TOMORROW'S BIG BALL GAME

Marathon-St. Joseph Clash to be the Event of the Season.

Tomorrow when the St. Joseph's and Marathons meet at the Victoria grounds for the first of the series of games for the city ball championship there promises to be a big crowd, in fact indications point to the biggest crowd of the season, so keen is the interest being shown by the fans in the coming struggle.

BALL GOSSIP.

Pitsher Hofer, once with Baltimore, is with Oklahoma City, in the Western Association and pitched a no hit game the other day.

"Chic" Eraser leads the National league in percentage of games won. Good for Chic.

Under a heading, "Collins Causes the Braces," the Philadelphia Record says: Since Collins joined the Athletics the team has been playing better ball than ever. Manager Meek, himself, said that he has never seen such great work in any team.

Toronto beat Baltimore, 9 to 7, last Saturday, making all of its runs in the fifth inning.

Jack Foster of New York says that Rigler needs a vacation and is umpire stale. Foster adds:

"Frankly, Mr. Pulliam's staff of umpires is not up to par this year. They are wobbly on the close points in a game. It's a guess how they will give them. Sometimes the bad ones are called strikes in a pinch, and sometimes the good ones are called balls. The microbes of uncertainty seem to have worked its way in to the entire staff. Perhaps a microbe doesn't worm, but it affects the constitution in some sort of a manner that isn't wholesome."

DAN McLEOD BESTS BARNES In Good Wrestling Contest at Boston, Tuesday

Jim Barnes met his Waterloo Tuesday night at the Columbia Theatre, Boston, at the hands of Dan McLeod, the former champion of the world at catch-as-catch-can wrestling. McLeod was somewhat out of condition consequent upon a long rail-road journey previous to going on the mat. Although defeated, Barnes gave a splendid exhibition and time again broke loose when nothing but a down seemed to be the result of his opponent's hold.

We always keep it! If we say we're going to have Steak Pies, we'll have them! And we're going to have them tomorrow. There were, after all, a few disappointed ones last Saturday, but that happened on account of not making enough. It'll not happen this Saturday, if possible! But make sure of yours, drop in early. Ready at noon, and the same price 5 cents.
