The Toronto World

FOUNDED 1880,

Company of Toronto, Limited,
H. J. MACLEAN, Managing Director.
World Building, Toronto.
40 West Richmond Street.
Telephone Calls: Main 303—Private exchange connecting all departments.
Branch Office—31 South John St.,
Hamilton. Telephone, Regent 1946.
Dally World—2c per copy; delivered, 50c per month, $1.35 for 3 months, $2.60 for 8 months, $5.00 per year in advance; or $4.00 per year, 40c per month, by mail in Canada (except Toronto), United Kingdom, United States and Mexico, Sunday World—5c per copy, $2.50 per year, by mail.
To Foreign Countries, postage extra.

SATURDAY MORNING, HIMP 10. SATURDAY MORNING, JUNE 12.

No Unfriendly Disposition Towards the United States.

No unfriendly disposition toward ing and regulating certain exports from Canada. In the matter of news-the United States, however, would revolution. have suggested shipping all the coal out of the country and permitting the American people to freeze. So no one could seriously urge that we should export all our paper to the United States and cease to have any publications of our own in Canada spirit about the proposal of the government. No paper will be retained turers cannot export their entire output to a foreign country and refuse arbitrarily to meet the demands of quith in the debating hall of the Oxthe home market.

Czardom's Poverties.

news is rather depressing to those of eloquence. who grieve over nothing so much as These Englishmen really do say dethe falling stars of monarchy. When cent things about their political rivals. czardom comes into court to pick up "Galloper Smith," the breezier name a little money, the divine right has for Lord Birkenhead, spoke like this indeed fallen on hard times.

garia, who was expected to throw in times: his chances with the allies, who lost his gamble, and is rusticating somewhere in Switzerland, is applying to the English courts for restoration of funds he had invested there, and which were forfeited because of his

The Fox of the Balkans (that was) makes an affidavit, which is surely unique in the documentary history of modern monarchy. He says "Please, sir, it wasn't me." in the tone of a mendicant who has forgotten that once he held a sceptre. He avers that neither as prince nor as czar of Bulgaria did he have absolute power. He was controlled by his ministers, who were really responsible for Bulgaria's share in the war, and he doesn't want to lose his investments in England ing session at Ottawa for the first because of the late infelicity between time have marvoled at the courtesies the report of application for the ad- have thought that there was a base the report of application for the ad-ministration of an estate of twenty-betrayal of the animosities that in-crease includes a preliminary 14 per five hundred dollars, in support of evitably belong to political strife. But which an affidavit has been sworn by the there is much personal friendliness the Grand Duchess Xenia Alexan- in the arena, there is not enough of drovna of Russia. The estate repre- courteous confession of the merits of sents the possessions in England of opponents in public. There is more the late czar of Russia, and the ad- than there was, but there is plenty of ministration has been granted to his room for improvement. sister, who is now living at 28 Draycott-place, a not very exclusive section of Chelsea. In her affidavit the grand duchess declares that the czar died on July 16, 1918, nual meeting today of the New Brunsat Ekaterinburg in Russia, domiciled in Russia, intestate; that neither his wife nor any child of his survived him, and that under Russian law his mother (who survived him) has no interest in the estate or in the grant of letters of administration, which interest vests in his two sisters who survive him.

Ten years ago it would have been thought impossible for a czar's sister ever to proceed publicly to obtain five hundred pounds, of which she could hundred pounds, of which she could have been sufficiently cross to Captains (Charles Pitblado, 13th; and the Rev. Charles Masters, 58th.

BEAUTIFUL RESIDENTIAL PROPERTY

WEST SIDE OF BATHURST ST. NORTH OF ST. CLAIR AVE.

Two miles from the corner of Bioor and Yonge Streets, and thirty minutes by street car to King and Yonge Streets. Adjoins the beautiful residential section surrounding Grace Church, on Russell Hill Road—a of St. Clair Avenue and Bathurst Street.

300 acres of restricted property, with township taxes; large lots and park areas; locality is strictly first-class and very attractive on account of the beauty of the Ravine and the new bridge, massive gates and other substantial improvements.

SPECIAL FACILITIES offered to persons who BUILD; first mortgage will be arranged; also second mortgage for part of purchase

HOUSES WILL BE CONSTRUCTED for owners under supervision of Company's Superintendent at MINIMUM COST.

CONVENIENCES—Hydrants and city water, electric light, good roads and sewage disposals; five minutes' walk to city cars.

