A case like this. Yesterday a lady came in with her boy (he was a young man about 18) for a suit, they both knew what they wanted and as soon as the salesman tried one of our Severeign Brand Suits on the young man, the lady said, "There, that's something like clothes, and do yeu really make these yourselves?" "Upon being assured that we did and that Sovereign Brand was our own exclusive make, and fully the equal of custom-made garments, and sold with a guarantee as good as the bank, her interest and pleasure increased and soon both herself and sen were well pleased and satisfied with one of our 18.00 Sovereign Brand Suits. Our ad man was standing near by, thinking up something to say in to-day s paper and upon hearing the lady's remarks, decided that he couldn't do better than tell you about it.

Sovereign Brand Suits are the equal of custom tailored suits, and you save just about from 5.00 to 7.00 on

KIDNAP GIRL, LEAVE NOTE BEHIND

Coudersport, Ia., Oct. 21.—Una Dyer, the twenty-year-old daughter of Eugene Dyer, living in Howard, a village north of this place, was kidnapped last night while going to a spring near her home for water. The overturned pail was found about 9 o'clock a short distance from the spring, where a struggle had evidently taken place. A note written with lead pencil on a sheet torn from a memorandum book read as follows:

Dyer: Don't blame your daughter for being gone; we kidnapped her. You had better take care of the rest, or we will be after them. D. B. P.

Some City Hall Talk. Hamilton, Oct. 21.—(Special.)—Hamilton woke up to-night. The first little flurry of excitement that has taken place here in the present campaign happened this evening. The Liberals made arrangements to hold a meeting for Ward 6 in Rogers' coal sheds at the foot of John-street. They had gone to the trouble of having electric lamps placed in the sheds, but when they arrived to-night to hold the meeting they could not find the switchboard mady of the lamps had disappeared and the connection was cut. Nobody knows who played the trick. The meeting had to be postponed until next Tuesday evening. Only about twenty-five braved the storm to attend the meeting.

The sewers committee met this evening and instructed the city engineer to lay sewers on Cannon and Davenport-streets. Only one contractor submitted tenders and his figures were much higher than Mr. Barrow thought the work could be done for.
The family of the late Michael Wynn, who was killed in the sewer cave-in at the corner of Florence and Sophiastreets, and Albert Wrenn, who was injured in the same accident, have made claims for damages. Wynn's family want $2000.

Right of Way.

Before the township councillors of Barton would give the Ontario Pipe Line Company right of way for gas mains, they made the company agree to supply people along the route with gas at the same rate as given to the citizens of Hamilton—45c a thousand cubic feet. The councillors have also passed a bylaw giving right of way to the Hamilton, Ancaster & Brantford Railway.

A Year of Overdrafts.

Nearly all the civic departments will have overdrafts at the end of the year. This is caused partly by the fact that all the appropriations were cut down at the first of the year.
