

the fullest testimony to the ability, fidelity and success of his labors.

Among other facilities for guiding the studies of the youth at the School and College, the Governors have made arrangements, through the kind intervention of His Excellency the Earl of Mulgrave, by which they will be furnished periodically with the examination papers prepared in England, for candidates for commissions in H. M. army and navy—the first set of these papers having been lately received.

Several of our young men have within a few years entered Her Majesty's service, and no doubt more will be found; desirous of emulating the fame of those Alumni who have won the highest distinctions in the service of their country, and to such these papers will prove very useful for the profitable direction of their studies.

The value of the College certificates, which give to their holders the right of free nominations, is becoming more and more apparent, as the number of students increases; and it is hoped that the expectations originally entertained, by those concerned in the raising of the endowment, of a large influx of students in consequence of that privilege, will be speedily realised. Those contributors whose notes of hand still remain unpaid, will see the importance of preventing this advantage from passing away from them, by immediately discharging their several obligations. It will be remembered that the whole amount of fees for a three years' course, (immunity from which is secured by a nomination,) is not less than £74 15s.

The Governors did not fail to bring to the notice of His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, during his recent auspicious visit, this Institution, founded by his Royal progenitor King George the Third, and the following address was presented by the Visitor on behalf of the Governors:—

TO HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS ALBERT EDWARD, PRINCE OF WALES, &c. &c. &c.

MAY IT PLEASE YOUR ROYAL HIGHNESS,—

The Governors of the University of King's College, Windsor, N. S., gladly avail themselves of Your Royal Highness's arrival in this portion of Her Majes-
