

that you will address yourselves to them with earnestness and energy.

On returning to the House of Commons new members were introduced, Hon. Mr. McLaughlin being the first, and after some other formalities the House adjourned.

In the House of Commons on Friday, the address in reply to the speech from the throne was moved by Mr. Montague, who made a long speech laudatory of the government.

Mr. Jones conducted the address in French; expressing satisfaction with the fishery treaty.

MR. LAURIER, on rising to criticize the government's programme, was loudly cheered by the opposition. He expressed the deep regret of the opposition, which he was sure would be shared to some extent by the ministerial party, at the absence of Mr. Blake through illness.

The measures proposed were, in fact, and even if adopted, might not be put in force. Last year parliament was called in to meet, in the interests of the country, that a special department of trade and commerce should be at once created. The act had been passed but was not acted upon.

Were the interests of commerce forgotten, or were the interests of trade and commerce of the country being sacrificed to party convenience? Two members of the government had been wiped out of existence last session, but they were still here.

The cause of the depression was owing to the vicious fiscal system. (Cheers.) By their fruits you shall know them, and the fruits of the present government's policy were found in ruin, monopolies and combinations which were robbing the people of their substance and earnings. (Applause.)

He quoted estimates given by the government in former years in regard to the settlement of the Northwest and the cost of the Pacific Railway, showing how all their calculations and predictions had been refuted by time and experience.

The receipts from the Northwest were not sufficient to meet the expenditure in the territories. Manitoba has been blessed with a bountiful harvest, but the blessing of Providence had been annulled by the hand of man.

The people were suffering under a grievous monopoly; their wheat was rotting for want of transportation facilities and it was not realizing the prices it should. He would not move an amendment to the address, but would take occasion to present to the house in a formal manner the views of the opposition on public questions. (Applause.)

MR. JOHN MACDONALD, congratulated Mr. Laurier on his eloquent speech and concurred in the expression of regret at the absence of Mr. Blake, who was an able man and would do credit to any country. Although he did not agree with him in politics, he could not but admire the industry, zeal, eloquence and earnestness which he showed in the discussion of public affairs. (Cheers.)

The new department of trade and commerce would be created when the government considered it necessary. The act itself provided that it should not be brought into force until provided for by the government. It was proper that discussion on the fisheries treaty should not take place until the treaty was formally before the House, and for reasons which would appear to members of the opposition. And perhaps even then it would be necessary to proceed with caution. On this question he would have a somewhat different view from the opposition. He admitted that his predictions in regard to the Northwest had not been fulfilled, but the people supported him still, and the people had a right to have themselves misgoverned and humbugged if they wished.

MR. ROBERT CRAWFORD, thanked the premier for admitting that the people of Canada had a right to run themselves, as it was about the only right they had left. (Cheers.) He showed that the exiles from Canada were not greater under Mr. Mackenzie than the government might ask that the merits of the fishery treaty should not be discussed, they had no right to claim that there was consistency between the treaty and claims put forward by them in their minutes of council of a year or two last year, or Canada's rights had been sacrificed. Had the negotiations been entrusted to Canadian hands better results would have been reached.

MR. M. MITCHELL said he would reserve his comments on the treaty until a later stage, but did not wish to be understood to agree with the statement in the speech from the throne that the treaty would be satisfactory to both nations. He had supported the national policy in 1878, but the policy then proposed was not the government's policy today. In some cases new duties of 140 per cent. were levied on goods of general consumption. The expectation with respect to the settlement of the Northwest had not been realized because that country had been misgoverned. The address was then passed and the house adjourned.

OTAWA SOCIETY. Government House has a striking risk, a tobacco slide and a curbing risk of its own. The Governor General is a good skater and a capital carter. At present His Excellency's brother and Her Excellency's sister are stopping at Bishop Hall, or persons and things.

The day after Parliament met, Hon. R. W. Scott completed his 63rd year. He was born in Prescott, is leader of the opposition in the senate, has been in two cabinets, was Speaker of the Ontario Assembly and Mayor of Ottawa, is the author of the Ontario Separate School Act and the Scott Act and has been 31 years in parliament.

The Ontario section arbitration commission has been sitting here. They take evidence and then go to British Columbia. Hon. Mr. Meagher is in Rome where he can call on Hon. Mr. Blake.

As it is predicted next week Mr. Hardisty of the Northwest has been called to the Senate. It is said that Mr. Dewdney will enter the Cabinet as Superintendent General of Indian Affairs.

Hon. Frank Smith has withdrawn his resignation from the Cabinet.

MR. MACKENZIE. A rumor has been heard that Hon. A. Mackenzie will retire from public life and resign his seat in Parliament. This has caused a meeting of the Conservative association of East York to be held. Mr. Mackenzie is thought by many, however, to be too loyal a party man to open a fighting constituency voluntarily.

