Boston Man Killed on His Sweetheart's Doorstep.

Alarming List of Dead and Wounded in Chicago—This Kind of Freedom is Expensive.

CHICAGO, Ill., July 4.—One man dead, boy fatally wounded, two other men shot and a boy hurt by a cannon cracker, were early contributions of victims to the Fourth of July celebration in Chicago.

Charles N. Strelow, 19 years old was shot and killed by one of four undoubtedly men, all of whom escaped.
Strelow, who was with several friends, had fired one shot from a revolver, when four men who said they were detectives, demanded that the party submit to a search. Strelow resisted and ran, and one of the four shot him dead.

Harry Hind, six years old, probably was fatally hurt by Katie Hugs, 15 years old, who playfully pointed an old revolver at him. The reason was discharged and the boy fell with a wound in his breast.

Charles Bengert, 20 years old, was struck in the right knee by a bullet fired by Patrolman Lewis, who was trying to disperse a crowd which had objected to the arrest of a boy for placing torpedoes on the street car tracks.
After the shooting a crowd of 200 persons attempted to assault the policeman, who was forced to return to the station.

Wm. J. O'Brien, 27 years old, was struck in the left foot by a stray bullet.
Bert Butler, 15 years old, was injured severely by a cannon cracker which exploded in his hand prematurely.
BOSTON, July 4.—Though the sale of explosives has been greatly restricted by city ordinances and state statutes the celebration of Independence Day in greater Boston lost none of its customary fervor.

Early in the day Wm. Brown was not in the temple by some unknown person who was firing a revolver in violation of the law. Brown was sitting on the steps of a house in the west end with his fiancée. She at first thought he had fainted, but, seeing blood flowing from his temple, she quickly summoned aid and he was carried to the Massachusetts General Hospital, where it was found that a bullet from a revolver had pierced his head. He died shortly afterward.

Brown was twenty years old, and lived in Cambridge.

HENLEY REGATTA OPENED.

HENLEY, July 4.—Brilliant weather, a great attendance ashore and afloat and fair rowing conditions marked the opening of Great Britain's annual water festival. Outside the grand challenge cup in which the Vespers of Philadelphia, and the Belgian crew were competing there was little interest in the regatta. The racing started with the first heat of the grand challenge cup in which the Leanders, who the British pin all their hopes of retaining the trophy in England, won practically as they liked from Jesus College, Cambridge.
The first heats were decided as follows: Leander beat Jesus College, Cambridge, by a length and three quarters. Time 7 mins. 26 secs.
The Belgian crew beat the Thames Rowing Club easily, time 7 mins. 16 secs.
The Vespers beat Christ College, Cambridge, by a length. Time 7 minutes 12 seconds.

MORE EVIDENCE IN TOBIN TRIAL.

The case of the King v John Tobin was continued today at the trial.
His Honor Judge McLeod, John Magee an inmate of the county jail, gave evidence that he did not carry a note from Tobin to the police station. robbery. It is alleged by the prosecution that such a note did pass between the two, the contents of which if admitted into evidence would be damaging to Tobin. The other witnesses examined were D. L. Hutchinson, Thomas Nixon, William Nixon, their evidence was substantially the same as at the former trial.
In circuit court yesterday afternoon at the retrial of King vs John Tobin, George A. Blair was called to the stand, and said he knew Tobin very well and was positive he saw Blair on Charlotte street on the night in question. Eldon Akerley of Queens county testified he was with Mr. Blair on that evening and remembered Blair remarking about the two men who had just passed. These are new witnesses for the crown. The following other witnesses were examined, George Whiteneck, Lottie Jackson, Albert Holm, Lucy Cook, Henry W. Robinson, Bernard Holm, Chas. Carr, Henry Pierce, Thomas Crawford, William Quinn and Detective Killeen.

DIRECTOR CUSHING'S RESIGNATION.

Director Cushing of the public works department stated to the Star this morning that he had nothing further to say in regard to his resignation which he had handed to the chairman of the board of works. His request for an increase in salary having been practically turned down, it being finally referred back by the council to the board of works. Mr. Cushing is prepared to quit the job.
Some of the aldermen seen today are of the opinion that if the director cannot get along on $1500 a year he should move.

The Street Railway Company had a gang of men at work today taking up the rails, unused since the new loop was opened, on Carmarthen street between Princess and Duke streets.

Threatens Odessa.

