

News Summary.

Some men who deserted from the 63rd battalion of Halifax, at the time it went to the North West have been dismissed. Samuel Carney & Co. of Montreal have brought suit against Bradstreet's agency for damages of $50,000, through the agency stating in a circular that the firm has asked their London creditors for an extension. H. H. Eaton, Q. C. has been appointed Revising Barrister for Halifax. The Orangemen of Phoenix lodge, L. O. L., Petrolia, intend celebrating Nov. 28th, at their hall, Petrolia. There will be a goose supper and afterwards an entertainment. The Daily Union of Charlottetown, P. E. Island, has suspended publication. Dr. Dow, an aged and respected physician of Upper Southampton, York county, dropped dead while plowing in the field on the 19th inst. His granddaughter saw him fall and ran to him, but he was quite dead. Mr. Brooks, some years ago, had a paralytic stroke. A Fredericton dispatch says: The Honorable A. G. Blair is ill with fever. Visitors have been denied admittance to his room, the doctor having ordered that he be kept perfectly quiet. One has been discovered at Trenton, near New Glasgow, on the Thompson property. Hon. Mr. Thompson was on the 16th, elected to the 20th in St. John. The New Civic Building in Summerside, which includes a market house, is nearly completed. The structure is of 12x40 feet and two stories high. A fire alarm bell is installed in a tower on the northern end of the building, and under it the engine house. Between 200 and 300 barrels of mackerel were caught in Bedford Basin on Saturday. One man took 100 barrels. It was a remarkable haul. Lunenburg has just purchased a Bonasi steam fire engine. It arrived there on Saturday last, and will be tested at an early day. A telephone wire was discovered that was laid by the engineer, Michael Davitt, speaking at Glasgow, said he feared that Irishman would vote against the Liberals in order to secure power. Mr. Davitt urged a union of the Irish with the Radicals. He promised Gladstone's past services and said he hoped the experiment would be made to secure national independence for Ireland. The North German Gazette refers with surprise to a report that Lord Salisbury insists that the Bulgarian union be sustained. There have been for some time rumors of French intrigue in Bumah, and now it is said that King Theban has granted valuable concessions to a French trading company, while grossly ill-treating the Bombay and British corporations. The king is evidently expecting French support. He is reported to have said that he would march at the head of his army against the English. The British man-of-war Bacchante, with Admiral Richard on board, has sailed from Zanzibar for Rangoon. The Bulgarian difficulty is still complicated and threatening to the peace of Europe. The Standard says England cannot approve, though she may need a settlement that disappoints the harmless wishes of Roumelia and Bulgaria, even should Russia insist upon and the powers acquiesce in deposing Prince Alexander, it is doubtful whether they would succeed without disturbing peace. The application of the Perle for the mandate of Europe to re-establish order in the Principality by the sword is disapproved by England. Greece is disappointed because the king's speech at the opening of the Chamber of Deputies rather threw a wet blanket on the war feeling. The Servians still clamor for rev. and Bulgaria says she is not afraid. The cavalry of the former has been ordered to the frontier, and troops from Philia popoli have arrived at Sofia, led by Prince Alexander. Gross outrages are charged against some of the Bulgarian outposts on the frontier of Adrianople. A furious winter spout burst Sunday in the vicinity of Carrara, Italy, and was followed by heavy floods. Roads and railways were torn up, and much property was destroyed. The Earl of Rosebery spoke at a reception in advocacy of a reform in the delegation and admission of representatives from the Colonies, or, if the people desired it, the total abolition of the House of Lords. Despatches from Rerignoux, capital of the Department of Dordogne, state that a frightful accident has occurred at the Chanoledun quarries, near the town. While a large body of workmen were engaged in taking out stone the quarries suddenly fell in, destroying a village situated on the ground above the stone pits, and killing a large number of persons. Many are buried in the ruins, and it is doubtful if any of them can be rescued in time. Lord Salisbury is confined to his room from a surgical operation on an abscess in his arm. No serious trouble is apprehended. Great enthusiasm prevails in Paris over the news of a French victory in Annam. Gen. De Courcy reports a decisive victory over great odds. The French loss was small. The enemy lost heavily. UNITED STATES. Over 30 wedding guests were poisoned at Honesdale, Pa., by eating potato ham. A Wilkesbarre, Pa., despatch of the 21st says: A terrific explosion of gas took place in No. 3 slope of the Delaware and Hudson coal company at Plymouth. The accident was caused by a miner who entered an abandoned portion of the slope marked dangerous with a naked lamp up on his head, thereby firing the gas. Four men were killed and 11 seriously, perhaps many of them fatally, injured. The potato crop of New York and the New England States is said to be fully one-third below the average. the Grayhound and a desperate fight ensued in which the other officers and passengers of the latter vessel were killed. The Grayhound put on a full head of steam and broke out. A great fire which broke out in Moscow, on the 21st, caused great loss. Eleven persons were killed and four injured. The question of the constitutionality of the liquor license act passed by the Dominion Parliament, will come before the judicial committee of the Privy Council, on the 11th November, in appeal from the judgment of the Canadian Supreme Court. Three thousand men, employed in the slate quarries of Llanberis, Wales, have been locked out because they committed a breach of the rule in holding a mass meeting during working hours. In the Venna Reichsrath the German party asked the president to call Count Taaf, Austrian premier, to order for accusing the opposition of importing race jealousy into the arena. The Germans threaten to withdraw from the Reichsrath unless satisfaction is given them. Sermons against disestablishment were preached by clergymen of the Church of England throughout England on Sunday. H. Rochford has published an article in the Liberator, defending the action of Louis Kiel, leader of the half-breed insurrection in the Northwest Territory, and attacking in a scurrilous manner Queen Victoria and the Prince of Wales. The latter part of the article has greatly angered the English colony in Paris and the best circles in French society. The Premier of Denmark, Herr Estrup, was the mark for a thrashing from one Roussauer, none of which took effect. The assassin claimed that he was acting for the good of the country. The law committee of the Privy Council have affirmed the Canadian Court's conviction of Bell. It is now said the British Parliament will be dissolved on the 18th November. The election campaign is growing quite warm. Chamberlain and Churchill are both Bumah spokesmen and the contest in Bournemouth is expected to be no glove contest. The Marquis of Lorne, who is Liberal candidate for Hampstead, was interrupted and assailed with rotten eggs, while speaking at Brentford, and the meeting broke up in a fight. Michael Davitt, speaking at Glasgow, said he feared that Irishman would vote against the Liberals in order to secure power. Mr. Davitt urged a union of the Irish with the Radicals. He promised Gladstone's past services and said he hoped the experiment would be made to secure national independence for Ireland. Deaths.

