

INSIDE INFORMATION OF HOW MONCIEFIS RUN

Curley Brown Has Made Money—The Cash That is Taken In.

By Bert Collyer. JACKSONVILLE, Fla. Feb. 4.—The official announcement of the Florida Live Stock Fair and Racing Association, that there were 614 more paid admissions during the month of December, than during the corresponding period one year ago, has elicited considerable conjecture as to the probable earning capacity of the enterprise.

In view of the fact that the "Association" paid a 30 per cent. dividend on the initial meeting and which represented approximately $700,000, it is fair then to presume that the gross receipts this year will aggregate $1,000,000—a pretentious enterprise even in these days of "promised" finances.

Of course the most lucrative asset of a racing association is the bookmaker. Without the knights of the chalk and the gamblers, racing cannot be at least, never has thrived. These gentlemen pay a privilege of $120 per diem, and are required to "draw in" for three days at a time, paying in advance.

Hence, it will be seen that Brown, the promoter, must be rated with the modern Croesus, whose touch transforms everything into gold. The second and third items on the list are the "book" and the "field," the offering considerably shorter odds than the "big liners" are operated by the "book" and the "field," which one statistician estimates the "association" figures on earning $1,000 to $1,500 a piece. Added to all this is the daily attendance which will aggregate $250,000.

That one and all who patronize Moncief Park, or who occupy the "big liners" of a badge of that association, must be subservient to the wishes of the "book" management, or be stigmatized with the ban of outlawry was well attested when in attempting to protect its property Owner F. Clisco carried his case into a local court. The ruling as handed down by the minions of the course and acted upon by the management follows.

We have been served thru Sam Lewis, the owner of the horse "White Wool," who papers from the court enjoining him from starting the horse. While we have not been served directly, we take it to be the will of the court that the horse should not start, and have excused it from the third race to-day. The action has grown out of the recent claiming of the horse. We have already passed on the validity of the claim, subject to appeal to your stewards.

As you know, we assure arbitrary jurisdiction over those who only voluntarily place themselves within that jurisdiction. Mr. Clisco, the former owner of the colt, and the person bringing the present action, by subscribing to the race from which the horse was claimed, agreed to abide by the decisions of your properly constituted court, and thus voluntarily placed himself within its jurisdiction. Without availing himself of the privilege of an appeal to your stewards, Mr. Clisco has not only embarrassed your association with a legal action, but has clogged the calendar of the court with a question.

which your two courts are perfectly competent to pass on. There are a number of decisions from courts of last resort that, where they do not conflict with the common law, we are a court within ourselves of competent jurisdiction. Armed with this authority you have incorporated in the rules of the Southern Jockey Club proviso that persons resorting to legal proceedings shall be barred from all privileges of your track, in cases where the court is competent to act. While the question involves property rights, it is, in our opinion, a racing question, pure and simple, and we believe Mr. Clisco has violated the spirit and intent of the rules of the Southern Jockey Club, and you will kindly reclaim his stalls, cancel his badges and deny him the privileges accorded horsemen.

BOWLING GAMES FOR MONDAY. Gladstone-Gladstones v. Florala. Athenaeum A-Aberdeens v. Simcoes. Royal-Lark v. Owls, Hawks v. Orioles.

Nobody Will Know Them. CHICAGO, Feb. 4.—The identity of American League official scorers hereafter will be known only to league officials, club owners and the scorers themselves, if the owners take kindly to the suggestion made by President B. B. Johnson at the schedule meeting of the league here on Feb. 4. The matter will be put up to the magnates by Mr. Johnson, who said yesterday that he favored the suggestion.

No Change in American Football. NEW YORK, Feb. 4.—No changes of any moment were made in the football code at the regular winter meeting of the rules committee in this city yesterday. A stand-pat policy was adopted, on the theory that the rules so radically amended a year ago were not thoroughly and fairly tried out in one season. The committee decided after a full discussion of the many suggestions offered to be conservative and to let "well enough alone" for the present.

Bowling Chat

On the Toronto Bowling Club alters last week, the second series in two of the leagues got under way—Eaton's and the Apple, the former having booted down their sections to ten teams in No. 1, nine in No. 2, and ten in No. 3, and with this roster will run thru to the end of the season. In the Apple League the standing at the fall of the first series is given, with Rutgers returned the winners. The second series in this small but flourishing league started last Monday. In the Business Men's League the end of the second week in the second series finds all teams about as tightly bunched as anyone would wish to see, and with this prospect the even a more exciting finish than that of the first series.

In the Printers' League the surprise of the week was the dropping of three straight games by The Daily World to The Globe in the morning section. This was a considerable surprise, as the Daily World were well in the lead, and, on form, looked a 5-to-1 shot over the representative Globe Grit organ, therefore, with the above reversal of form of those teams, the morning section has been considerably lightened up, and should furnish a close race to the end of the season.

In the evening section MacLean Publishing Company and Toronto Typewriter, the promoter, have taken the bit in their teeth, and are well in the lead. With Dunlop & Rose right behind, and with any kind of enthusiasm by the three second division teams in this, Toronto's oldest, tenpin organization, a finish worthy of the old days would again be on tapis.

