Lloyd George Speaks on

London, Jan. 25, via Retuer's Ottawa Agency-Right Honorable David Lloyd George gave an important interview today on the subject of the forthcoming imperial war council to the London correspondent of the Australian United Cable Service. The prime minis-

"I do not wish to interfere in any way with the affairs of a great self-governing dominion, but we took the step of urgently inviting the dominions premiers to London, despite the fact that it might cause much inconvenience locally, because we desired their advice and assistance in coming to decisions about the conduct of the war and the negotiating of peace.

"Australia knows that I am no jingo. My record contains no journeyings into flamboyant imperialism, yet I regard this council as marking the beginning of a new epoch in the history of the empire. The war has changed us. Heaven knows, it has taught us more than we yet understand; it has opened a new age for us, and we want to go into that age together with our fellows overseas, just as we have come through the darkness together and shed our blood and treasure together.'

Muscular and Inflammatory Rheumatism. I suffered as only those who have it know, for over three years. I tried remedy after remedy, and doctor after doctor, but such relief as I received was only temporary. Finally, I found a remedy that cured me completely, and it has never returned. I have given it to a number who were terribly afflicted and even bedridden with Rheumatism, and it effected a cure in every case.

I want every sufferer from any form of rheumatic trouble to try this marvelous healing power. Don't send a cent; simply mall your name and address and I will send it free to try. After you have used it and it has proven itself to be that long-looked-for means of curing your Rheumatism, you may send the price of it, one dollar, but, understand, I do not want your money unless you are perfectly satisfied to send it. "Certainly," replied Mr. Lloyd George. "The war is not won yet, and we want to concert our efforts so that we may exert our maximum strength at the critical moment. Further, we are most anxious that during the last and most trying phase of the war the British empire may present to the world an absoluted front. Up to the present the British government has shouldcred responsibility for the policy of the war alone. It now wishes to know that in its measures for prosecuting the war to a finish, and in its negotiations for needs.

He also pointed out that, either negligently or deliberately, every action possible to dampen recruiting enthusiasm and chill inspiration in enlistment had seemingly been determined upon by the government in its direction of military and national service. Mr. Marcil made the charge that, under the insistence of Henri Bourassa and Armand Lavergne for three full-fielded Nationalists in the Borden cabinet, the present premier had been called upon, for the first time since confederation, to deny the Protestant minority in Quebec a portfolio position in the Canadian cabinet.