APPLY British & Colonial Land & Securities Company, Bank of Hamilton Building, Telephone Main 1959; or H. B. Taber, Superin-

only receive half, after expenses were paid. The majesty of English law is such that even when it is applied to the affairs of majesty its regular forms must be observed. The grand

The war has left many deep scars on royalty, our own not excluded. Queen Alexandra and the ex-Empress Dagmar, daughters of King Christian of Denmark, belonged to a singularly happy family, whose gatherings at the United States prompts the gov. Copenhagen were remarkable for their ernment to ask for legislation licens- unaffectedly domestic pleasures. And now the bitterest stage of having poor relations has been reached in the palprint, for example, the Canadian pub. aces of the august. The sadness of lishers only ask for 15 per cent. of the episode in Marlborough House the entire output of the mills. They when the queen mother's equerry was realize that the big market for paper asked to go on a grand duchess' bond is in the United States, and they are for a thousand pounds to guarantee quite willing that 85 per cent. of the that she would properly administer newsprint manufactured by Canadian half that sum must have been a poigmills should go to United States nant reminder that all the casualties of the Armageddon that was loosed by During the coal famine the United another relative of Queen Alexandra States quite generously treated Can- were not confined to soldiers who ada as one of her own family, and we fought in the field. "The czar's last got a certain percentage of the output five hundred" is indeed a pathetic reof the American mines. No one in minder of the war and the Russian

Where Chivalry is Found.

FRONTENAC FARMERS

Kingston, Ont., June 11 .- (Special)

-Sheep shearing is proceeding at a

Chatham, June 11.-(Special.)-A government investigation into the removal of gravel from the River St.

AVIATOR REACHES WARSAW

ON ROUND-EUROPE FLIGHT

Paris, June 11 .- Lieut. Henri Roget, the French aviator who left Paris on Thursday morning on an "around Extrope" flight, arrived at Warsaw ens, Rome and then back to Paris.

GRANT COAL WORKERS A RAISE.

Workers of America, whereby a 27 per cent. increase will be given to all day men over the October scale, to cent. increase given last January.

OTHER PEOPLE'S

OPINIONS

still unquestioned assumption that the river bank at Fort Frances, and the the terms of the grant were modi-fied to the extent of allowing the Backus company to use on the Minnesota side all the energy produced until it might be required in Ontario.

Meanwhile the company, because it was an international corporation, was constrained by the Dominion government charter to account continuous.

constrained by the Dominion government charter to accept conditions approximating very closely to the original conditions of the 1904 franchise; and, somewhat later, as the consideration for an extension of time to the company, the late Hon. F. Cochrane insisted successfully that the latter should consent to being put back into the same position as to the distribution of produced energy.

tion of produced energy.

I do not know whether these facts have any bearing on the present issue chises along the international part of the improved St. Lawrence if the great scheme goes thru, Onlooker.

Some things they do better in France -public men acknowledge openly services rendered by the press. Some lively rate. There is titter complaint things they do better in England- over the prevailing price of wool. Far- Former Minister and Medical ston, this week, were offered thirteen cents, a pound, and some took their wool back home. They say the price should be considerably higher, because there is no reduction in prices of wool, yarns, underwear, socks and that they should receive a fair price for their material. one another's personal and public virtues. Public life in Canada would be frightened out of its wits if public men were to take to eulogizing their political foes. The latest example of the chivalry which the old-liners refor their material gard as suicidal foolishness in Canada comes from Oxford, where the lord SAYS U. S. NTERESTS chancellor unveiled a bust of Mr. Asford Union, of which he was president nearly fifty years ago.

The bust is alongside those of Mr. Gladstone and Lord Salisbury, also Except of our own Family, the royal former presidents of this nursing home of a former prime minister whom he The perfidious Ferdinand of Bul- has impersonally assailed myriads of

"No subordinate minister ever served a leader more generous, more sympathetic, or more chival-rous. Not the least of the services he rendered was to carry a measure of consequences." ure of conscription at the moment he did with almost complete ap-proval. It was time for the stream of ignorant and malignant criti-cism to be swept away forever. When the ultimate historian dealt with the period of the great war, he would decide that there was enough glory for all in those days charged with crisis. The roll of ex-presidents of the Oxford Union would never contain the name of a man of whom it could be said that he was a greater or more single-hearted citizen, a loyaler friend, or a worthier officer of the so-ciety."

