority the other way.

Three Ontario cabinet Ministers are to be immediately opposed by the prohibitionists, and the fact that W. W. Buchanan is going to Middlesex County next week indicates that something is going to happen in Premier Ross' constituency. Hon. E. J. Davis, Hon. John Dryden and Hon. J. R. Stratton will have the prohibition mass meeting at Mount Albert to-morrow evening. This place, while in North York, is near enough to South Ontario for the speakers to deal with both Messrs. Davis and Dryden. Rev. Mr. Dixon is organizing the prohibition independents in South Ontario, and a good man is reported to be available for the prohibition nomination there.

Plague and Famine Worse Than Ever, Especially in Punjab.
London, May 4.—There are gloomy prophecies as to the outlook in India. Both the plague and the famine appear to be worse than ever, and the unfortunate country is threatened with even greater horrors than during the recent famine and disease.

Natal's Naval Gift.
First-Class Cruiser is Offered to Britain by the Colony.

London, May 4.—The Mail's correspondent at Pietermaritzburg says: I understand that Sir J. Gordon Sprigg and Sir Alfred Hime, the Premiers of Cape Colony and Natal, respectively, will proceed to Johannesburg to consult with Lord Milner before attending the coronation conference, and that Sir A. Hime will present the nation, on behalf of Natal, with a gift of a first-class cruiser to the British navy.

Prisoner Parole is Dead.
Succeeded to Gaol after Three Days Before His Expected Liberation.

Kingston, May 3.—Parole, one of the chief conspirators in the Napane bank robbery that created great excitement throughout the country in 1898, was released by death today in Kingston Penitentiary. He would have completed his term of imprisonment, three months and ten days, on Tuesday next. Parole was an old man, formerly of Montreal and Boston. His death was due to gangrene. A year ago his left leg was amputated. Several months ago an old disease broke out in the other leg, and his constitution was too weak to stand the shock. It is said he has left a large sum of money to his sister.

Saw His Wife Drown.
West Newton, Pa., May 4.—A skiff containing four grown people and a child was overturned in the Youghiogheny River here to-day and two were drowned. The dead are: Mrs. Fred Landsparger and her son, aged four years. Besides Mr. and Mrs. Landsparger and son, Miss Maggie Herring and Fred Bendig were in the boat. Landsparger helped Miss Herring to shore, supposing that the woman was his wife, but when he heard the wife and child cry for help he returned to the water, only to see them sink from view, clutched in one another's arms.

"BAR-HUNTER ROSS (to Prohibition Party): You go over and prod him with this 'poll,' friend, and if he's weak or in a condition of torpor I'll come out and put him out of business with the musket."

Ottawa, May 4.—The House of Commons will meet to-morrow morning at 10 o'clock and still 1 o'clock, resuming again at 3 o'clock. It is calculated in ministerial circles that, by dint of these morning sittings, the sessional program will be cleared by Saturday evening, but it is doubtful, with two batches of supplementary estimates to be disposed of, whether it will be possible to prorogue before May 13, at the earliest.

AN ASTONISHING SHOWING.
The Canadian Pacific Railway earned $1,050,000 last week, $274,000 more than the same week last year. There is a general expectation among good judges of value that the shares of this company will sell at between 150 and 175 this year. Last week's earnings broke all former records, but it is only an evidence of what is coming.

PASTOR WILL ATTEND THEATRES
Sees No Reason Why He Should Not Do as His Congregation Does.

Ottawa, May 4.—At the morning service in the First Baptist Church yesterday Rev. A. A. Cameron, the popular pastor, created a mild sensation when he introduced a reference to theatres in his sermon. Rev. Mr. Cameron was discussing the New Testament's standard of judgment, and in doing so stated that he had almost made up his mind to attend the theatres.

He said that he noticed that a number of his flock and other friends attended, and he considered he had a right to share in the innocent enjoyment which they derived if there was anything objectionable in the theatre he did not think they had any more right to attend and thus constitute it than he had.