ST. PETERSBURG, July 4.—The minister of marine has received the following telegram from Admiral Krug.
"The crew of the transport Prout when leaving Budrove Bay mutinied against the captain and other officers. Second Lieutenant Nestoroff and boatswain Kosilov were killed.
"The Prout has arrived at Sebastopol and the crew now is repentant.
The officers have been released, the crew begging them to resume their posts. The Prout has been ordered to anchor at Kameheval Bay and an enquiry into the affair has been opened."

SOLDIERS REVOLT.

ST. PETERSBURG, July 4.—At Kient the first mobilisation trouble has taken place. The reservists attacked and wounded several policemen and plundered the liquor shops. Jews are avoiding service by flight.
More serious in its way, however, was the refusal of the disciplinary battalion in Korea to obey orders. They attacked their captain and killed their colonel. The latter, even when mortally wounded by bayonets, marched his soldiers to barracks and then sank dying.
The effectiveness in Poland has again commenced. Police agents have been attacked with bombs, and in sev-

JAPS REPORT RUSSIAN ATTACKS REPULSED WITH HEAVY LOSS.

TOKIO, July 4.—The following official announcement was made today from the headquarters of the Japanese army in Korea: "At dawn July 2 four hundred of the enemy's cavalry, with artillery, approached Nonsmokoh, thirteen miles northeast of Khipin.
Our force engaged and repulsed them with heavy losses. In the meantime our detachment made a detour far northward for the purpose of cutting off the enemy's retreat. Engaged the enemy's infantry at noon fourteen miles north of Yuyong. Our detachment also struck and scattered the enemy's cavalry, retreating from Loremarli." The detachment, which received today says: "At eight o'clock in the morning of July 1, 600 of the enemy's cavalry advanced toward the Pinnu river, thirteen miles northeast of Khipin.
We repulsed them. One hundred and Well Punished.

Acting Magistrate Henderson took a seat higher than is usual this morning, but did so with a grace born only of dignity, legal knowledge and a keen sense of justice.

Wm. Howes, charged with wandering on Prince William street without giving a satisfactory account of himself, was remanded.

Thomas Donohue was sent to the alms house for three months for being without visible means of subsistence.

Jas. Wilson, who was given in charge by Capt. W. Fardel, of the schooner Rebecca W. Hurdell, for being drunk and disorderly on the ship, was allowed to go back with the captain this morning, at the latter's request.

Harry Walsh, who gave Officer Finley a warm time on Mill street yesterday, was remanded. A warrant watching the central station this morning charging Walsh with stealing a watch from D. H. McNutt, of the Central Hotel, Sussex. It was stated in court this morning that Constable McLeod is on his way down from Sussex for Walsh, and on his arrival here Walsh will be handed over to him for the Sussex authorities to deal with. The prisoner is the man who, whilst under military law in camp at Sussex, secured an officer and was put into the military prison there and deprived of his efficiency pay. Walsh is a very well educated man.

Duncan Burns probably wishes now he had been more sure about the identity of his lady friends before glopping them. Last night he says he thought he saw a particular friend of his—a Miss Boyce—going down King street, and running after the lady he stopped her by catching hold of her arm. The lady in question turned out not to be Miss Boyce, but Miss Buchanan, a daughter of Col. Buchanan, Burns however, would insist on following and ed infantry, with eighteen guns, simultaneously attacked Shishiku, eight miles northeast of Pinnu river. The engagement lasted until July 2, when the enemy was repulsed. The enemy's casualties were over four hundred.

Ours were ninety.

ST. PETERSBURG, July 4.—With the completion of arrangements for the Washington peace meeting President Roosevelt has resumed his efforts to bring about an armistice. No light is shown upon the exact status of the negotiations or the character of the communications passing between the Russian and Japanese governments at Washington. The matter is an exceedingly delicate one, but the outlook for success nevertheless, from all information obtainable, is not unpromising if Japan is ready to sheath the sword until the Washington meeting develops whether a basis for peace is possible.
Russia's consent seems assured.

annoying her, with the result that she had him arrested. On the way to the station Burns gave Officer Crawford a pretty warm time. This morning he was sent to jail for 30 days without the option for assaulting Miss Buchanan, and in addition a fine of $18 or another 30 days for resisting the police.

Samuel Howes, who was reported by Sergeant Hastings for working in the city without a license, was allowed to go, on promising to take out the license in two instalments.
Charles Colwell told the acting magistrate he had discharged the man who obstructed the sidewalk on Chapel street by having a wagon pole across it, so the case was allowed to drop.

