We know that Cod-liver Oil is a fat-forming food because takers of it gain rapidly in weight under its use and the whole body receives vital force. When prepared as in Scott's Emulsion, it is quickly and easily changed into the tissues of the body. As your doctor would say, "it is easily assimilated." Perhaps you are suffering from fat starvation. You take fat enough with your food, but it either isn't the right kind, or it isn't digested. You need fat prepared for you, as in Scott's Emulsion.

One of the current magazines has an elaborate treatise on genius and stature, in the course of which it is sought to show that men of genius are not, as a rule, of commanding stature. The effort to connect the two is a somewhat labored one, however. Someone once asked Mr. Lindsay how long a man's legs ought to be. He said: "That is a very serious question, and I have given much thought to it a great many times. Some should be longer and some shorter; but I want to tell you that a man's legs ought always to be long enough to reach from his body to the ground."

The Lord Chief Justice of England has astonished his countrymen by appearing on his bench without his wig and gown. The innovation appears to have been suggested by Lord Russell of Killowen, by considerations for his own personal comfort when the thermometer was up in the nineties. The old Tory bar is shocked, but the lord chief justice is relieved of considerable unnecessary perspiration.

Hunter was obliged to bring up the artillery before it was possible to carry the position. The total loss was twenty-one killed and sixteen wounded, of whom the tenth Soudanese battalion lost fourteen killed, among them two British officers and thirty-four wounded. A number of prisoners, arms, standards, camels and horses, with other property was taken. The inhabitants, as during the advance of the Dongoa expedition, have shown every kind of rejoicing at their deliverance from dervish oppression.

A frightful accident occurred at Moncton station, Saturday night about ten o'clock, by which Brakeman Nixon lost his life. Nixon was working on the shunter and got off his engine to look after the switch. The engine from the Shediac accommodation was going, tender first, to the round house, and Brakeman Nixon, who either did not notice its approach or thought it was on another track, was struck and the tender and one driving wheel passed completely over him. One leg was fearfully mangled, one arm broken and the fingers cut off. The lower part of his body was frightfully crushed, the bowels protruding and the heart and other vital organs exposed. Strange to say, he lived for about half an hour and was quite conscious for part of the time, answering questions.

Paine's Celery Compound The Popular Medicine With The People and the Medical Profession.

Only a truly great and effective remedy could continue, as Paine's Celery Compound has done, to hold its high place in the estimation of the ablest physicians and of the tens of thousands of busy men and women whose only means of judging is from the actual results in their own homes or among their friends. No remedy was ever so highly recommended, because no other ever achieved so many grand victories over disease and sickness.

For feeding exhausted nerves, building up the strength of the body, giving a natural and healthy appetite, and as a promoter of refreshing sleep, Paine's Celery Compound stands today without an equal in the world.

Mrs. Garland, 675 Crawford St., Toronto, gives her experience with the world's best medicine as follows:

"Your Paine's Celery Compound has most wonderfully improved my health. Before using it my appetite was poor—almost gone; I was also weak and debilitated, and suffered from pains in the head.

"Paine's Celery Compound does all that is claimed for it. I have recommended it to my friends, and they all speak highly of the results received from it. I wish Paine's Celery Compound the success it so richly deserves."
