W. J. Boyd. Flesherton, one of the best-known members of the Ontario tion in Toronto, fell out of a window of his bedroom in room 420, Iroquois Hotel, fourth floor, on to the York street pavement last night, and was picked up dead.

HAMILTON

Hamilton, Dec. 2.—Every corner of the board of control room was utilized to night when a deputation appeared before the property and license committee to hear the member's view on the proposal to do away with the market shacks at the rear of the arcade. Action was deferred until next year.

What promises to be an interesting action was started today, when Bell, Pringle and Yates, acting for Miss Minta Miller, a local nurse, issued a county tent wit against Fred Player, a former swortheart, for the return of $500 cash and a gold watch, alleged to have been obtained from Miss Millar on the promise of marriage.

UNDER THEATRE

Comment of Detective Mitchell-False Alarms.

The story published in a morning paper yesterday that several employes of the Grand Opera House, under the direction of Detective Mitchell, had dug up the cellar floor under the theatre on Wednesday in quest of the body of Ambrose Small, is emphatically denied.

"That story is absolute bunk," said James Cowan, manager of the Grand, to The World. "Mitchell was not near the theatre yesterday, and hasn't been for some time. As for the part referring to our stage hands digging all afternoon, that is a ridiculous falsehood."

Detective Mitchell corroborated Mr. Cowan's statements, "There was no digging under the Grand at all," he said. "That story is just another of the pipe dreams which have been pupblished regarding the case."

Many False Scents.

The city and proyincial police are daily receiving phone calis and letters from people who claim to know all about the mystery. Yesterday afternoon a message was received by Joseph Rogers, chief of the provincial police, to the effect that Ambrose Small had been found alive in Davisville Hospital, where he was neld under an assumed name. It was stated that he had lost his memory and was being held as a mental wreck. Of course, the story proved to be untrue.

Another story brought to the attention of The World is to the effect that on the night of Dec. 2 last a motorman on the King street line, while walking home after turning in his car after midnight, came upon a group of men standing a around the open manhole of a sewer, A high-powered car, without lights, stood against the curb, with the engine running. When this group of men saw the motorman coming they quietly closed the manhole, jumped into the car, and drove furiously away.

BRITISH COLUMBIA VOTE NO SURPRISE

'Another Pipe Dream" Is the Declared by Some Any But Riding of Atlin Still Doubtful Bowser Would Have Defeated Oliver.

Ottawa, Dec. 2.—(Special.)—To those who were in British Columbia during the provincial contest, yesterday's result was no surprise. Any leader but Hon. W. U. Bowser would have won for the Conservative party. He is the ablest man fin provincial politics in British Columbia, but was heir to the sins of the McBride-Bowser government, and, further, had to combat the general opinion that he was autocratic in his methods. Hon. John Oliver is popular in British Columbia, but, outside of Hon. Dr. King, his government is not respected. British Columbians had to vote for Oliver, and a weak, discredited cabinet, or Bowser and his past record, Oliver was in, and had the advantage of authority, and won, but with such a narrow majority over the opposing factions that he is at the mercy of a very dangerous element in, his own party. Hon. John Oliver's first attorney-general was Hon. M. A. Macdonald, who had to retire from the government after his proven participation in a scandalous plot to win a bye-election in Vançouver.

election in Vangouver.

Pluggers From Seattle.

Imported pluggers from Seattle attempted to thwart the verdict of qualified electors. The scheme was discovered and he retired. It is rather a damaging reflection on the political morality of Vancouver that he is again returned to parliament. He is ambitious and has a number of friends in the legislature, and, with the government's narrow majority, may attempt to coerce the premier into acquiescing in his plans. If he does, the Oliver government will have a brief and stormy existence.

Bowser to Retire.

Hon. W. J. Bowser will retire from the Conservative leadership. His defeat affords an opportunity for the federal government to secure a strong representative from British Columbia on the railway board, He is a very capable lawyer, a man of great vigor and decision and would strengthen the present railway board. His successor will be chosen from among such members of the legislature as Canon Hinchcliffe, Victoria, and Brig. General Money, Alberni, or it is possible that H. H. Stevens, M.P., Vancouver, might be induced to enter the provincial field. By many he is picked as the coming man in political life in British Columbia, whether in the federal or provincial field.

Two Big Problems.

The new government must solve two dangerous problems. British Columbia

The new government must solve two dangerous problems. British Columbia has voted in favor of government control of liquor and a satisfactory system must be evolved. Japanese ownership of land is another burning issue. The white man cannot, compete in fruit-growing and market gardening with the oriental, and liritish Columbia is threatened, with its rich valleys supporting an oriental population, if the white people are not afforded
