J. E. Grice Has Applied to Council for Permission to Land Fuel at Turkey Head

The only handicap under which the residents of Oak Bay have been suffering is the extra cost imposed upon them by the fuel dealers of the city on account of their being outside the city.

The application of Mr. Grice will be dealt with by the roads committee of the Oak Bay council.

RICKARD SAYS HE WILL QUIT THE FIGHT GAME

Is Disgusted With Set-Backs and Will Go Back to Mines—Sailor Burke Beaten

Reno, Nev., June 22.—Tex Rickard is determined to-day to have no more to do with pugilism after the Jeffries-Johnson fight.

"I am a miner and I will give my attention to my mines after July 4th," said Rickard. "I will never mix up the fight game again."

Rickard is disgusted because of the number of setbacks he has had in an attempt to stage the big fight. He has been put to unexpected expense and a great deal of trouble.

New York, June 22.—Eastern fight fans to-day are predicting that Jim Smith will make a record in the mid-weight class and may some day capture the belt, following his splendid showing last night when he won from Sailor Burke in a ten round bout.

Smith floored the sailor with a right swing in the fifth round and Burke took the count of nine. He stalled through the remaining five rounds.

Thinks Johnson Will Win. Prescott, Ariz., June 22.—Joe Gans, the old master, veteran of scores of lightweight battles, thinks Jack Johnson has a royal, well-earned, defeat Jeffries at Reno on July 4th.

"The whole matter," said Gans, "hinges on whether or not Jeffries can come back. That's not an original opinion, but nevertheless it's a true statement. I don't think he can be the same fighter he was when he retired, no matter what wonders he has accomplished in his training."

"If Jeffries were in his prime he would be a ten to one favorite over Johnson. But six or seven years with our battle makes more difference than the average man can conceive."

"Jeffries may look good on the outside, but years of inactivity are bound to put the inner workings to the test. He may be in his old time form, but I doubt it. Berger, Burns, Cornell and the others notwithstanding."

With Jeffries not in prime condition, Johnson has a royal chance to knock his title above the reach of any living fighter."

MAN AND WOMAN FACE MURDER CHARGE

J. Webb and Mrs. Kersh Bound Over to Grand Jury at Portland

Portland, Ore., June 22.—Charged with the murder of William A. Johnson, a Repton farmer, whose body was found in a ditch, Mrs. Kersh and J. Webb were arraigned in the municipal court to-day before Judge Bennett.

They waived preliminary examination and were bound over to the grand jury. District Attorney Cameron stated that their trial would be held as soon as possible.

According to Webb's confession, Mrs. Kersh assisted him in the plan for the disposal of Johnson's body, although he jammed the body in the trunk, and checked it to North Puget, Wash. He took other measures to conceal the crime.

Immediately after Webb and Mrs. Kersh had been arraigned before the court, Bert Kersh, husband of the woman, appeared and asked for the custody of his son.

"Mrs. Kersh stole Willie from me November 16, 1909, after she had deserted me," said Kersh to Judge Bennett. "She had previously deserted me."

A. H. Davis, proprietor of the Williamette rooming house, where the body was found since the tragedy, interposed an objection. He told the court that he and his wife, who are childless, had learned to love the boy and that they wanted to adopt him.

Judge Bennett took the matter under advisement and the trial will be in the care of the juvenile court until he reaches a decision.

WILLIAM GRANT HAD TRIAL TRIP TUESDAY

Developed Speed of Twelve Knots and Captain Thinks She Can Do Thirteen

The steam whaler, William Grant, the finest whaler on the coast, underwent her trials Tuesday, developing a speed of twelve knots in running to Race Rocks and back.

Race Rocks was on the bridge, and everything went very smoothly. It is the captain's opinion that she will easily make thirteen knots under favorable conditions.

She will leave tomorrow for Rose Harbor, whaling station at the south end of Queen Charlotte Island, from which place she will operate.

The station at Rose Harbor has been rapidly assuming shape under the able management of Captain Hall, and by the time the Grant arrives everything will be in readiness for operations to commence.