Some members of parliament attendfriends. Ferdinand may get his exchanged between opponents. Some money, but his stock won't go up. vehement partisan visitors in the gal-There is a background of pathos to leries, observing amenities on the floor,

The World will gladly print under this head letters written by our readers, dealing with current topics. As space is limited they must not be longer than 200 words and written on one side of the paper only. HEADS CONFERENCE. Sackville, N.B., June 11 .- At the an-THE FORT FRANCES FRANCHISE. wick and Prince Edward Island Methodist conference, Rev. D. R. Chown, of Oakhill. P.E.I., was elected president. HONORS FOR CANADIANS.

London, June 11 .- Honors for Canadians gazetted today were:
Distinguished service order to Major William Hendrie, artillery, and to Lieut.-Col. William Sansom, machine gun. The military cross to Captains

PROTEST WOOL PRICES FERGUSON PREPARES TO MEET ACCUSERS

COE HILL, N. HASTINGS.

CALGARY PRESBYTERIANS

BIRDSCREEK HOME BURNS.

U. S. EDITORS ON TOUR.

erty." he said.

SAY MINISTERS UNPAID

UNVEILS WAR MEMORIAL

Adviser, Dr. Godfrey, Are Back From South.

Hon. G. Howard Ferguson and Dr. Forbes Godfrey, who have returned from British Guiana, where the former minister went in search of health, TAKE CANADA'S GRAVEL accompanied by Dr. Godfrey as his medical adviser, strongly declare that the former's absence was in no way connected with the inquiry into timber limits.

Interviewed at his home in Kempt-val of gravel from the River St. in the yamerican interests was dended by the Kent County Council, en it adopted a recommendation of the process that after he has read the county from a number of leading Presbyterian General Assembly at Ottawa, on Thursday, regarding the minimum salary for ministers, found ready sympathy from a number of leading Presbyterian General Assembly at Ottawa, on Thursday, regarding the minimum salary for ministers, found ready sympathy from a number of leading Presbyterian General Assembly at Ottawa, on Thursday, regarding the minimum salary for ministers, found ready sympathy from a number of leading Presbyterian General Assembly at Ottawa, on Thursday, regarding the minimum salary for ministers of Calgary when interviewed to the salary that after he has read the output of the presbyterian General Assembly at Ottawa, on Thursday, regarding the minimum salary for ministers of Calgary when interviewed to the salary for ministers of Calgary when interviewed to the second of the presbyterian General Assembly at Ottawa, on Thursday, regarding the minimum salary for ministers of Calgary when interviewed to the second of the presbyterian General Assembly at Ottawa, on Thursday, regarding the minimum salary for ministers of Calgary when interviewed to the second of the presbyterian General Assembly at Ottawa, on Thursday, regarding the minimum salary for ministers of Calgary when interviewed to the second of the presbyterian General Assembly at Ottawa, on Thursday, regarding the minimum salary for ministers of Calgary when interviewed to the second of the presbyterian General Assembly at Ottawa, on Thursday, regarding the minimum salary for ministers of Calgary when interviewed to the second of the presbyterian General Assembly at Ottawa, on Thursday, regarding the minimum salary for moval of gravel from the River St.

Clair by American interests was demanded by the Kent County Council, when it adopted a recommendation of the legislation committee to that effect this afternoon. The report said that the committee's information is that deposits on the American side have been practically exhausted, and that the extent of operations carried on in Canadian water is rapidly depleting Canadian deposits.

Ville, Ont. Hon. Mr. Ferguson declaritions arising out of the timber probe. He states that after he has read the evidence presented before the Riddell-Latchford commission he will enter the box. Until then he declines to make any lengthy statement.

Asked whether there was anything in reports that he had taken a number of documents away with him, he said he had no recollection of having said he had no recollection of having A resolution was also passed, au- done so. thorizing the county engineer to prepare specifications and secure an estimate of the cost of a bridge at and the Doyle rule, he replied:

Prairie Siding to replace the present inadequate ferry system. "As regards the Doyle rule, that has been the custom for years. At one been the custom for years. At one time I suggested there should be a change from that, but Aubrey White, who had been deputy minister for years, advised against it, as that had been the rule for many years, and it would be inadvisable to change."

Mr. Ferguson explained that when timber was not as valuable as it is now, the Doyle rule worked well, because only the best of lumber was used. But now, when all lumber is lumber, it makes a difference.
Dr. Godfrey said: "Hon. Howard late yesterday, according to advices from the Polish capital.

