30-Day Lay Off, $100 Fine

Chicago, Sept. 23.—Use of the "emery ball" or the "sandpaper ball" in the American League is prohibited in a ruling by Pres. B. B. Johnson.

Managers of clubs were notified that the first offenders will be suspended for 30 days and fined $100. In addition, the time in which the ball is used will be set out of the records, provided it is on by the team violating the rule.

Certain pitchers in the league, it was said, rubbed a small piece of emery paper on the ball, thus disfiguring the cover. The trick made the pitching over effective, it was said, as it gave the user a firmer grip.

NEW YORK BOUTS.

New York, Sept. 24.—Two matches between heavyweights have been arranged for a local risk. The first one will be between Sam Langford of Boston and Joe Jeannette, a clever Hoboken boxer, who will have it in a 10-round battle the night of Oct. 1. Billy Carson has been trying for several weeks to bring these colored "heavies" together.

In the other scrap Al Reich, a promising young local heavyweight, will go against Jim Flynn in Pueblo, Colo., for

THE TURF

Races Postponed.

The Grand Circuit racing at Columbus, O., yesterday was postponed on account of rain.

At Charlottetown.

The track racing record of the Charlottetown track—217.1—was broken yesterday by Hilda S., which paced the mile in 2:16.1-2 in the first heat of the 210 class. The race, however, went to Miss Algonquin. The 224 class was won by Mayor Todd, best time 2:18.1-2. In the 240 class the fast time of 2:20.8-4 was made by Rex Light which beat Mother Miller in close finishes.

AQUATIC

Was Not Easy.

Advises by mail from England are to the effect that the champion professional sculler, Ernest Barry, did not have nearly so easy a task beating James Paddon, the Australian champion, in their recent match as was supposed on this side of the ocean. The English reports go to show that Barry, contrary to all expectations, went slightly ahead at the start and held the lead at the half-mile mark by half a length, but that Paddon went up after this and was three feet to the good at the one-mile mark.

Barry was the first to force the prow of his shell past Hammersmith Bridge in 3m. 34s. which was very fast time, and being pressed hard he tried to take advantage of the tide and in doing so crossed over into Paddon's water and narrowly squeezed out of a foul which Paddon tried to force on him.

Paddon saw that his rival had gone over too far and pulled harder on his right scull, in hopes of striking, but Barry was informed of his mistake by his pilot, the veteran Tom Green, and also pulled for dear life on his right scull and kept away from the big Australian until he had secured a sufficient lead to enable him to work gradually back to his own station, being favored somewhat by the bend in the river.

Once back from the Surrey side, Barry showed pace enough at all times to hold his rival at arm's length and at no time did he get closer than two lengths, except when the mixup was averted, it was due to his great watermanship and management of the boat that he was enabled to bring his craft and keep afloat, but the eyewitnesses say that the Incident took very little out of him, as he was not behind for an instant after the first mile in the race.

Barry was four lengths to the good a mile from the finish, but was content to finish 2½ lengths ahead. The time for the race, 21m. 28s., is the fastest with one exception ever made in a sculling race on the Thames course. The record was made in 1908 by Barry when he beat George Towns in 21m. 12-3-5. Barry rowed a boat two years old because his new one failed to suit and Paddon rowed an English built shell. Paddon expressed the hope that Barry would now win a return race in Australia, to which Barry replied that he would never row for the championship on other than the Thames course, although he might be tempted to race in Australia for other than the title.

Paddon's manager was displeased because he did not get any expense money and contrasted the treatment accorded to other Australians. To this Barry replied that the war cut into his funds badly, and for that reason he was unable to pay expenses.

GOLF

Defeated Outmet

Greenwich, Conn., Sept. 24.—Francis Outmet, National amateur golf champion, was beaten by 2 and 1 this afternoon by Grant Peacock, a Princeton University student, in the first round of the Greenwich County Club's invitation golf tournament. Peacock's feat caused a sensation.

It was the champion's third trip over these links and his tendency to pull his tee shots as well as weak putting caused his defeat. Over the first nine holes Outmet was 2 up. He made a wonderful 8 for the fifth, a par five hole, but spoiled his card with a 6 on the next, a par four hole, having overrun the green into a sand pit, with his second, while Peacock was down in 5.

Coming in Outmet lost the 10th, being tripped from the tee. The next two were halved, and again a badly hooked drive cost him the loss of the 13th. This squared the match. Peacock won the 14th by beautiful golf in two strokes under par and the 15th in 3 to 4. This halved the next two holes, Peacock was winner, 2 up and 1 to go.

Deafness Cannot be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a running ear or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be forever lost. Nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflammation of the mucous membrane of the Eustachian tube. Catarrh cannot be cured by local applications. Talmud substantiate, likewise Isaiah's treatment of none else but William of Germany.

Thus says Isaiah: "Who is it that cometh from Edom, dyed red in his garments from Bozrah? this, glorious in his apparel, moving along in the greatness of his strength?" "I who speak in righteousness, mighty to save." "Why is redness on thy apparel and why are thy garments as of one that treads the winepress?" "I have trodden the vat alone and of the nations there was no man with me, and I trod them down in my anger, and I trampled on them in my fury, and their blood was sprinkled on my garments, and all my raiments have I stained. For the day of vengeance was in my heart and the year of my redemption has come. And I looked and there was none to help, and I was astonished as there was no one to support; and then my own arm aided me and my fury it was that upheld me. And I stamped down nations in my anger and I made them drunken with my fury, and brought down to the earth their victorious strength." (Isaiah lxiii, 1-6.)

This comes from Edom and Bozrah with blood-stained garments, boasting of his glorious victories and bragging of his triumphant conquests, when some came to his help nor has any one rendered him assistance, fighting fiercely many a nation, for vengeance of mankind and the redemption of humanity, is, indeed, our friend, the enemy, Emperor William of Germany, and the Rabbin have the following
