The blow was a terrific one and Mr. Brown died within five minutes without recovering consciousness. Dr. Agar was called, but medical assistance was of him, and even have one suspect in minutes without the police have an excellent description of him, and even have one suspect in mind already. Led by Detective James McKay, of Holyoke, Springfield, Chicopee and Ludlow are all working vigorously on the case. The circumstances of the murder are so extraordinary that if seems almost certain it was done by a young fellow who was degenerate, When Kane was returning to his Ludlow farm from Holyoke with his day's collections from the milk route, amounting to not more than the first have defended by the purpose of the country of him, and even have of him, are purposed to the purpose of the was for little police. amounting to not more than $40, the young fellow evidently obtained the privilege of riding with him, and when' Kane was off his guard, shot him, searched his pockets for money, settled the dying man down in the cart, jumped out and closed the door, and then sent the horse along home.