The next leg of Lieut, Roget's flight is to Bucharest, after which he will attempt to fly to Constantinople, Atheres and then have to Polish Ferguson never ran away from any-thing in his life, and I know that as well as anyone, and the whole thing is contemptible. But he is back now, and he is going to fight back. He wanted to come back repeatedly regardless of his health, but as his medical adviser I prevailed on him to stay, and have come back with him in good health." Calgary. June 11.—An agreement was concluded last evening between the coal operators of Alberta and the representatives of the United Mine good health."

INCREASE CAPITAL

Ottawa, June 11.-Increases of capi-Ottawa, June 11.—Increases of capital by stock companies are gazetted this week by three companies. The St. Lawrence Starch Co., Ltd., Montreal, increases from $800.000 to $2.500,000; Continental Wood Products Company, Ltd., from $200,000 to $2.000,000, and Thurston-Flavelle, Ltd., from $250,000 to $1,000,000.

NEW INCORPORATIONS.

Ottawa. June 11.—(By Canadian Press)—Copper Products, Limited, Montreal, has been granted letters patent during the week. The capitalization of the company is $3,000,000. Other companies incorporated include Safetee Soap Corporation Ltd., Toronto, $50,000 and Anglo-Canadian Picture Plays, Ltd., Montreal, $750,000. Editor World: Speaking from recolection, I would like to set out a few facts about this once famous but rapidly becoming notorious hydro-electric In 1904 the Ross government, on the international water power in part, were owned by this province—gave by order-in-council a hydro-electric fran-Brandon, Man. June 11 .- The prospect for a good crop in this district is the best in several years. In the Bran-don hills district wheat sown about the first of May is now thirteen inches chise to a company organized by Mr. Backus of Minneapolis, on condition that one-half of all the power developed should be available for use on the Ontario side of the river. In 1905

BRANDON CROPS FLOURISH.

WORLD'S DAILY BRAIN TEST

BY SAM LOYD. 20 Minutes to Answer This.

have any bearing on the present issue about pulp manufacture and export, but it seems to me that the point is one to be finally determined by the authorities of Ontario and not those of the Dominion. It has never been disputed that the Niagara power franchises have been granted rightfully by Ontario, and it is not likely that Ontario will fail to assert her that Ontario will be that Ontario will be that Ontario wil

The rebus represented BELGIUM (Copyright, 1919, by Sam Loyd.)

THE GIRL WHO SMILED THRU By MARION RUBINCAM

WONDERFUL JUNE.

Chapter 108. "I'm sure you are going to be out had said the evening before, when Da- shall join classes and learn all about

"I did," he answered. "That is, I'm a sort of assistant handy man. I'm a sort of assistant handy man.
I'm to run the farm accounts, and give five lectures a week, and spend the rest of the time as overseer in the fields. I had to find a place for myself. Really, their staff was filled, and I'm not making any salary to speak

"Oh," and Alice's tone was sympa-thetic. Lack of money was a thing she could easily understand. 'You don't think I need it, do you?" David laughed putting his arms around her and holding her close for a minute. "You're a funny impractical a minute. "You're a funny impression little child for all your grown-up common sense. My dad was poor fortunately for me. my enough, but fortunately for me. my mother had a lot of money and it all UNCLE SAM: That saying that every mother's son can become president seems to be working out.

"Well, of course, you always seemed to have plenty—but I have no sense about those things," Alice admitted. "I still think anything over $25 a week Belleville, Ont., June 11 .- (Special) At Coe Hill, North Hastings on and operas with you, and shows with splashy colors with pretty ladies, and we'll dine at hotels where they play gay music—that is, sometimes. Mostly we'll dine at home in a room with a large tapestry behind a Flemish oak sideboard—I saw a picture like that once," she added naively.

Thursday, a monument erected to the memory of 37 young men from that vicinity whose lives were sacrificed during the war was unveiled with appropriate ceremony. The monument was draped with flags and banked with wreaths of white flowers by the Coe Hill Branch of the LO.D.E.

David laughed.

