ENEMY RESISTS WITH OFFENSIVE

Germans Become Energetic Under Von Hindenburg's Control.

ADOPTS NEW TACTICS

Teuton General Desperately Strives to Resist Russian Advance.

he can more than temporarily check the advance of the Russian forces upon Kovol.

Lost One Village.
The Russians have succeeded (in consolidating all the positions won in the recent battle between the Stokhod and Kovol except one village, which they were compelled to yield before a German counter-attack.)

Meaning the Russian gain of control of the northern part of the Stokhod, where it crosses the Pinski marshes, seemingly have effectively eliminated all danger of further flank attacks by the Germans, and are now in a position to continue their progress along the direct routes to Kovol without fear of the possible encircling of their right wing.

Make Stand for Lemberg.
The Austrians, concentrating on the roads to Lemberg, are endeavoring to hold their positions in the region of the Sereth River, a few miles southwest of Brody. The Russians have already scored successes in this continuation of the Brody battle, taking 5500 prisoners in their latest stroke.

On the extreme southern flank, the Austrian forces under Gen. Pflanzner, which were so badly shattered after the fall of Czernowitz, have brought about a partial reorganization, and are making a Russian attack upon the left wing of Gen. Brusilov's forces in the region southwest of Kut.

This attack is by small numbers of men, and military observation here thinks there is slight hope of effecting any real change in the situation.

SOCIETY

Conducted by Mrs. Edmund Phillips

H. R. H. the Princess Patricia will be much gratified that the sale of the replicas of her miniature has reached such an enormous number. Lady White has reported the success of the sale to Ottawa. The proceeds are for the benefit of the Red Cross.

The Duchess of Devonshire will, of course, vacate the office of mistress of the robes when she comes to Canada. There have been no ceremonies at court since the war broke out, so the official duties of the duchess have been in complete abeyance. The mistress of the robes holds her place pre-eminently under a queen consort. During Queen Victoria's reign the office was ministerial.

Sir George Parley and Lady Parley will return to England at the end of the month.

Her Royal Highness the Princess Patricia of Connaught, attended by her lady-in-waiting, Miss Adm., and Capt. Macintosh, A.D.C., is leaving today for St. Anne, Cape Breton, to spend a few days with Mr. and Mrs. J. K. L. Ross, Montreal, at their country house.

Lord Richard Neville, comptroller of the household, and Capt. Macintosh, A.D.C., to His Royal Highness the Duke of Connaught, will not accompany their royal highnesses on their return to England, but will remain in Canada until after the arrival of the new governor-general, the Duke of Devonshire.

His honor the lieutenant-governor spent several days last week on the Georgian Bay, returning to Toronto on Saturday, and from there proceeded to his house at Niagara-on-the-Lake.
