DAINTY VIVIAN MARTIN AT IMPERIAL THEATRE TODAY!

In Bewitching Morosco-Paramount

"THE STRONGER LOVE"

VIVIAN MARTIN is one of Mary Pickford and Marguerite Clark's keenest rivals in popularity. In today's charming story of the Kentucky Mountains she plays the role of the bare-footed country lass who becomes entangled in a love affair between warring factors who have been conducting a feud for many years. It is a pretty fiction from beginning to end, and most artistically presented.

Race Horses are Burned Baltimore, Md., Nov. 22—Eight valuable racing horses were burned in a fire which destroyed two stables yesterday at the Bowie track. Preparations were being made for the afternoon's sport when the fire broke out. Several of the hostlers and jockeys risked their lives to save the eighty-eight horses, some of which had their tails and manes singed. The horses lost were: Chelsea and Battles Baby, owned by Mrs. E. Arlington; Running Ship, owned by Ralph Earle; Father Riley, owned by R. E. Watkins; Joyland, owned by Edward Moore; Yellowstone and Corsican, owned by J. G. Wagner, and Ballygunn, owned by F. A. Herald. Two other horses, Bonanza and Rose Juliette, were badly injured and King Box was slightly burned. The total loss was about $25,000. Yellowstone, valued at $10,000, was one of the season's best two-year-olds and had won four or five straight races during the early part of the Maryland fall racing season. Father Riley, a popular racer, had been rescued from the blazing stable, but broke away and dashed
