To Subscribers.—Those indebted for subscriptions to the Standard for one year and upwards, whose bills have been presented, are notified that unless the amounts due are paid by the 1st October, the bills will be placed in legal hands for collection.

New Rotary Power Job Press. We have added to the Standard Office an Alden New rotary power job press, and having tested its merits, pronounce it a No. 1 machine, capable of throwing off upwards of a thousand sheets an hour.

Visitors to St. Andrews and travellers generally, will be pleased to know that Mr. Angus Kennedy has opened the building formerly called the "International," on Water Street, opposite the Manchester House.

The Dent-Lock. Whatever the Hon. Mr. Joly may do is a mystery, but his duty is plain. He must remain as firm to the people as the people are firm to him.

The First Slide through a Canyon. Two adventurous miners recently took a ride through the Big Horn Canyon, in the Yellowstone region, never before traversed by man.

Press Amenities.—It affords us much satisfaction to read the kindly notices of such of our brethren of the Press, as have alluded to the Standard having reached its 40th anniversary on the 10th September.

Changes in the Postage Regulations.—The Canada Gazette states that the rates to be prepaid by postage stamps on parcels posted in Canada for destinations within the Dominion to which parcels can be sent are as follows: For each parcel not more than four ounces, 12 cents; for each additional four ounces, or fraction of four ounces, 6 cents.

Notice.—As we have bills to meet, which must be paid this month, we request those indebted for the Standard to be prepared to pay the collector when called upon. After the 1st October the accounts will be placed in legal hands for collection.

op, were doubtful, when they luckily found two logs, which they lashed together with their belts, and again trusting to the river and still more dangerous rocks, they set out to search for their boat, which they found two miles below, where it had stopped in the eddy.

SAINT ANDREWS, SEPT. 24, 1879.

The Common Schools.—A visit to the town Schools, during the past week, afforded us opportunity of ascertaining the amount of work performed by teachers and pupils, which could only be done by patient examination of the classes, and comparing the advancement made in studies since the last quarter.

The easy, fluent, and correct answering of questions on various subjects, is an evidence of a thorough understanding of the branches they have been studying, and the labors of the teachers in imparting instruction. Some of the junior classes parsed sentences without an error, and their reading was excellent; the clear and distinct manner in which they read, observing the pauses, the accent, the emphasis, evinced correct training.

Whatever the Hon. Mr. Joly may do is a mystery, but his duty is plain. He must remain as firm to the people as the people are firm to him. To yield to the Legislative Council is to destroy all confidence in the power of the franchise.

Newsprinters in Public Schools. Sir—We are introducing the reading of newspapers as part of the school work, and as a recreation. This is a novel feature for a public school.

possible partyism. Again, personalities should be eliminated, as they tend to damage a cause however just; there should be a blending of the "suaviter in modo" with the "fortiter in re," in such discussions—or in other words, outward complacency should be joined with inward firmness. To do good, rather than to be too conspicuous, is a safe course for journalists.