David laughed. "My dining-room has no tapestry, out it's easily acquired," he told her. "But," Alice added, quoting Clare, "And then what?"

ously invite a young man to enter the ministry," declared Rev. A. McTaggart, of St. Andrew's. "because of the low salary and the prospects offered him. It is but a profession of pov-

MUELLER ASKED TO FORM NEW GERMAN MINISTRY

Belleville, Ont., June 11.—(Special)
—Wm. Fransky residing at Birdscreek, North Hastings, on Thursday night sustained a severe loss when his residence with all of the contents was destroyed by fire. The family were destroyed by fire. The family were chanceller will try to secure the compelled to make a hasty exit attired only in their night clothes. The house and contents were uninsured.

chanceller will try to secure the coperation of the Independent Socialists in the new government, it is stated, or otherwise will abandon the

And we'll have tapestries in the living

"And in the summer we'll come back here and live in the dear ap at the Model Farm this summer," Affice And you shall teach classes and I with blue curtains at the Model Fare vid kissed her goodnight. "The tide has turned—everything went against us before, now everything will go for us before, now everything will go for do to keep Berenice in town in the summer. The Farm is the heart bless So when that Monday evening, Da- for her."

So when that Monday evening, David came up to the house after the vide came up to the vi Oh! Oh, yes, Berenice. I'd forchild-I don't know what I w have done without her all this time And there'll be others, you know.'

She looked in his eyes, and a slow, sweet smile made her lips curl slightly and gave them all the tenderness one sees in old Italian paintings of Madonnas.

"Of course I want her-I want anything you want," David made the old, old promise that lovers from time immemorial have made, but the ring of sincerity was in his voice.

They went out on the porch together. The climbing roses threw is into shadow, and shielded them from the gaze of people passing on the street. It was dark where they stood, tho the twilight lingered over the world outside.

From the kitchen they could hear the rattle of dishes and silver, where Mrs. Fairbanks was clearing away the sup-per things. Alice knew that her about those things," Alice admitted.

"I still think anything over $25 a week is great wealth and I'm constantly amazed that they pay me $15 for running children's classes at the Settlement House."

David laughed at her, and his eyes were tender.

"You'll change that point of view soon after we're married," he said.
"Which is, I suppose a shame. Still it will be fun to see what you'll do, as a rich man's wife."

"Live in your nice apartment in the city all winter," Alice decided promptly.
"Live in your nice apartment in the city all winter," Alice decided promptly.
"I, "And go to ever so many concerts and operas with you, and shows with splashy colors with pretty ladies. And we'll dine at hotels where they play gay music—that is, sometimes. Mostly

The man nodded, his arms tightening around her.

"But," Alice added, quoting Clara,

"And then what?"

"And we'll sit at home lots of evenings in comfy big chairs by a log fire. and I will look admiringly over at you and think how strong your profile is.

"Yes." David whispered and leaning down, kissed her mouth.

The End.

TO HOLD BABY SHOW.

Niagara Falls, Ont., June 11.-(Spec-

FIRE IN WOODSTOCK.

Woodstock, Ont., June 11.—(Special) Amherst. N.S., June 11.—At the close of five days spent in Nova Scotia, the members of the National Editorial Association of the United States cross into New Brunswick tonight, en route to Prince Edward Island.

DANISH DOCK STRIKE OFF
London, June 11.—The dock strike of sailors and stokers, was called off definitely this morning, according to a despatch to the Central News from the Danish capital.

Phone Main 4202

O'Keefe's Beverages are also precurable at Restaurants, Hotels, Cafes, etc.

SATUR Store Close during s

219-21-23 Yon

Washabl In Printed designs in beautiful shades.

Ginghams shown in b wonderful a Ratine Suit Suitable for arate skirts Handsome Linen Suiti Popular for skirts. The sky, saxe, h white, etc. Organdie I

Ladies' an Gentleme of all kinds clear Work exceller NEW YOR Phone N. 5165.

WOMEN II MU: Italy is determ on a wonderful to be satisfied a not progress und ernment has jus excludes women tions of governn affirmed that the possible extension country and are as the above to mot be fair for the countries to blam as the northerner what extent the Latin countries, gard for women tering and the Ita MISSION The Long Bra has moved out hold the Sunda quee at Stop 26 mer months.

FLO FOR FUN AND EVERY O

RATES F

BOLAND—BROW Cathedral, Toro Rev. Father C Fathers Doho onica Irene, onl Mrs. J. F. Bro land of Toronto

DORRIEN-Suc 11, at his late Apartments. Dorrien, second rien, and belove Bullen.

Funeral Satur Matthews' und Spadina avenu HELN-On Fri Robert Heln, a Funeral from Ellerbeck avent John's Cemeter PETERS-At the (Robert Peters West Toronto. 10th, Phoebe P Henry Peters,

Funeral serv of G.T.R. train tion 8.20 Mond Estab

FRED W. N 665 SPA
TELEPHON
Ne connection with

TORONTO