Albert Co. Quarterly Meeting.

The [day was beautiful and the representation from the churches was good. We had Rev. J. W. Brown from Havelock, Rev. H. V. Davies of Salisbury, Rev. A. T. Robinson of Sackville, Rev. N. A. McNeill of Pettitcodiac, from the Westmorland County quarterly meeting. We were all delighted to see our dear old brother Rev. Isa. Wallace and to hear him as well. From the conference led by Rev. Milton Addison, to the close of the Sunday School convention the interest was deep and powerful. The reports from the churches showed a progress all along the line. The sermon in the evening by Rev. M. E. Fletcher was a strong and touching discourse, appealing to the heart as well as the head, and will be productive of great good. The evangelistic service under the direction of Rev. Isaiah Wallace brought quite a number to their feet for prayers, and the whole service was a great blessing.

Wednesday dawned cloudy and proved to be rather unfavorable so far as the weather was concerned. But the people came if it did rain. The interest did not abate, and when Rev. N. A. McNeill rose to read his paper on the subject, "The Obligation of the Church to give the Gospel to the Whole World," there was a fine congregation present. I will not make any comment on this paper as Bro. McNeill was asked to furnish the MESSENGER AND VISITOR with a copy for publication, you will probably have an opportunity to read it for yourself. Dr. Brown followed in an eloquent address along the line of paper read. Revs. A. T. Robinson, Isaiah Wallace and F. D. Davidson also spoke to the subject of discussion.

I am not supposed to report the Sunday School convention, but it was run by the same men and in the same spirit. Dr. Brown taught a lesson which was very much enjoyed. The evening found a good congregation and a splendid meeting. Rev. A. T. Robinson was the first speaker. His subject was "The Church and the Sunday School." He held the congregation's close attention and we were all delighted with this splendid address. Rev. N. A. MacNeill was the next speaker. His subject was "The Necessity of Instruction in the Home." It was a grand address right from the heart to the heart. The choir rendered some fine selections of music. Mrs. Tingley sang a solo and Messrs. McNeill and Davidson a duet. We enjoyed our visiting brethren very much and hope they will come again. A brother remarked at the close: "If your quarterlies are all like this I will surely attend them after this." The next quarterly will be at Baltimore.

F. D. DAVIDSON, Sec'y-Treas.

IT'S THE TRUTH

Tell a man it's a food and he doesn't want to pay for it. Tell him it's a medicine and he says it doesn't look like it. Then tell him it's both a food and a medicine and he thinks you're playing some game on him.

Yet these are the facts about Scott's Emulsion of pure cod-liver oil. It is the cream of cod-liver oil, the richest and most digestible of foods. The food for weak stomachs. The food for thin bodies and thin blood.

But that's only half the story. Scott's Emulsion is also a good medicine. It gives new life and vigor to the whole system and especially to the lungs.

We'll send you a little to try, if you like.

STORIES OF AMERICAN LIFE
By OWEN WISTER

SKOOKUM SMITH AND FRISCO BALDY is the title of the next story in the series that Mr. Wister is now writing for this magazine. Skookum and Frisco are friends of The Virginian, and are the heroes of some surprising adventures.

By WILL PAYNE
TALES OF BLUE RIDGE: Six independent stories, which follow the rising fortunes of a printer's devil, and show how success and fame were won in the early days of the West.

By GEORGE ADE
TALES OF A COUNTRY TOWN: Only a humorist like George Ade could find a village boasting six characters with histories as plausible, and yet as absurdly funny, as those told in this series.

By EMERSON HOUGH
THE LAW AT HEART'S DESIRE: Tells how Justice first got a foothold in a little mining town and how her champion, Dan Anderson, secured the acquittal of his friend Curly, at whose door was laid the sudden death of a pig.

By F. Hopkinson Smith
Another popular contributor to the magazine is Mr. F. Hopkinson Smith. His next tale, entitled A POINT OF HONOR, is a clever, humorous story, which centres around a French duel over an absurd misunderstanding.

Personal.

We learn that Rev. J. H. Balcom has resigned the pastorate of the North Brookfield church and is now open to a call from any pastorless church that may need his services. Brother Balcom is an earnest, devoted and self-sacrificing pastor, and will do good faithful work wherever he may be called. We hope that some good church may secure him speedily.

COWAN'S PERFECTION Cocoa.

It makes children healthy and strong.

Dear Sirs.—I have been a great sufferer from rheumatism, and lately have been confined to my bed. Seeing your MINARD'S LINIMENT advertised, I tried it and got immediate relief. I ascribe my restoration to health to the wonderful power of your medicine.

GATES'

Life of Man Bitters

is what you need to recuperate and fortify your system against the trying fluctuations of temperature of the winter season. The system which is unfortified against the rigor of our northern climate will succumb to colds and coughs or grip, which may lead to consumption and decline.

Nothing Will Be Found

superior to the "Life of Man" as a recuperative agent. It strengthens the organs to better withstand the winter cold, and builds up the whole system. This fact was fully verified many years ago. Hence people now use Gates' Bitters preferably to any other.