The work will continue throughout the summer and autumn. In a few weeks the William Grant will be joined by the fourth whaler, the Germania, which is expected to arrive here soon.

What Other People Think

SCOTTY SENDS THE NEWS

Dear Master Editor:—I hope you have been worried about my news. Scotty thinks you are a queer lot. The only thing we seem to do is to get into a bad mood and see many things in a bad light. I am glad to tell you that most of the adult friends, adult men and boys, take me for a canna bear these bad facts, and mind you, I canna bear them myself. I am 50 and 60 years. I couldna bear it any more. I went to get my hair cut, and the chief asked me if I wouldna like a massage. I didna want that, but he said, "I'll tell you, he had his towel on my face till I thought it was cooked."

Then he wheeled up a machine behind me and a buzzer all over my face till I began to fancy myself a smothered-faced old again and became real anxious to get up and get a look in the glass. But, eh, man, it was the same old Scotty still, with a sheepish look in the e's besides. I tell you, Master Editor, we've gone mad, but I say the lassies for frain' their faces.

The buzzer was 60 cents. The whole session when I was done, I perched myself up over Master McBride that I could get a better look at the four lassies opposite. Dae've no ken hoo the Premier's hair is fixed up like Master Laurier's. He seems proud of the fact. He has haund comes up noo and again the fact is no oot o' place. I canna blame him for wantin' to look like Master Laurier. He is a great man, is Master Laurier. He is my mind. What a peety he has a Scot. The four lassies opposite had a they could daw. That Scotch chiel wh' the lang name is a keen blade, and oor member frain' half a nae, fule. I can see, but I was sair disappointed for I couldna hear what he said. I canna see gold as the auld hoose.

A railway bill for this end of the Island went through when I was there. I see the wee McGregor's name on the bill. I hope the wee man really means to build a real railway, if it's only a wee one. I heard something about superannuating these auld laddies that has been drawing a large salary for years. What do you say, Master Editor? Scotty has saved up for a while. See if you canna get Scotty superannuated, Master Editor. Have ye ever kent the man who goes out among his neighbors to hear what is said on, and when he comes back he says, "I've heard a tairred a wee bit wh' this brack. It is noo much mair we ken than the other fellow. Nae doot it was this brack in Scotty's haund, that he didna learn mair frae the Victoria journey."

There isna much news about this end of the Island. We are a' busy the while carrying the government road money here and at Quatsino. Last year at Quatsino, in blowing stump, a man was killed by a broken axle and a bog and a big man on a back that had him on. The government paid up quick for the "killed" and boat, but haena yet paid for the pulman's back. Canoes seem to be o' mair value.

We are tryin' to get a doghouse for this end of the Island. The Quatsinos want him to set schule as well. The my mind nae man can dae twa jobs richt. We are tryin' to get a doghouse for this end of the Island. The Quatsinos want him to set schule as well. The my mind nae man can dae twa jobs richt. We are tryin' to get a doghouse for this end of the Island. The Quatsinos want him to set schule as well. The my mind nae man can dae twa jobs richt.

I see ye do the Colonel ar still at it. The Colonel thinks ye frichten aw' the new comers to Victoria by telling us much about grart and in the cartoons. Dinna ye mind. Nothing like bringing out the dell tale the daylight as often as ye can. I wad' much sooner live now. Ye ken better whar wee are at.

I see the new fire notices are posted up. Ye ken the fire notices are posted up. Ye ken the fire notices are posted up. Ye ken the fire notices are posted up. Ye ken the fire notices are posted up.

Why did ye not introduce me that canny lass, Ruth Cameron that writes in the "Chit Chat" column? She is a brainy lass. Maen, hoo these weemen are coming on these days. I just read what she says on the servant question. The wee servant in the trouble. Why no have it taken richt oot o' the language, unless it was the word public preferred? I see a lot o' dolly misses working aw' the streets and turn up their bonny noses if ye should call them servants. Mind ye, they hae ta serve hard ta, at the same or get fired. Ye hae got ta work if ye want ta eat, and it takes a mo' brain ta keep the hoose in order.