MILITIA MATTER. The various Deputy Adjutant Generals are in a state of suspense as to where they will be allotted to this spring. The only certainty being that a general exchange of districts is the policy of the Department. It is not known when the commission appointed to consider the defence of the Dominion is to meet, but probably some time in the summer. It will study the surveys prepared by the Ordnance branch of the regular army when stationed in Canada which have never been acted on.

MIRAMICHI AND THE NORTH SHORE, etc. OPEN WATER.—There is no sign of ice in Miramichi Bay.

BORROWED BOOKS.—See Mr. Hatchison's Advt.

WILD GESE.—A flock of more than a dozen wild geese was seen at Taboussant last week. So says Mr. Frank Braun.

CAPT. T. G. LOGGIE has purchased Mr. C. F. Heber's residence, corner of George and Church streets, and will occupy it in the May.—Capital.

MR. NORTH.—Geo. B. Fraser, Esq., publishes his card as agent of the North British and Mercantile Fire Insurance Co., which he has represented in Chatham for over thirteen years.

R. E. CURRIE.—Immanuel Reformed Episcopal Church, Chatham, has been reposed under the pastoral charge of Rev. Mr. Cutbush, a young English clergyman, whose ministrations are highly spoken of.

LIFE INSURANCE.—Agent Marshall of the New Brunswick Insurance Aid Association of Fredericton is visiting Chatham. He represents an organization that commends itself to public confidence.

FOOT INJURY.—Mr. John Best of Dorley had his foot badly crushed under the runner of a sled last week. Some small bones of the foot, it was thought, were broken.

A "SCOTCH NYMPH" is the coming attraction at the Chatham Skating Rink. They will be highland costumes by the maquerellers, and a highland piper is to play the bag-pipe constantly between the skaters. The occasion will be a very interesting one and the Scotch as well as "other folk" will be to the fore.

HEBREW.—The Advocate says: "It is reported that the Prince of Wales, on the occasion of his silver wedding banquet, will announce the betrothal of Prince Albert Victor to his cousin Princess Alexandra of Greece, and the betrothal of Prince Victoria to the Duke of Sparta, the Crown Prince of Greece."

Perhaps the Advocate knows all about it, but it appears to have the wrong mixture again.

A Bro. Loo.—The following appears among the Woodstock Sentinel's Gleanings: "Mr. J. W. McKinty, of Kingscliff, and Mr. Lynch, of the North Branch Miramichi, surveyed a spring the other day for Mr. John Irvine, containing within a space of 2000 feet. The water was by Mr. Danan Macdonald of Fredericton, and healed to the astonishment of Mr. Irvine's celebrated grey span Pass and Kit."

reigning from the Cabinet.

MR. MACKENZIE. A rumor has been heard that Hon. A. Mackenzie will retire from public life and resign his seat in Parliament. This has caused a meeting of the Conservative association of East York to be held. Mr. Mackenzie is thought by many, however, to be too loyal a party man to open a fighting constituency voluntarily.

MILITIA MATTER. The various Deputy Adjutant Generals are in a state of suspense as to where they will be allotted to this spring. The only certainty being that a general exchange of districts is the policy of the Department. It is not known when the commission appointed to consider the defence of the Dominion is to meet, but probably some time in the summer. It will study the surveys prepared by the Ordnance branch of the regular army when stationed in Canada which have never been acted on.

MIRAMICHI AND THE NORTH SHORE, etc. OPEN WATER.—There is no sign of ice in Miramichi Bay.

BORROWED BOOKS.—See Mr. Hatchison's Advt.

WILD GESE.—A flock of more than a dozen wild geese was seen at Taboussant last week. So says Mr. Frank Braun.

CAPT. T. G. LOGGIE has purchased Mr. C. F. Heber's residence, corner of George and Church streets, and will occupy it in the May.—Capital.

MR. NORTH.—Geo. B. Fraser, Esq., publishes his card as agent of the North British and Mercantile Fire Insurance Co., which he has represented in Chatham for over thirteen years.

R. E. CURRIE.—Immanuel Reformed Episcopal Church, Chatham, has been reposed under the pastoral charge of Rev. Mr. Cutbush, a young English clergyman, whose ministrations are highly spoken of.

LIFE INSURANCE.—Agent Marshall of the New Brunswick Insurance Aid Association of Fredericton is visiting Chatham. He represents an organization that commends itself to public confidence.

FOOT INJURY.—Mr. John Best of Dorley had his foot badly crushed under the runner of a sled last week. Some small bones of the foot, it was thought, were broken.

A "SCOTCH NYMPH" is the coming attraction at the Chatham Skating Rink. They will be highland costumes by the maquerellers, and a highland piper is to play the bag-pipe constantly between the skaters. The occasion will be a very interesting one and the Scotch as well as "other folk" will be to the fore.

HEBREW.—The Advocate says: "It is reported that the Prince of Wales, on the occasion of his silver wedding banquet, will announce the betrothal of Prince Albert Victor to his cousin Princess Alexandra of Greece, and the betrothal of Prince Victoria to the Duke of Sparta, the Crown Prince of Greece."