ATKINSON.—John, third son of Christopher Atkins, of Westcott, W. Co., was suddenly killed in a mysterious way at Frosty Hollow, on the 15th inst. In going down hill he fell off a wagon loaded with stovewood, and was found dead by the road. He was about 18 years of age, and generally beloved. May the Lord sustain the sorrowing friends. JOHNSON.—At his father's residence, Country Harbor, Oct. 14th, of consumption, Franklin Johnson, aged 22 years. At 12 years of age, he was hopelessly converted and united with the Baptist Church. He maintained a careful Christian deportment during his stay, which endeared him to all acquaintances. For several years he has made his home in the United States, and has been very successful in his mercantile pursuits. He was generally beloved. May the Lord sustain the sorrowing friends. ARTHUR.—At the Barrin, Roy Co., on the 14th of September, of diphtheria, in the eighth year of age, Henry S. Arthur, son of Charles and Phoebe Arthur. Beautiful in life and beautiful in death. FOWLES.—At Hampton, Oct. 21st, of membranous-croup, Kate H. Fowles, aged 1 year, daughter of Capt. B. G. and A. Fowles. BOWY.—At Teignmouth, Devonshire, England, on Monday, October 27th, 1885, Sarah, the devoted and beloved wife of Rev. John Brown ended her earthly pilgrimage, and entered her heavenly rest. HONEY.—At Tracy Mills, C. Co., on the 13th Oct., Deacon Henry A. Honey, aged 79 years and 6 months. He died in the triumph of faith. METAFELDA.—We are informed that Rev. Isaac Wallace baptized two rejoicing converts at Metafelda, in the Province of Quebec, on Saturday, 26th Oct., and that many others are seeking the Lord, and looking toward a public profession of faith in Christ, in that community. BROOKS.—At his home, at Upper Southampton, Bro. Dow Brooks, aged 80 years, died on Saturday, 26th Oct., and was buried on Sunday, 27th Oct., by the Rev. Wm. Knowles some thirty years ago. He contributed largely of his early substance to the support of the gospel, and his home was always a home for God's servants. He was a devoted stranger, and was ready to do every good work. In his own industrious man, and worked up to the very last moment of his departure, being found dead at his plough. By the death of our dear brother, his wife has lost a faithful husband, and the children a kind father. May God's rich grace sustain the bereaved ones, and may they ultimately form an unbroken family in the kingdom of heaven. His death was a large consolation of sorrowing friends, and to the last tribute of respect. The occasion was improved by Rev. Joseph Blakely. WOODSTOCK, Oct. 24th. VINCENT.—At Oulu's Island, Queen's Co., N. B., on the 15th October, in her 87th year, Mrs. Prudence Jane Vincent. Our sister was baptized in 1859, and soon after united with the 3rd Johnson Baptist church. Her family and the community love a warm, affectionate, friendly, and consistent Christian. A husband, one son and three daughters mourn her loss. Yet again we hope to meet thee, When the day of life is fled, Then in heaven with joy to greet thee, Where no farewell tear is shed. A late convert was called on Wednesday last, to attend the funeral of Annie, eldest daughter of our dear brother and sister—Rev. William and Grace Spencer, who met her death by drowning. On Monday afternoon, 19th inst., about three o'clock, she was in the lake, just back of her father's residence, where there was a boat, and attempting to get into the boat, or out of it, it cannot be told which, she fell into the water. Her screams were heard, but before assistance could be rendered, she had sunk. Her body was recovered about two hours later. She was in the fourteenth year of her age. May God sustain the afflicted family. L. B. GARRE.

The Epidemic of Crime.

Whence comes this epidemic of suicide and murder? Recent discussions have named several causes. Hon. C. H. Reeve, of Indiana, charges it to infidel teachings—holding that hopelessness of a future state cripples fortitude and suffering from the universal business depression the cause. A third writer attributes it to increasing insanity, a physician thinks much of the tendency is inherited, while temperance advocates lay the responsibility upon strong drink. Free-thinkers have committed suicide, but so have orthodox churchmen. Financial straits have been many, but the wealthy have also taken their life. Insanity and dissipation have preceded suicides and family murders. One feature common to almost every such crime challenges attention. Well nigh every report of suicide and family murder mentions the perpetrator as having for some time been subject to melancholy. Whence comes this? All recognized medical authorities tell us that the fire which consumes the brain is always kindled by derangements of digestion; that good digestion is impossible without pure blood, and pure blood is never known when the liver and kidneys are out of order. Under such circumstances, a preventive should be sought, and for this Warner's safe cure is sovereign—a fact conceded by the best authorities in the land, and it is especially recommended by the celebrated Dr. Dio Lewis.—Rochester Democrat.