The second week of the St. Louis tournament has closed, and some good scores have been being up. The following are the scores in each event: High Five-man Teams—2224 Brucks, Chicago; 2285 Hartley-Seller, East Liverpool; 1246 Erickson-magnussen, Chicago; 1279 Erickson-Whitely, Chicago. Two-Man Teams—Hartley-Seller, East Liverpool; 1246 Erickson-magnussen, Chicago; 1279 Erickson-Whitely, Chicago. Individual—681 Blonin, Chicago; 674 Pauley, St. Louis City.

The fifth international bowling tournament and carnival to be held in Buffalo from Feb. 25 to March 13, inclusive, is to be the list of countries to show thru the surface. Now that the Knights of the country have learned a few facts regarding the big N.B.A. affair—where it is to be held, the amount of the prize money, etc.—the entries have started to roll in, and bid fair to swamp Starter-Manager F. H. Hall.

Manager Percy Canfield of the Parkdale always states that the World was misinformed when it stated that his allies had been torn out. Secretary Langtry of the A.B.C. has been induced to still hold his job, instead of taking over the management of the A.B.C. at St. Louis, which he intended to run after the big event is over.

More of the fair sex are turning out for every performance at St. Louis, and a number of women occupy the boxes to root for their favorites. It is notable that many of the same faces are seen at every session, an indication that the feminine interest is more than a passing one.

Good Attendance at Ottawa Ice Races

Summary of How the Races Were Won and Who Were There

OTTAWA, Feb. 4.—(Special.)—The thirteenth consecutive ice meeting of the Central Canada Racing Association, which had to be postponed on Thursday on account of weather conditions, was started on Friday, when the different events carded were all moved up one day, i.e. Thursday's program was pulled off Friday, and Friday's on Saturday, etc. The attendance was about the largest ever seen on an opening day, the weather was perfect and a good brace air with good track and extra good racing.

Among those noticed from Toronto and other points who were interested in the harness races were Frank Entricko and the owner of Elol; P. Kastner of Sibirigville, the owner of Hal B. Jr., the pride of Western Ontario; Van Woodruff of Oshawa, owner of Direct Hal; R. J. McBride, Franks Rogers, J. T. Hinton, the owner of that great trotter, Margot Leonard; Chas. Allen, Robt. Collins, Geo. Harrison, Richard Sooter, R. Smith, E. Jackson, J. Fleming, W. Robinson, J. A. Darch, Sig James Couter, the manager of the excursion; R. Robertson, W. A. McCullough, secretary of the Ontario Driving Club, Toronto; A. Collins, George Deal and J. Tip of Sunderland; D. Gillis, and others.

F. M. Upton of Rochester was the starter and had splendid control of his fields, which made the races move along with a minimum of unnecessary delay. Of the three races carded for the day two were finished and two heats of the third race had to be postponed until the following day on account of several minor accidents, which caused some delay in the first race carded was the 2:40 trot or pace for a purse of $400. There were six entered and five starters. Nellie Wilks, a nice brown mare, owned by P. Kastner, was the favorite, and she was never at any time in trouble. Capt. Larabee drew the pole, with the winner in the second heat. With very little scoring they were given the word. Fern Hal shot to the front and maintained his position to the three-quarter pole, when Capt. Larabee pulled out and passed her and it was a race to the stretch for first position between the two.

The second race was the 2:08 trot and pace, for a purse of $400. In this event there were thirteen entries, but only five starters. The Plummer drew the pole, with St. Anthony second, Hal B. Jr. third position and Queen's Ideal on the outside. The third race was given the word and the race was never in doubt. Hal B. had the pole before the first turn was reached and was the winner. The Plummer was called on; St. Anthony went a good heat and was right there when they crossed under the wire. The Plummer drew the pole, with St. Anthony second, Queen's Ideal third, and Hal B. fourth. Time of mile 2:17. Pretty fair time over a flat ice track.

The third race on the program was the classified trot, purse $50. There were nine entries, but only five starters. Lites, formerly owned by A. Proctor of Port Perry, but now owned by F. Tracy of Ottawa, was the favorite, as he came from a behind and beat Mary Isabel and the Baroness in a stretch drive, Mary Isabel getting the time 2:21. The second and concluding heat for the day was won by Little Ted in 2:30. This concluded the first day's racing, and the next event is called for 1 o'clock to-morrow.

No wonder Hal B. Jr. is the pride of Western Ontario, and his Ontario friends cleaned up on him. He is of course the favorite, but the owners of the Plummer were equally confident. He is a great betting race. Hal B. sold for $30 and the field $15, part of the time before the first heat. The Plummer had a $10 field $12, and in the books Hal B. before the first heat 1 to 2 and the Plummer 2 to 1. The Plummer was the favorite, but after the first heat Hal B. was from 2 to 1 to 8, but he was a 1 to 15 shot, as he was never extended in any heat.

General Offices, Engineers 1. At Little Victoria Park on Friday night, the Engineers' Dept. in the Big Store League, were defeated by the General Office by a score of 4 to 2. The office had the game well in hand from start to finish and deserve great credit for their method of play. This is the first game of the season in which the Engineers have suffered defeat, and puts these two teams on an equal footing for league honors.