Perhaps the Advocate knows all about it, but it appears to have the wrong mixture again.

A Bro. Loo.—The following appears among the Woodstock Sentinel's Gleanings: "Mr. J. W. McKinty, of Kingscliff, and Mr. Lynch, of the North Branch Miramichi, surveyed a spring the other day for Mr. John Irvine, containing within a space of 2000 feet. The water was by Mr. Danan Macdonald of Fredericton, and healed to the astonishment of Mr. Irvine's celebrated grey span Pass and Kit."

THE TAMES REMOVED.—For several days past Capt. Knight and her Court martial have been engaged separating the wheat from the tares in the Salvation Army, and as a result of their labors several of the members have lost their insignia of membership. The Captain says she is determined to have none but true and faithful soldiers fighting under the banner on the 18th Co.—Fredericton Reporter.

ELEVEN MILES OF BOYS' GEESE.—Early on Sunday morning last, as a special week ending at 11 A.M. on the I. C. R. one of the trucks of a day car jumped the track and ran along on the outside of the rail until Coldbrook station was reached, eleven miles distant. At this point the accident was discovered and as examination showed that the bolts had been cut off the fish plates from Model Farm station down.

TELEPHONE.—An effort is being made to induce a number of persons to form a telephone exchange in this town on a similar system to that adopted in cities. It would also be connected with the system in Chatham, and by payment of a small fee be enabled to make use of the instruments in that town for communication. There are good prospects of success.—Advocate.

ORPHANS.—Much sympathy is felt in the community for Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Strang, whose daughter, Irene, died on Monday morning last about four o'clock. She had not been altogether well for a good while, although she kept about her usual duties, and her father, in his large business, while he, himself, was confined to the house by illness. Last week, however, she gave up her usual employment and was prostrated by a nervous affection, although a serious result was not anticipated until a very short time before her death.

DEATH OF MR. JOHN GUTHRIE.—There are few people in St. John who will entertain kindly recollections of Mr. John Guthrie, who, for a large number of years, was the proprietor of the Waverly hotel, on King street. Since giving up the hotel, a few years ago, he has been living on his farm, running into town occasionally to mingle with his old friends, and talk over "the good old times." A little over a week ago he was stricken with illness which resulted fatally this morning. Mr. Guthrie, although pretty well advanced in years, had a vigorous mind, and his genial disposition won for him many friends, who will bear with regret of his death.—Globe of 28th.

FOR CAMPBELLTON.—Mr. John A. Fleet, of Nelson, has purchased the store and premises in Campbellton, lately occupied by Mr. Robert Watt. Mr. Fleet is intending to remove from Nelson and starting in business in Campbellton about the 1st of April. When the proposed alterations are made in the premises he expects to have one of the best business establishments on the North Shore. Mr. Fleet's long experience in the dry goods business should enable him to sell at the very lowest prices and judging from a personal acquaintance with him for some years past we have no doubt he will command a large share of public patronage in and around Campbellton.—Globe.

"COLD PIZEN"—The Advocate is out of temper and we fear it has let the sun go down on its wrath. It says: "The farrow cow discussion has given the Advocate its desired opportunity to make an allusion to a party man to open a fighting constituency in Newswalk."

We have to inform the Advocate that it has been "suffered" as the Advocate's "boasting" story is in every particular untrue concerning any one connected with this paper. The Advocate may had better secure the "emetic" and "stomach pump" to "raise" the valuation of the shanty on the hill when he again attempts to become a councillor.

Perhaps the Advocate imagines the words "concerning anyone connected with this paper" will save it, but the local public on the broad grin all the same, and know "it is only the bird that flutters." There was another rumor about a two ago to the effect that the P. N. P. of the Advocate had parted company with the intellectual and thereof—which, no doubt, accounts for "the milk in the ocean." We hope the rumor is as unfounded as the one alleged by the parties concerned to be. We should be sorry to see our erratic contemporary relapse into its former inipidity.

"SCIENTIFIC AMERICAN" We have done arrangements with the publishers of the Scientific American to receive subscriptions thereof in Chatham, so as to save patrons of that useful paper the trouble of remitting to New York. The Scientific American, when ordered through the ADVANCE office will be mailed direct to subscribers from the New York office of publication. Every number contains sixteen large pages, beautifully printed, and elegantly illustrated; it presents in popular style a descriptive record of the most novel, interesting and important advances in Science, Art, and Manufacture. It shows the latest progress in the world in respect to New Discoveries and Improvements, embracing Machinery, Mechanical Works, Engineering in all its branches, Chemistry, Metallurgy, Electricity, Light, Heat, Architecture, Domestic Economy, Agriculture, Natural History, etc.