LEGAL SQUABBLE OVER EJECTMENT.

H. Ramsey has occupied the premises at 159 Mill street as a billiard and pool room for some time, but yesterday was turned out on the street, tables, chairs, fixtures, stock and all. Matters were interesting for a time and a nice legal row is in the air.
The building is owned by the Hazen estate, for which Weldon & McLean are representatives. W. A. Stepler secured a lease of the building and sub-let the premises occupied by Ramsey to a Chinaman for a laundry. Mr.
Ramsey contended his lease had not expired and refused to move; hence the ejectment process which was carried out by Constable McLeod.
The latest turn in affairs is that the ejectment was made in the name of Weldon & McLean and not in the name of the Hazen estate.

WEDDING AT MONCTON.

(Special to the Star.)
MONCTON, N. B., July 4.—The marriage took place here at twelve o'clock today of August McLeod of Sydney to Miss Alberta, second daughter of W.
H. Faulkner. The ceremony was performed at the residence of G. C. Allen, I. C. R. baggage agent, Bedford street and was performed by Rev. S.
T. Todd. Mr. and Mrs. McLeod will reside at Sydney.

37th. MEETING OF C. OF E. SYNOD.

First Business Session Held
This Morning.

Diocesan Mission Deficits Occupy Considerable Attention—Amendments to the Constitution—Reports Presented.

The thirty-seventh annual meeting of the Diocesan Synod of Fredericton commenced this morning at 10.15 in the school room of Trinity church. There were about thirty of the clergymen of the diocese on hand and twenty-four laymen.
The seats in the schoolroom were arranged for the session of the diocese.
A platform has been erected at the south side of the room and the seats are arranged in a semi-circle. The platform at the east end of the room will not be used.
At 8 o'clock this morning holy communion was celebrated in Trinity church by Bishop Kingston, assisted by Archdeacon Neale, of Woodstock, and Archdeacon Forsyth, of Chatham.
The meeting this morning opened with prayer and the calling of the roll by the secretary, Canon Newnam, of St. Stephen.

The bishop then read his address to the synod. His lordship's address was quite short and brought up no business of special importance. He spoke feelingly of the four clergy of the diocese who had passed away since the last session. He referred first to Rev. Mr.
Spike who labored so many years at Musquash and other charges and always won the affectionate regard of those who met him; Rev. J. de Soyres had also passed from among them.
The bishop spoke about the work he had done as curate, rector and professor and his great energy in all his labors. Rev. D. I. Wetmore had lately passed away at an advanced age, at SHOCKING MURDER AT STELLARTON, N. S.

Revolver Shot Ends Quarrel
Over a Girl.

John McKenzie of New Glasgow Shot His Rival in Cold Blood and Calmly Went to Bed.

(Special to the Star.)
HALIFAX, July 4.—A shocking murder was committed at Stellarton, Picton county about midnight.

It appears that John McKnight, of New Glasgow, was in company with John Ferguson, who is a fireman on the I. C. R. The two men were on Main street when a quarrel ensued over a girl named Flynn, for whose affections the two were vying. McKnight, without a word of warning, suddenly produced a revolver and shot Ferguson dead on the spot.

After committing the awful deed Mc-Kenzie went to his home and without turning a hair got into bed and was soon in a deep sleep, from which he was awakened by the police shortly before daybreak this morning.

Jealousy is thought to be the cause of the crime.

NEW MODERATOR FOR ST. JOHN PRESBYTERY.

A meeting of the Presbytery of St.
John took place this morning in St.
Andrew's church. The session lasted from ten till after twelve o'clock and was continued again this afternoon at 2.30. A committee meeting was held at two o'clock this afternoon before the regular session.

The representatives to the General Assembly made their report this morning. Rev. Mr. Anderson was appointed moderator in place of Rev. Mr. Robertson, of Milltown, whose term has expired.

The call of the church at Richmond to the Rev. Mr. Polley, of Waterford, was discussed.

FUNERAL OF FATHER AND SON.

The funeral took place this afternoon at 2.30 of the two victims of the sad drowning accident off Carter's Point on Dominion day. A service was held at E. Lawson Smith's late residence, 119 Leinster street, which was conducted by Rev. Dr. Sprague. Both Mr. Smith and his little son, George Eric, were buried in the same grave at Fernhill cemetery, a large number of sympathetic friends being present at the interment.

A magnificent array of flowers and wreaths were sent as a mark of esteem and sympathy.
