HERE IS LINE-UP OF WHITE SOX TEAM

Chicago baseball sharp are already predicting that the White Sox will line up the following regular team this year: Pitchers, Smith, Walsh, Scott, Olmstead, Sutor and Burns; catchers, Sullivan, Owen and Payne; first base, Gandil; second base, Zelder; third base, Furtell; shortstop, Blackburn; outfielders, Dougherty, Parent, Cole or Hahn. Gandil, a new first sacker, comes from Sacramento, where he was a big hitter last year, and Zelder, the probable second baseman, also played great ball on the coast. At present Manager Hugh Duffy has first catchers, thirteen pitchers, sixteen infielders and ten outfielders on his list, but he is sharpening his pruning knife.

MANY BOWLING MATCHES PLAYED HERE YESTERDAY

It was a great game which the Accountants and Newmans bowled in last evening's city league game, but it ended without a decision as to property in it. Accountants scooped in the first two strings, and had 11 pins to the good when they started in on the final, but they dropped a bit, and the Newmans took the second string with the small total margin of six.

Two games were played last evening, C. M. B. A. winning three points from St. John Baptist, and C. M. B. A. turning the same trick with the Knights.

Do You Suffer From Headaches?

There are few people who have never experienced a headache from one cause or another. It effects all ages and both sexes alike, but the female sex is naturally more affected through the higher nervous development and more delicate organization of the system. Those also of a nervous temperament and studious or sedentary occupation are subject to it. The presence of headache nearly always tells us that there is another disease which, although we may not be aware of it, is still exerting its baneful influence, and perhaps awaiting an opportunity to assert itself plainly. Burdock Blood Bitters has, for years, been curing all kinds of headaches, and if you will only give it a trial we assure it will do for you what it has done for thousands of others.

BASKETBALL

MCCADAM, N. B., Jan. 28.—A game of basketball took place at Vancouver last night, resulting in a win for McCadam of 7 to 2, Vancouver scoring only one foul. This is McCadam's first outside game. Manager Grosvenor would be glad to arrange some outside games with any team caring to write him. The team lined up: R. F. Evans, L. F. Gaynor, centre; Ord, L. D. Stealy, R. D. Robinson.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., Jan. 27.—Tom Longboat, the Indian runner, tonight beat Percy Smallwood, the Welshman, in a 12-mile indoor running race for four minutes. Longboat's time was 1 hour, 8 minutes, 37 seconds, while Smallwood, who finished almost five laps behind, did it in 1 hour, 12 minutes, 37 seconds.

LAMY RETAINS TITLE

Championship Races at Cleveland—Four New Records. CLEVELAND, Ohio, Jan. 27.—Edmund Lamy of Saranac Lake, N. Y., held his championship title in the indoor skating races here last night and tonight and made four new records. Tonight he reduced the mark for the half mile from 1:30 3-4, made fourteen years ago, to 1:17 3-4. In the three-quarter mile he reduced J. S. Johnson's title of 2:13, made in 1894, to 2:04 1-4. He also took the two-mile event, but failed to touch the record. Summary: Half mile—Lamy won; Kearney, N. Y., second; Alroth, Duluth, third, Time, 1:17 3-4. Three-quarters—Lamy won; Kearney, second; Wheeler, Montreal, third, Time, 2:04 1-4. Two miles—Lamy won; Kearney, second; Roe, Toronto, third, Time, 6:12.

ACOOSE WILL COMPETE IN BIG TORONTO RACE

TORONTO, Jan. 27.—Acoose will be here. The best Grenfell Indian wired his entry yesterday to Meant, Cook and Flanagan, stating that he will be in Toronto in a day or two to finish his training for the Canadian Derby at Silverdale Rink a week from today. This is the all-conquering rook who is heralded to succeed Tom Longboat and who is simply adding for a crack at the Ontario. In addition to this entry, "Sparrow" Robertson, the famous New York trainer, who handles Jim Crowley, verified the entry of the New York runner to the coming Flanagan and Cook that his man will also arrive in Toronto in time to finish his training at Silverdale Rink. Shrubert, going to let this chance to get even with Meadows go by without trying, and in a letter to the promoters yesterday the Englishman said: "I have not been beaten on my merry old '30" by Meadows or anybody else, except Longboat, against whom I agreed to run beyond any distance. My leg is not as sore as some people would have you believe, and I will be a starter in the ultimate race here and in the Powers-Pollock event at New York. If I do not experience another setback in my training." Hilton Green wants a chance at the Western wonder, Acoose, and has notified the management of his intention to start in the race at Silverdale next Wednesday.

HARVARD CREW MAY RACE WITH BELGIANS

BOSTON, Jan. 27.—Boston oarsmen plan to have a big rowing program here in August. It is the idea of the projectors to secure the championship regatta of the National Association of Amateur Oarsmen, with a special feature embodying a race between the Harvard varsity crew and the famous eight of the Royal Club Nautique de Grand, Belgium. The Belgian crew is at the present time the holder of the Grand Challenge Cup won at the famous Henley regatta, held in England on July 7 and 8, last year. Since the plan was first proposed at a meeting of prominent local oarsmen its supporters have been assured of liberal support by influential patrons of the sport. So far as the N. A. A. O. regatta is concerned, Boston has been assured of this event by President James Pilkington. If the local association cares to finance the same. The meeting of the delegates of the New England Association on February 2 will consider the project officially and discuss what steps may be necessary to bring about a contest between the Belgium and Harvard eights. It is said on good authority that President George B. Magrath, of the New England Association, has been assured of the willingness of both crews to compete in such an event. The cost of the trip of the Belgians has been fitted at not over $5,000. In fact, it is said that Harvard students at Cambridge have expressed a willingness to contribute what the sum needed in order that they may witness what is expected to be the best eight-oared crew in Harvard history in an international race with the eight of the historic university.