After the service the sermon was discussed by many of the members of the congregation, a number of whom supported the pastor. The fact that the campaign was recently waged against the poster and the admission of children to the local theatres added interest to the pastor's remarks.

Rev. Mr. Cameron is head of one of the principal churches in Ottawa, and a forcible preacher, who frequently discusses from the pulpit the issues of the hour.

CORONATION PARADE STANDS
High Prices Demanded for Seats—Placed for 2,000,000 Spectators.

London, May 4.—Preparations for proceeding on a great scale. Seats have been planned, and in many cases are already half built, which will accommodate 2,000,000 seated spectators. Prices for single seats in the best locations in Piccadilly are still absurdly high, twenty guineas being frequently demanded.

Finally, the Strand advertisements seats at from ten to three guineas, but it seems safe to prophesy that unless there is a great reduction there will be thousands of empty seats along the route, experience having shown that enormous multitudes can stand along a six-mile course.

The demolition of many houses on the Strand, which has been deferred for some time, is now being hurried for the sake of erecting stands. The block of the Savoy Hotel is now half done.

Home and Foreign Produce Exchanges Criticize Our Article.
Ottawa, May 4.—The Cheese Subcommittee of the Home and Foreign Produce Exchange has forwarded to the Minister of Agriculture a report on the Canadian cheese industry in England last year, which bears out the warning already sounded by the Dairy Commissioner.

It is reported that the cheese was rank in flavor, due, probably, to being shipped before being thoroughly cured. The committee also deprecates the shipment of too large a number of heavy cheeses, in this, brittle boxes, and suggests that the weights be plainly stamped on all boxes, instead of scribbled on with lead pencil.

Finally, the committee suggested that cheese be forwarded only in ships supplied with cool-air ventilation, as cheese is invariably carried from New Zealand.

Adoption of a Tariff Wider in Scope Than the Present May Be Natural Result.

New York, May 4.—The Tribune's London correspondent says: What Henry Labouchere in "Truth" describes as "the neuritic condition over naval supremacy" continues. The newspapers and members of parliament are discussing, day after day, the menace of the American Shipping Ring, and fidgeting over the prospect of having the British commercial marine put under the command of Capt. Morgans, and the food supply left dependent upon the caprices and avarice of American millionaires and speculators.

Country in the Dark.
Meanwhile, the country remains in the dark, and does not know what there is for public apprehension. Practical men in the shipping and food import trade take a more sensible view. They assert that the steamship lines have been compelled to build faster and more expensive ships, and that the business has become unprofitable for half the year, and that subventions and mail payments made by the British government have not sufficed for the maintenance of remunerative business. They add that Mr. Morgan, with all his talents in the world as an organizer, could not have brought the lines together, if there had not been an urgent necessity for the avoidance of destructive competition and the readjustment of freight and passenger rates.

No Transfer of Flag.
Since there are substantial reasons for the trans-Atlantic trade, it is assumed by men in the shipping and export trades that neither Mr. Morgan nor any manager associated with him has any intention of creating formidable rivalries by transferring ships from one flag to another, and compelling the very government to subsidize new lines in self-defence, and securing the carriage of food supplies at moderate rates. While the organization of the shipping ring cannot be suspected of altruism in becoming the self-appointed guardians of the Atlantic carrying trade and of the collective commercial fortunes of the progressive maritime world, it is evident that naval armaments will be less important and war less probable among the nations.

One significant effect of the immense impression made by the shipping amalgamation is the widespread idea of a revolution in becoming the self-appointed guardians of the Atlantic carrying trade and of the collective commercial fortunes of the progressive maritime world, it is evident that naval armaments will be less important and war less probable among the nations.

Pekin, May 4.—Another priest is reported to be missing from Chen Teng Fu, Province of Chili. The uprising there embraces a radius of 50 miles. The Americans are believed to be sufficiently protected.

The Big May Sale.
Now a new hat is a great thing, but when you get one at a popular price, get one at a popular price. Your opportunity is now. Don't fall to visit Dineen's.