It should have a place in every Dwelling, Shop, Office, School or Library. Workmen, Foremen, Engineers, Officials, Merchants, Farmers, Teachers, Lawyers, Physicians, Clergymen—people in every walk and profession in life, will derive satisfaction and benefit from a regular reading of The Scientific American. The prices of the different forms of the Scientific American are as follows: Scientific American, 1 year, $3 00. Scientific American Supplement, 1 year, $2 00. Scientific American and Supplement, both to one year, $4 00. Architect and Builder's edition, 1 year, $2 50. Orders must invariably be accompanied by the cash.

A Word to "Presbyterianian." DEAR SIR:—I did not call God's Word absurd, and in stating that I did not believe in your other side that of bearing false witness against your neighbor. I knew you could not find proof in the Holy Scriptures for your assertion that it was against God's law for a man to marry his deceased wife's sister, but as a disappointed and disappointed man, I am disappointed in the illogical method you adopt in dodging my question. Take my advice, and give up the business of writing in the press concerning things you do not understand, and above all things, respect the privacy of other people's lives. How they found them and carried them off by telling lies. You shall not profit by them.

Sidney Laska's story, "My Uncle Florian" takes little Gregory two or three years along in his queer New York life. He is going school and getting ashamed of the kind of old man who is going to make a man of him.

Mr. Sherwood's party of girls are at Newport. Her story is how to behave at such places.

There are many stories and sketches and pleasant bits of verse and pictures. All together Wide Awake is as good as it can be. $2 a year, or you can order it for $2000. You can get a book number by sending five cents to L. D. Lopham Company, Boston.