VERY SMART WORK IN LAYING CABLE

Thirty-Two Miles Paid Out in Less Than Seven Hours From Restorer

The steamer Restorer has completed the work of laying the cable for the C. P. R. between Departure Bay and Point Grey. The work did not stop long once they were on the ground with everything in readiness. Early Sunday morning the actual time being 6.50 a. m., the work of laying the cable commenced, and at 1.30 the vessel reached Point Grey. Considerable wind and thick weather interfered somewhat with the work. Captain Combe, who is an able navigator, ran her right through, and in spite of the wind and tides, brought her right to the point required. For a long time they were out of sight of land and the feat is considered a remarkable one.

It took a little time to fix up the shore end of the cable and to discharge the spare cable on to a scow at Vancouver, hence the delay in getting back to Esquimalt. The length of cable laid was 32 miles, connection with the shore on the other side being made by way of Point Grey instead of English Bay.

The work was done by the C. P. R. telegraph service, was aboard the steamer and was well pleased with the work.

BRIDGEMAN KILLED. Revelstoke, June 21.—J. Gregor, a Galician employed on a C. P. R. section, died on Thursday in the hospital from injuries received at Cambie, where the gang was engaged in lifting a water tank. One of the jacks slipped and the tank, falling sideways, pinned Gregor down, crushing him badly. The injured man was brought to the hospital and succumbed to his injuries on Thursday.

BLAKEWAY-STEPHENS. A pretty home wedding was solemnized this afternoon at the residence of the bride's parents, 728 Riverside street, Victoria West, when Mrs. C. E. Stephens, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. Young, and Mr. R. E. Blakeway, formerly of Chelsea, Ont., and recently of Winnipeg, Man., were united in wedlock by Rev. A. T. Roberts.

The bride was attired in a beautiful princess gown of old rose silk, and was given away by her father, Mr. Lewis Young. After the ceremony had been performed the invited guests assembled in the drawing room, which was effectively decorated with orange blossoms, white and red roses and carnations, where a wedding luncheon was served.

The bridal couple, being well known in this city, were the recipients of many useful presents. Mr. Blakeway is very popular among the contractors in this city, having been engaged in that line of business ever since his arrival here.

Mr. and Mrs. Blakeway left on the Princess Charlotte this afternoon for Seattle on a honeymoon trip to Portland, Ore. The bride is going away in a tailor-made dress of grey suit and a hat to match. On their return to this city they will take up their residence at 129 Medina street, in the handsome dwelling just completed for Mr. Blakeway.

DEAN-REGAN. Mr. W. Dean, Ottawa, and Miss Mary Katharine, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Regan, Pandora avenue, were married this morning, at the family residence, 1011 Pandora avenue, by Rev. Father Leterne. The marriage was a quiet one. Miss A. K. Gray was bridesmaid and W. P. Ryan best man. Mr. and Mrs. Dean left on the Princess Charlotte this afternoon for Vancouver on route to Renfrew, Ont., where they will reside.

ST. JOHN'S SALE OF WORK. In spite of the threatening weather of Tuesday the sale of work held by the Women's Guild of St. John's church was very successful. Instead of holding it on the beautiful grounds of the rectory, however, as had been intended, the sale was held in the schoolroom. There was a large attendance of friends throughout the day and the ladies are greatly pleased with the results. The display of fancy work was unusually good.

The fancy work of the senior guild was in charge of Mrs. Tates and Miss Sutton, and that of the junior societies of Miss Hill, Miss Townley and Miss Greenbaird. Mrs. Sutton, Mrs. Norris and Mrs. Pearson had the plain work, and Miss Wood and Mrs. Penketh supplied the children with a variety of useful articles. Mrs. Walker drove a brisk trade in homemade sweets and tea was served by Mrs. Townley, assisted by Mrs. Hawkins, Mrs. Causley, Miss Wilson and Miss Smith.

PERSONAL. His Royal Highness the Gekwar of Baroda, one of the most famous of the Indian native Princes, passed through the city on Wednesday, arriving on the steamer Princess Victoria at 1.30 and leaving again at 2.15. He took a short drive around the city in company with his wife, the Maharani. They attracted a good deal of attention, especially the lady, who had the small red caste mark on her forehead.
