

ALMOST MARRIED.—At Huron, Littleton, in the 31st, there was a courtship, but no marriage. It appears that the parties of infinite friendship had existed between Dr. B. & Miss R., for some years, which resulted in their presenting them marriage. The first portion of the service, embracing the vows of the banns, were promptly completed by Dr. B. The covenant of birth, however, by the ceremony, to which she promptly assented, "No." The minister asked her if she was in earnest, and she said, "I am!" Sir, and she, "so he has made himself a trifler with me, and I have no right to be trifled with." The minister replied, "and I have a good cause," and turning round she took a gentleman's hand under the church. The doctor says, "I don't understand it, and declines his concurrence."—[Cleveland Democrat, March 8.]

The daughters of "Empress of the Rosebud" Tannenbaum, Dorothea and Sophie, despatched their forces at noon upon the dealer in hardware belligerencies—demanded the price of his stock trade—paid it down, and due solennity, made a stink offering of it to the devil by putting it upon the floor. The reason of this was a number of deaths in the city of Metz in 1850, which was 15,236, of which 9,619 were from cholera. The number of births during the year was 8,329, showing a diminution in the population of 7,007. The number of marriages was 2,120.

No Bishop or Lawyer.—If we may credit our paper, the Bishop of Huron, the Connor despatched his episcopal visit to send a bishop to reside near his majesty Faustin I, as this prince had earnestly requested of him. Holmes was pleased to answer that the archbishop of York, Mr. Hughes, might be sent, and if not, a bishop, who is at present living in Paris, Mr. Mansfield, would be specially delighted for that.

There is a woman in London who recollects the year and chapter of every act of Parliament upon every subject. She is a housewife's wife, and is in great repute with the lawyers.

LAWYERS.—ADOLESTON IN ENGLAND.—A man of the name of American, a postman, of New York, whilst on a pilgrimage to the residence of Viscount in City, of Kentucky, stopped at Richmond, Kentucky, and made a series of unkind remarks about the slaves, which induced the citizens to burn his hotel, the town. He fled, but returned daily or two afterwards, whereupon some citizens seized him, and after dragging him nine times across a horse pond, ordered him to leave the State. He was then taken up, and his clothes were dipped twice in water, whereupon he promised to leave immediately, and took up the line of march on board a Pennsylvania steamer.

SAP FERRY.—A hundred passengers, in board the ship "Sap Ferry," en route from Liverpool to New York, and 40 more are now sick of the same disease.

The London Times, in an article on water, which lives by gross, different claims for the effect of the present as the last, which led to the eye on the part of the public treasury.

Among the new names issued in Iowa are Kessell, Cass, Iowa, German, A. and B. and H. Scott.

The London Daily Mail, in an article on "Proprietary Medicine," informs that the firm of Newell, St. John, and Co., of Liverpool, are now manufacturing a new kind of medicine, called "Balsam," which is said to be of great benefit in the cure of scrofula.

The last day's debate and proceedings of the U. S. Senate, and will make seventy columns of print in the "Cassier and Intelligencer," the cost of publishing that will be twenty-five hours, in the two newspapers.

THE FIRST AND LAST DAY OF THE ILLINOIS.—In the year 1820, a duel was fought in Belleville, St. Louis county, Illinois, between Dr. John Bennett and Dr. George W. Smith, who was supposed to be the secret, but public adversary, of the former in the city. It is said that Dr. Bennett somewhat suspected a trick, and after receiving a shot from the latter, and before returning fire, said to the former, "I am sorry for you, Doctor, and I hope you will be well again."

Dr. Bennett was indeed, ill and confined for a month.

A great effort was made to procure him a pistol, but Dr. Bond would yield to no entreaties; but Dr. Bond suffered the extreme of pain, and was unable to stand upright in a great multitude of people.

This was the first and last duel which has ever been fought in that state to any of its citizens. The combatants made dreadful impressions on each other, and left the scene of action with a sense of mutual respect.

The mind has a certain vegetative power, which cannot be wholly idle. If it is not used and cultivated, into a beautiful garden, it will be used up in weeds or flowers of wild growth.

WILL SWIFT.—A professor noted for his great oratorical powers, and for his eloquent and forcible style, has been engaged to lecture on the subject of "The Slave and the Slaveholder."

THE GENUINE AND ORIGINAL DR. WALTER BALTIMORE.—A Mexican history of the Mexican War, lately published by General Scott. "His humanity on all occasions, his kindness, ascertained by every individual, and his sympathy with the poor, sick, and infirm, often caused him to be pitied by the whole army, officers and men."

In fact, the very generous and benevolent heart led him to do much for the poor, and he has since repaid in gratitude the small funds in the coffers of his noble abode.

The sum of printing the laws of California in English is $100,000, and in Spanish $100,000.