Sir John at the Revival. An Ottawa dispatch says: The revival services conducted by Rev. Mr. Hunter and Rev. Mr. Crowley during the past six weeks in the Dominion Methodist Church here were to have been brought to a close Tuesday night. The services they have excited in all classes of society have been great, and augmented by the fact that Sir John and Lady Macdonald have attended as often as two and three times a week. Tuesday night the church was crowded to the doors, and over two thousand persons were shut out. Two pews, however, reserved with great care from the pressing multitude, were watched with eager interest, and a very impressive service was held. The audience as the Premier and Lady Macdonald, with Lieut-Governor Dewdney and Mrs. Alderson, Mr. Chas. Tison and other friends, entered the church, and proceeded to fill them. During the course of the preliminary exercises, the correspondent learned that the evangelists on Tuesday launched with John and were told in all sincerity that he had experienced a change of heart. His well known features were a rather serious and troubled expression as he walked to his seat. He took part in the singing with earnestness, and those in the neighborhood, who were following him, were not surprised when, in answer to an appeal by Mr. Hunter that all who wished to become Christians and desired the prayers of the audience would stand up, the Premier and Lady Macdonald, with Lieut-Governor Dewdney and Mrs. Alderson, Mr. Chas. Tison and other friends, entered the church, and proceeded to fill them. During the course of the preliminary exercises, the correspondent learned that the evangelists on Tuesday launched with John and were told in all sincerity that he had experienced a change of heart. His well known features were a rather serious and troubled expression as he walked to his seat. He took part in the singing with earnestness, and those in the neighborhood, who were following him, were not surprised when, in answer to an appeal by Mr. Hunter that all who wished to become Christians and desired the prayers of the audience would stand up, the Premier and Lady Macdonald, with Lieut-Governor Dewdney and Mrs. Alderson, Mr. Chas. Tison and other friends, entered the church, and proceeded to fill them. During the course of the preliminary exercises, the correspondent learned that the evangelists on Tuesday launched with John and were told in all sincerity that he had experienced a change of heart. His well known features were a rather serious and troubled expression as he walked to his seat. He took part in the singing with earnestness, and those in the neighborhood, who were following him, were not surprised when, in answer to an appeal by Mr. Hunter that all who wished to become Christians and desired the prayers of the audience would stand up, the Premier and Lady Macdonald, with Lieut-Governor Dewdney and Mrs. Alderson, Mr. Chas. Tison and other friends, entered the church, and proceeded to fill them. During the course of the preliminary exercises, the correspondent learned that the evangelists on Tuesday launched with John and were told in all sincerity that he had experienced a change of heart. His well known features were a rather serious and troubled expression as he walked to his seat. He took part in the singing with earnestness, and those in the neighborhood, who were following him, were not surprised when, in answer to an appeal by Mr. Hunter that all who wished to become Christians and desired the prayers of the audience would stand up, the Premier and Lady Macdonald, with Lieut-Governor Dewdney and Mrs. Alderson, Mr. Chas. Tison and other friends, entered the church, and proceeded to fill them. During the course of the preliminary exercises, the correspondent learned that the evangelists on Tuesday launched with John and were told in all sincerity that he had experienced a change of heart. His well known features were a rather serious and troubled expression as he walked to his seat. He took part in the singing with earnestness, and those in the neighborhood, who were following him, were not surprised when, in answer to an appeal by Mr. Hunter that all who wished to become Christians and desired the prayers of the audience would stand up, the Premier and Lady Macdonald, with Lieut-Governor Dewdney and Mrs. Alderson, Mr. Chas. Tison and other friends, entered the church, and proceeded to fill them. During the course of the preliminary exercises, the correspondent learned that the evangelists on Tuesday launched with John and were told in all sincerity that he had experienced a change of heart. His well known features were a rather serious and troubled expression as he walked to his seat. He took part in the singing with earnestness, and those in the neighborhood, who were following him, were not surprised when, in answer to an appeal by Mr. Hunter that all who wished to become Christians and desired the prayers of the audience would stand up, the Premier and Lady Macdonald, with Lieut-Governor Dewdney and Mrs. Alderson, Mr. Chas. Tison and other friends, entered the church, and proceeded to fill them. During the course of the preliminary exercises, the correspondent learned that the evangelists on Tuesday launched with John and were told in all sincerity that he had experienced a change of heart. His well known features were a rather serious and troubled expression as he walked to his seat. He took part in the singing with earnestness, and those in the neighborhood, who were following him, were not surprised when, in answer to an appeal by Mr. Hunter that all who wished to become Christians and desired the prayers of the audience would stand up, the Premier and Lady Macdonald, with Lieut-Governor Dewdney and Mrs. Alderson, Mr. Chas. Tison and other friends, entered the church, and proceeded to fill them. During the course of the preliminary exercises, the correspondent learned that the evangelists on Tuesday launched with John and were told in all sincerity that he had experienced a change of heart. His well known features were a rather serious and troubled expression as he walked to his seat. He took part in the singing with earnestness, and those in the neighborhood, who were following him, were not surprised when, in answer to an appeal by Mr. Hunter that all who wished to become Christians and desired the prayers of the audience would stand up, the Premier and Lady Macdonald, with Lieut-Governor Dewdney and Mrs. Alderson, Mr. Chas. Tison and other friends, entered the church, and proceeded to fill them. During the course of the preliminary exercises, the correspondent learned that the evangelists on Tuesday launched with John and were told in all sincerity that he had experienced a change of heart. His well known features were a rather serious and troubled expression as he walked to his seat. He took part in the singing with earnestness, and those in the neighborhood, who were following him, were not surprised when, in answer to an appeal by Mr. Hunter that all who wished to become Christians and desired the prayers of the audience would stand up, the Premier and Lady Macdonald, with Lieut-Governor Dewdney and