This week we have been advertising specials in the Town of North Toronto, and we have been meeting with great success in disposing of these properties. All eyes are on the Northern Suburb, and choice lots at moderate prices are fast being picked up. In this subur there are the choicest building sites to be had in Ontario. They are situated three hundred feet above the level of Lake Ontario, and the surrounding country can be seen for miles. Eglint is only twenty-five minutes from King on Yonge by trolley. Let us show you some of the property. It is a sound investment.

Toronto Accountant Examines Books of Cataract For Evidence in Arbitration.

HAMILTON, July 26.—(Special.)— This morning Judge Snider started the hearing of evidence in the street lighting arbitration, which was referred back to him by the court of appeal on the Cataract Power Company's appli-cation several months ago, because of a technicality. When the matter was city to order the company to allow an expert in the employ of the city to inspect its books, and to inspect its nower plant. These orders were made by his honor. This morning Mr. Edwards, a Toronto accountant, testified that he had examined the books and that he found nothing in them to show that the city was entitled to a reducthat the city was entitled to a reduction in the cost of street lighting ope-cause of "improvements or advances in the electric art," this clause in the contract being the point on which the whole matter hinges.
