MAY 24.

PURSE FOR RECTOR HYDE PARK, May 22. — A most enjoyablye celebration was held at the Church of the Hosanna's rectory when the members of the Hyde Park church rathered to celebrate the 25th anniversary of the wedding of Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Durnford, Mrs. Durnford.

Fred Routledge, on behalf of the people, extended hearty congratulations, accompanied with a purse containing $40, and several handsome articles of gilvenyare. taining $40, and several handsome articles of silverware.

Mr. Durnford, on behalf of himself and Mrs. Durnford, feelingly replied. In his remarks he referred to the many kindnesses they had received at the hands of the congregation, and the spirit of harmony prevailing throughout the parish. After a bountiful repast provided by the ladies, they all betook themselves to the parlor, where, with music and happy conversation, the evening was enjoyably spent.

GOOD WHEAT PROSPECTS.

KOMOKA, May 22.—The farmers in this vicinity have finished their seeding, and are now busy planting their potatoes. The fall wheat is looking splendid, and prospects are bright for a bountiful harvest.

INJURED BY WINDLASS.
WINGHAM, May 22. — T. Ritchte, while unloading monument stone, was badly injured when the windlass broke, padly injured when the windlass broke, and he was struck on the head by part of the machinery. He was unconscious for some time. Dr. Hambly was called, and after rendering first aid had the man taken to his home.

Sunday school applied.

Sunday school anniversary services were conducted at the Methodiss Church here on Sunday. Rev. Mr. Halpenny of Toronto occupied the pulpit at both services. THE LAST WEEK OF OUR STUPENDOUS DICTIONARY

by the United States in 1898, was the higher education of U. S. soldiers and sailors. This is what makes the "man behind the gun." As you increase a person's vocabulary you enhance his power of thought. And it is this power to think that gives initiative to the individual. Of course the only proper method acquiring new words and their meanings, is the dictionary. We could wish that every man, woman and child within reach of this newspaper had one of our New Universities Dictionaries. It would certainly raise the average of intelligence to such an extent that our readers would be multiplied fourfold. And next to our public schools, if not on a par with them, is to be reckoned the press of the country. With these ideas we have undertaken one of the most wonderful educational campaigns ever inaugurated by a great public daily. Our success has been remarkable, and we hope that during the few days now remaining of our distribution of the New Universities Dictionaries. It maining of our distribution of the New Universities Dictionary, every reader of our paper will take advantage of what is nearly a free distribution of a book that should be in every home.