Mrs. Alderson, Mr. Chas. Tison and other friends, entered the church, and proceeded to fill them. During the course of the preliminary exercises, the correspondent learned that the evangelists on Tuesday launched with John and were told in all sincerity that he had experienced a change of heart. His well known features were a rather serious and troubled expression as he walked to his seat. He took part in the singing with earnestness, and those in the neighborhood, who were following him, were not surprised when, in answer to an appeal by Mr. Hunter that all who wished to become Christians and desired the prayers of the audience would stand up, the Premier and Lady Macdonald, with Lieut-Governor Dewdney and Mrs. Alderson, Mr. Chas. Tison and other friends, entered the church, and proceeded to fill them. During the course of the preliminary exercises, the correspondent learned that the evangelists on Tuesday launched with John and were told in all sincerity that he had experienced a change of heart. His well known features were a rather serious and troubled expression as he walked to his seat. He took part in the singing with earnestness, and those in the neighborhood, who were following him, were not surprised when, in answer to an appeal by Mr. Hunter that all who wished to become Christians and desired the prayers of the audience would stand up, the Premier and Lady Macdonald, with Lieut-Governor Dewdney and Mrs. Alderson, Mr. Chas. Tison and other friends, entered the church, and proceeded to fill them. During the course of the preliminary exercises, the correspondent learned that the evangelists on Tuesday launched with John and were told in all sincerity that he had experienced a change of heart. His well known features were a rather serious and troubled expression as he walked to his seat. He took part in the singing with earnestness, and those in the neighborhood, who were following him, were not surprised when, in answer to an appeal by Mr. Hunter that all who wished to become Christians and desired the prayers of the audience would stand up, the Premier and Lady Macdonald, with Lieut-Governor Dewdney and Mrs. Alderson, Mr. Chas. Tison and other friends, entered the church, and proceeded to fill them. During the course of the preliminary exercises, the correspondent learned that the evangelists on Tuesday launched with John and were told in all sincerity that he had experienced a change of heart. His well known features were a rather serious and troubled expression as he walked to his seat. He took part in the singing with earnestness, and those in the neighborhood, who were following him, were not surprised when, in answer to an appeal by Mr. Hunter that all who wished to become Christians and desired the prayers of the audience would stand up, the Premier and Lady Macdonald, with Lieut-Governor Dewdney and Mrs. Alderson, Mr. Chas. Tison and other friends, entered the church, and proceeded to fill them. During the course of the preliminary exercises, the correspondent learned that the evangelists on Tuesday launched with John and were told in all sincerity that he had experienced a change of heart. His well known features were a rather serious and troubled expression as he walked to his seat. He took part in the singing with earnestness, and those in the neighborhood, who were following him, were not surprised when, in answer to an appeal by Mr. Hunter that all who wished to become Christians and desired the prayers of the audience would stand up, the Premier and Lady Macdonald, with Lieut-Governor Dewdney and Mrs. Alderson, Mr. Chas. Tison and other friends, entered the church, and proceeded to fill them. During the course of the preliminary exercises, the correspondent learned that the evangelists on Tuesday launched with John and were told in all sincerity that he had experienced a change of heart. His well known features were a rather serious and troubled expression as he walked to his seat. He took part in the singing with earnestness, and those in the neighborhood, who were following him, were not surprised when, in answer to an appeal by Mr. Hunter that all who wished to become Christians and desired the prayers of the audience would stand up, the Premier and Lady Macdonald, with Lieut-Governor Dewdney and Mrs. Alderson, Mr. Chas. Tison and other friends, entered the church, and proceeded to fill them. During the course of the preliminary exercises, the correspondent learned that the evangelists on Tuesday launched with John and were told in all sincerity that he had experienced a change of heart. His well known features were a rather serious and troubled expression as he walked to his seat. He took part in the singing with earnestness, and those in the neighborhood, who were following him, were not surprised when, in answer to an appeal by Mr. Hunter that all who wished to become Christians and desired the prayers of the audience would stand up, the Premier and Lady Macdonald, with Lieut-Governor Dewdney and Mrs. Alderson, Mr. Chas. Tison and other friends, entered the church, and proceeded to fill them. During the course of the preliminary exercises, the correspondent learned that the evangelists on Tuesday launched with John and were told in all sincerity that he had experienced a change of heart. His well known features were a rather serious and troubled expression as he walked to his seat. He took part in the singing with earnestness, and those in the neighborhood, who were following him, were not surprised when, in answer to an appeal by Mr. Hunter that all who wished to become Christians and desired the prayers of the audience would stand up, the Premier and Lady Macdonald, with Lieut-Governor Dewdney and Mrs. Alderson, Mr. Chas. Tison and other friends, entered the church, and proceeded to fill them. During the course of the preliminary exercises, the correspondent learned that the evangelists on Tuesday launched with John and were told in all sincerity that he had experienced a change of heart. His well known features were a rather serious and troubled expression as he walked to his seat. He took part in the singing with earnestness, and those in the neighborhood, who were following him, were not surprised when, in answer to an appeal by Mr. Hunter that all who wished to become Christians and desired the prayers of the audience would stand up, the Premier and Lady Macdonald, with Lieut-Governor Dewdney and Mrs. Alderson, Mr. Chas. Tison and other friends, entered the church, and proceeded to fill them. During the course of the preliminary exercises, the correspondent learned that the evangelists on Tuesday launched with John and were told in all sincerity that he had experienced a change of heart. His well known features were a rather serious and troubled expression as he walked to his seat. He took part in the singing with earnestness, and those in the neighborhood, who were following him, were not surprised when, in answer to an appeal by Mr. Hunter that all who wished to become Christians and desired the prayers of the audience would stand up, the Premier and Lady Macdonald, with Lieut-Governor Dewdney and Mrs. Alderson, Mr. Chas. Tison