BITES OYSTER, GETS MOUTHFUL OF PEARLS

ATLANTIC CITY, Jan. 27.—Lucky discoverers of marine gems in seashore oysters and clams were all outside tonight by W. Spencer Smith, of New York, who got a mouthful of pearls from a single oyster, served as a part of his dinner at the St. Charles Hotel. Investigation of the oyster after Smith had bitten down on several hard substances showed no less than nine pearls imbedded in the mollusk. The largest of the collection was as large as a pea, and the lot is valued at several hundred dollars.

JEFF A MAN OF HIS WORD

Everybody knows that Jeff is a man of his word. For him to say a thing means that he has done something that all the money in the world couldn't change, Jeff is not the kind of man who never considers his word. He is a man of his word.

MULLIN WOULD LIKE TO GO SOUTH EARLY

Detroit Pitcher is Anxious to Round Into Shape Before the Regulars Arrive. George Mullin, champion pitcher of the American League, has asked Jennings to send him to Texas a couple of weeks in advance of the Tigers. This scheme worked wonders for the big fellow last year. Mullin is of opinion that "Wild Bill" Donovan will come back strong and he wishes to beat out his popular rival in 1910. In the fact that Sam Crawford has made arrangements to become tester for a Detroit auto company Detroit fans see an indication that Sam believes his big league career is near an end. Sam's felling has been a little off color for a season and a half, and also his showing on the base. As long as Sam's batting eye holds good his fielding faults and slowness will be condoned. Connie Mack is perhaps the best example of the old style successful bench manager in the American League. Mack has won two pennants with the Athletics—1902 and 1905—finished in 1903, 1907 and 1909, was fourth in 1901 and 1906, fifth in 1904 and sixth in 1908.

BILLY PAPPE THINKS THAT JEFF WILL HAVE A CINCH

Jeffries in a common center, says Billy Pappe in the New York American. This is in my opinion of the coming encounter between Jeff and Jack Johnson next July. Anybody that thinks differently can have a little read of my hand. I earned dough when I return from Europe. All of Johnson's friends are basing their hopes on one particular point. "Will Jeff come back?" Take it from me, he is back. When he steps into the ring you will never know that he was ever away. Some critics try to pick Jeff's fights to pieces. "He fought dead ones," one will chirp, and immediately the avvil chorus gets busy. If he fought dead ones, then the dearest of the lot will be "Lit Arith" Johnson. Jim Corbett certainly knows something of Jeff. He fought the big fellow twice. He does not hesitate to say that Jeff will win, and believe me, Corbett is the man to string with. The one point that makes no figure with Jeff is Johnson's recent fight with Ketchel. Stanley stayed 12 rounds before Jack put him away. How long would Ketchel last with Jeff even now? About two minutes. Strictly done, but it's the real article. I have known Jeff many years and have always been one of his greatest admirers. Why? Because he was, and is still the most wonderful man that ever stepped into a prize ring. Very few really what a natural born fighter Jeffries is. He is above the normal man in height. He possesses a body that is impossible to hurt. And he has a wallop that would kill a steer. These things are not the kind of things that all the money in the world could change, Jeff is not the kind of man who never considers his word. He is a man of his word.

PRESENT-DAY FANS FAIRER THAN THOSE OF YESTER

Archie Latham, the Veteran Player, Dilates on Characteristics of Crowds in Different Cities—Says St. Louis Fans are Known for Their Keen Baseball Intelligence.

Archie Latham of St. Louis was discussing baseball of the past and present day the other day in New York, and he remarked that crowds nowadays are much better than they were 15 years ago. "In these days the home people want to see their own team win just as much as they did 15 years ago. A fine play by a visiting player at the Polo Grounds will provoke an outburst of hearty and sincere applause that is equalled elsewhere, yet that element that is always hurling gibes at the visiting and starting players is numerous here as elsewhere. This class of rooster is to be found principally on Saturday half holidays and in towns in which there is playing on Sundays. The Saturday and Sunday rooster is with his team heart and soul, but he doesn't come often enough to become as fair-minded as the weekday regular. Nor does he come often enough to become as well posted in the fine points of the game, and anybody judging the baseball knowledge of a city by its Saturday and Sunday crowds will form an incorrect impression. In the matter of attendances are more demonstrative and assertive, though venting their emotions less frequently in the matter of outbursts. The Sunday crowds in the big league cities of the west measure up well with those of the midwest, and root all the harder for which New York crowds are conspicuous. They stick to their team, don't waken and head for the main players with the readiness shown in other cities. They have their sarcastic moods, as the crowds do in all cities when their teams are having a particularly bad day, but they don't mean half they say, and come back the next day. They are merciful here, but steadfast. In the noble sweet and the standards so arranged as to give an excellent view of the game from any point—the Polo grounds surround the field and the attractive background, Americans League park here and Fenway in Pittsburg excel. The American League grounds in Boston are commodious, but the National League park, while in New York, right field is the sun field at the Polo grounds and right field at American League park. The field in Pittsburg is a beauty, and the ball players say, no sun field in 1910-Louis. Brooklyn has a good field, but it has been a good while since they have had a first division team. The time is ripe now for the bridge for a visiting team to find the cranks in a particularly receptive mood. Brooklyn has a comparatively short right field fence where a good many home runs go. The right field rampart at the Broad street grounds is a beauty, and the fans can be heard cheering for home runs. The Quakers have two new baseball plants, the new stadium at Philadelphia being mainly with the spirit of modernity. At the National League grounds in St. Louis, right field is the sun field in Cincinnati, left field in Chicago, and right field in St. Louis.
