Savory Tomato Soup .-- Finely chop two medium-sized onions and put them in a saucepan with two ounces of butter and a tablespoonful of minced parsley; and a little salt and pepper, and three new boiled potatoes; and half a cup of string beans, chopped fine; also half a cup of cooked or canned green peas. Simmer about ten minutes then add a can of very ripe tomatoes. Add a tablespoonful of sugar, a pinch of ground cloves, more salt if required and a little cayenne. Cook gently for half an hour, then rub through a fine sleeve. Return to the oven and thicken with a teaspoonful of butter rubbed to a paste with a teaspoonful of cornstarch. Serve very hot with tiny sippets of fried or toasted bread.-Ex.

Broiled Eggs .- Cut slices of bread, toast them lightly, trim the edges, and lay them on a dish before the fire, with some bits of butter placed on top. When this melts, break and spread carefully six or eight eggs on the toast. Have ready a salamander, or hot shovel to brown the top, and, when the eggs are sufficiently done, squeeze an orange and grate some nutmeg over them.-Ex.

Eggs a la Creme.-Hard boil twelve eggs; slice them in rings. In the bottom of a large baking dish place a layer of grated bread s, then one of the eggs; cover with crumbs bits of butter and sprinkle with pepper and salt. Continue thus to bend these ingredients until the dish is full, be sure, though, that the crumbs cover the eggs upon the top. Over the whole pour a teacupful of sweet cream, and brown nicely in a moderately heated oven .-- Ex.

Eggs a l'Italienne. Break seven or eight eggs into a saucepan, with a bit of butter in Add the juice of a lemon, a tablespoonful of water, enough pounded sugar to make them decidedly sweet, a pinch of salt, and any approved flavoring, as orange flower water or curacoa. Then proceed exactly as with scrambled eggs. When they are set without being hard, pile them on a hot dish, dust them well with sugar, and candy it a little either under a salamander or with a red hot fire shovel .--- Ex.

Eggs a la Marein .-- Have ready a dish that should be like a deep, ordinary soup plate without the wide rim. It is easy enough to find plenty such at any store. Have it heated, but not too hot. Put into a small saucepan a teaspoonful of butter. Let it melt but be careful that it does not brown. Then add a teaspoonful of flour, or more, if it is preferred thicker, and then very slowly, after the flower is well mingled, a cup of milk of cream. Then add four tablespoonfuls of grated cheese. Stir well, and when thoroughly heated, pour into the dish you have ready. and with great care, so as to keep the shape drop into the mixture four eggs. The ordin ary dish will hold about four eggs, and look well, but it may be possible to find large ones. Put at once into the oven, and when the eggs are set, serve at once. A few bits of parsley make the dish look more in-

Egg Timbales .-- Butter small tin moulds. and dust them with powdered parsley ; then an egg is dropped in each, and they are put in a pan of hot water and cooked in the oven for about ten minutes, when they may be turned out on a round platter, and a sauce made of a cup of thickened cream with chop ped mushrooms in it, or a tomato sauce with the mushrooms may be poured around them. These timbales may be altered by lining the molds with finely minced ham instead of the tin. The egg is put in and the sauce used as before .- Ex.

CLEANING LACE CURTAIN. In cleaning lace curtains first shake them free of dust. Then mend any torn pieces or st. John, N B bobbinct. which has been basted under the tear. Pieces of old curtains should be saved for just such a purpose, but if necessary new bobbinet may be purchased by the yard. Wash the curtains in warm suds, squeezing and laying between the hands, but not rubbing on washboards. Then they may be boiled, rinsed, blued, starched lightly, while still wet, and dried as quickly as possible. Dip the oldest curtains first, for these will thin out the starch, and give it a better con sistency for the other.

If ecru curtains bleach in washing they can be restored by dipping in a bath of strong coffee which has been diluted with water. This must be done, of course, before they are starched, and no bluing.

Be careful in affixing scallop to stretchers that each one is caught with a pin or if you skip some of them do so at regular intervals It is also best to attach them in pairs: then the scallops of two curtains are pinned together, which simplifies hanging them even ly afterward.

Real lace draperies must be handled care fully. Fine meshes sometimes tear if pulled on stretchers, and such curtains had better be stretched upon a sheet stretched on the

When pinned go over the curtain with a soft damp cloth, to remove traces of starch. This will give the drageries the appearance of being quite new.

THAT BOY OF YOURS.

We chaperon our girls and carefully guard them against unworthy boys, but we leave the boy to choose for himself his associates and his achievements. Girls are naturally winsome, gentle com panionable. They win their way in homes and hearts. But the boy, noisy, awkward, mischievous. is invited into few homes and feels none too much at home in his ow

About the only door that swings with sure become to the boy, about the only chain that is shoved near the fire especially for the boy, about the only place where he is sure of cordial greeting, is where he ought not to go

It is one of the hardest things in the world to get hold of a boy-to get a sure grip on him

He is hungry for companionship and he will have it. You can't chains him away from it. He wants the companionship of boys, and nothing will take its place.

If the rime of selfishness has so incased your heart that the joys and hopes of your boy cannot enter into it, the boy is to be pitied; but so are you .- Milwaukee Journal