and other friends, entered the church, and proceeded to fill them. During the course of the preliminary exercises, the correspondent learned that the evangelists on Tuesday launched with John and were told in all sincerity that he had experienced a change of heart. His well known features were a rather serious and troubled expression as he walked to his seat. He took part in the singing with earnestness, and those in the neighborhood, who were following him, were not surprised when, in answer to an appeal by Mr. Hunter that all who wished to become Christians and desired the prayers of the audience would stand up, the Premier and Lady Macdonald, with Lieut-Governor Dewdney and Mrs. Alderson, Mr. Chas. Tison and other friends, entered the church, and proceeded to fill them. During the course of the preliminary exercises, the correspondent learned that the evangelists on Tuesday launched with John and were told in all sincerity that he had experienced a change of heart. His well known features were a rather serious and troubled expression as he walked to his seat. He took part in the singing with earnestness, and those in the neighborhood, who were following him, were not surprised when, in answer to an appeal by Mr. Hunter that all who wished to become Christians and desired the prayers of the audience would stand up, the Premier and Lady Macdonald, with Lieut-Governor Dewdney and Mrs. Alderson, Mr. Chas. Tison and other friends, entered the church, and proceeded to fill them. During the course of the preliminary exercises, the correspondent learned that the evangelists on Tuesday launched with John and were told in all sincerity that he had experienced a change of heart. His well known features were a rather serious and troubled expression as he walked to his seat. He took part in the singing with earnestness, and those in the neighborhood, who were following him, were not surprised when, in answer to an appeal by Mr. Hunter that all who wished to become Christians and desired the prayers of the audience would stand up, the Premier and Lady Macdonald, with Lieut-Governor Dewdney and Mrs. Alderson, Mr. Chas. Tison and other friends, entered the church, and proceeded to fill them. During the course of the preliminary exercises, the correspondent learned that the evangelists on Tuesday launched with John and were told in all sincerity that he had experienced a change of heart. His well known features were a rather serious and troubled expression as he walked to his seat. He took part in the singing with earnestness, and those in the neighborhood, who were following him, were not surprised when, in answer to an appeal by Mr. Hunter that all who wished to become Christians and desired the prayers of the audience would stand up, the Premier and Lady Macdonald, with Lieut-Governor Dewdney and Mrs. Alderson, Mr. Chas. Tison and other friends, entered the church, and proceeded to fill them. During the course of the preliminary exercises, the correspondent learned that the evangelists on Tuesday launched with John and were told in all sincerity that he had experienced a change of heart. His well known features were a rather serious and troubled expression as he walked to his seat. He took part in the singing with earnestness, and those in the neighborhood, who were following him, were not surprised when, in answer to an appeal by Mr. Hunter that all who wished to become Christians and desired the prayers of the audience would stand up, the Premier and Lady Macdonald, with Lieut-Governor Dewdney and Mrs. Alderson, Mr. Chas. Tison and other friends, entered the church, and proceeded to fill them. During the course of the preliminary exercises, the correspondent learned that the evangelists on Tuesday launched with John and were told in all sincerity that he had experienced a change of heart. His well known features were a rather serious and troubled expression as he walked to his seat. He took part in the singing with earnestness, and those in the neighborhood, who were following him, were not surprised when, in answer to an appeal by Mr. Hunter that all who wished to become Christians and desired the prayers of the audience would stand up, the Premier and Lady Macdonald, with Lieut-Governor Dewdney and Mrs. Alderson, Mr. Chas. Tison and other friends, entered the church, and proceeded to fill them. During the course of the preliminary exercises, the correspondent learned that the evangelists on Tuesday launched with John and were told in all sincerity that he had experienced a change of heart. His well known features were a rather serious and troubled expression as he walked to his seat. He took part in the singing with earnestness, and those in the neighborhood, who were following him, were not surprised when, in answer to an appeal by Mr. Hunter that all who wished to become Christians and desired the prayers of the audience would stand up, the Premier and Lady Macdonald, with Lieut-Governor Dewdney and Mrs. Alderson, Mr. Chas. Tison and other friends, entered the church, and proceeded to fill them. During the course of the preliminary exercises, the correspondent learned that the evangelists on Tuesday launched with John and were told in all sincerity that he had experienced a change of heart. His well known features were a rather serious and troubled expression as he walked to his seat. He took part in the singing with earnestness, and those in the neighborhood, who were following him, were not surprised when, in answer to an appeal by Mr. Hunter that all who wished to become Christians and desired the prayers of the audience would stand up, the Premier and Lady Macdonald, with Lieut-Governor Dewdney and Mrs. Alderson, Mr. Chas. Tison and other friends, entered the church, and proceeded to fill them. During the course of the preliminary exercises, the correspondent learned that the evangelists on Tuesday launched with John and were told in all sincerity that he had experienced a change of heart. His well known features were a rather serious and troubled expression as he walked to his seat. He took part in the singing with earnestness, and those in the neighborhood, who were following him, were not surprised when, in answer to an appeal by Mr. Hunter that all who wished to become Christians and desired the prayers of the audience would stand up, the Premier and Lady Macdonald, with Lieut-Governor Dewdney and Mrs. Alderson, Mr. Chas. Tison and other friends, entered the church, and proceeded to fill them. During the course of the preliminary exercises, the correspondent learned that the evangelists on Tuesday launched with John and were told in all sincerity that he had experienced a change of heart. His well known features were a rather serious and troubled expression as he walked to his seat. He took part in the singing with earnestness, and those in the neighborhood, who were following him, were not surprised when, in answer to an appeal by Mr. Hunter that all who wished to become Christians and desired the prayers of the audience would stand up, the Premier and Lady Macdonald, with Lieut-Governor Dewdney and Mrs. Alderson, Mr. Chas. Tison and other friends, entered the church, and proceeded to fill them. During the course of the preliminary exercises, the correspondent learned that the evangelists on Tuesday launched with John and were told in all sincerity that he had experienced a change of heart. His well known features were a rather serious and troubled expression as he walked to his seat. He took part in the singing with earnestness, and those in the neighborhood, who were following him, were not surprised when, in answer to an appeal by Mr. Hunter that all who wished to become Christians and desired the prayers of the audience would stand up, the Premier and Lady Macdonald, with Lieut-Governor Dewdney and Mrs. Alderson, Mr. Chas. Tison and other friends, entered the church, and proceeded to fill them. During the course of the preliminary exercises, the correspondent learned that the evangelists on Tuesday launched with John and were told in all sincerity that he had experienced a change of heart. His well known features were a rather serious and troubled expression as he walked to his seat. He took part in the singing with earnestness, and those in the neighborhood, who were following him, were not surprised when, in answer to an appeal by Mr. Hunter that all who wished to become Christians and desired the prayers of the audience would stand up, the Premier and Lady Macdonald, with Lieut-Governor Dewdney and Mrs. Alderson, Mr. Chas. Tison and other friends, entered the church, and proceeded to fill them. During the course of the preliminary exercises, the correspondent learned that the evangelists on Tuesday launched with John and were told in all sincerity that he had experienced a change of heart. His well known features were a rather serious and troubled expression as he walked to his seat. He took part in the singing with earnestness, and those in the neighborhood, who were following him, were not surprised when, in answer to an appeal by Mr. Hunter that all who wished to become Christians and desired the prayers of the audience would stand up, the Premier and Lady Macdonald, with Lieut-Governor Dewdney and Mrs. Alderson, Mr. Chas. Tison and other friends, entered the church, and proceeded to fill them. During the course of the preliminary exercises, the correspondent learned that the evangelists on Tuesday launched with John and were told in all sincerity that he had experienced a change of heart. His well known features were a rather serious and troubled expression as he walked to his seat. He took part in the singing with earnestness, and those in the neighborhood, who were following him, were not surprised when, in answer to an appeal by Mr. Hunter that all who wished to become Christians and desired the prayers of the audience would stand up, the Premier and Lady Macdonald, with Lieut-Governor Dewdney and Mrs. Alderson, Mr. Chas. Tison and other friends, entered the church, and proceeded to fill them. During the course of the preliminary exercises, the correspondent learned that the evangelists on Tuesday launched with John and were told in all sincerity that he had experienced a change of heart. His well known features were a rather serious and troubled expression as he walked to his seat. He took part in the singing with earnestness, and those in the neighborhood, who were following him, were not surprised when, in answer to an appeal by Mr. Hunter that all who wished to become Christians and desired the prayers of the audience would stand up, the Premier and Lady Macdonald, with Lieut-Governor Dewdney and Mrs. Alderson, Mr. Chas. Tison and other friends, entered the church, and proceeded to fill them. During the course of the preliminary exercises, the correspondent learned that the evangelists on Tuesday launched with John and were told in all sincerity that he had experienced a change of heart. His well known features were a rather serious and troubled expression as he walked to his seat. He took part in the singing with earnestness, and those in the neighborhood, who were following him, were not surprised when, in answer to an appeal by Mr. Hunter that all who wished to become Christians and desired the prayers of the audience would stand up, the Premier and Lady Macdonald, with Lieut-Governor Dewdney and Mrs. Alderson, Mr. Chas. Tison and other friends, entered the church, and proceeded to fill them. During the course of the preliminary exercises, the correspondent learned that the evangelists on Tuesday launched with John and were told in all sincerity that he had experienced a change of heart. His well known features were a rather serious and troubled expression as he walked to his seat. He took part in the singing with earnestness, and those in the neighborhood, who were following him, were not surprised when, in answer to an appeal by Mr. Hunter that all who wished to become Christians and desired the prayers of the audience would stand up, the Premier and Lady Macdonald, with Lieut-Governor Dewdney and Mrs. Alderson, Mr. Chas. Tison and other friends, entered the church, and proceeded to fill them. During the course of the preliminary exercises, the correspondent learned that the evangelists on Tuesday launched with John and were told in all sincerity that he had experienced a change of heart. His well known features were a rather serious and troubled expression as he walked to his seat. He took part in the singing with earnestness, and those in the neighborhood, who were following him, were not surprised when, in answer to an appeal by Mr. Hunter that all who wished to become Christians and desired the prayers of the audience would stand up, the Premier and Lady Macdonald, with Lieut-Governor Dewdney and Mrs. Alderson, Mr. Chas. Tison and other friends, entered the church, and proceeded to fill them. During the course of the preliminary exercises, the correspondent learned that the evangelists on Tuesday launched with John and were told in all sincerity that he had experienced a change of heart. His well known features were a rather serious and troubled expression as he walked to his seat. He took part in the singing with earnestness, and those in the neighborhood, who were following him, were not surprised when, in answer to an appeal by Mr. Hunter that all who wished to become Christians and desired the prayers of the audience would stand up, the Premier and Lady Macdonald, with Lieut-Governor Dewdney and Mrs. Alderson, Mr. Chas. Tison and other friends, entered the church, and proceeded to fill them. During the course of the preliminary exercises, the correspondent learned that the evangelists on Tuesday launched with John and were told in all sincerity that he had experienced a change of heart. His well known features were a rather serious and troubled expression as he walked to his seat. He took part in the singing with earnestness, and those in the neighborhood, who were following him, were not surprised when, in answer to an appeal by Mr. Hunter that all who wished to become Christians and desired the prayers of the audience would stand up, the Premier and Lady Macdonald, with Lieut-Governor Dewdney and Mrs. Alderson, Mr. Chas. Tison and other friends, entered the church, and proceeded to fill