"PERSONALITY" IS RAE
BALL'S MIDDLE NAME
Charming Violinists again at Imperial Theatre — A splendid show.

Rae Eleanor Ball seems to improve with each recurring visit to St. John, at least such was the criticism of a resident competent to judge after hearing the young lady play at Imperial Theatre last evening. Miss Ball, since her last appearance on the Keith stage here, has travelled as far as Frisco and return, playing in all the important mid-west and coast-west cities on both sides of the boundary. This indicates the demand for her work and her work is nowadays confined to what is known in show life as "big time", in other words the most important houses where the prices run as high as $2 per seat. It is more particularly for vacation purposes that the Cleveland lady accepts engagements in St. John.

Truly Miss Ball's musical last evening was a rare delight. She opened it with Sarasate's brilliant number "Caprice Basque." This is new to St.
John and the treatment it received at the hands of the performer set a high standard for succeeding violinists using the same selection. Then followed a mixture of popular airs, the prominent numbers being "Moonlight on the River," and "If We Can't Be Sweethearts We'll Be Friends Just the Same." Of course there was a very insistent demand for more and Miss Ball was forced to return to the stage and render "My Own Kentucky Home" and "Coming Thro' the Rye" with that dash and unique effect characteristic to her style of playing and her own catchy interpretations of popular numbers.

It is not often a motion picture receives loud applause upon its conclusion, but such was the compliment accorded "The Little Deceiver," an Essay drama shown as the quint story of the Imperial's picture bill. Elna Mayo essayed the role of the fictitious "boy" and in the final act upon resuming her real girlish attire, demonstrating her wonderful versatility.
Lillian Walker was the chief figure in a pretty little Vitaphone comedy entitled "The Love Whip" and the Animated Woodys combined among other unusually good news features some splendid views of Kitchener's wonderful army and also of Lord Kitchener himself when making his appeal for more recruits.

Tomorrow and Thursday the Charles Froham estate will present William H.
Crane in his renowned characterization of David Harum, the homely rural story by Edward Noyes Westcott. Most everyone knows this quaint story of New England life from having read it in book form or possibly seen the stage version. Now that it is going to be shown in motion pictures, it is within the reach of everybody, rich and poor, and those who miss the opportunity of enjoying it, will have little excuse.

CHARLIE CHAPLIN IN A FEMALE ROLE

The Unique Theatre has a programme which excels in humor — It gets the crowd too.

Of all the roles he has portrayed possibly Chap. has never been seen to such advantage as in "The Masqueraders" now being shown at the Unique, where he appears as the leading lady of a burlesque company.
The action of the comedy takes place "behind the scenes" with Chaplin getting mixed up in make-up boxes, set-scenery and properties of all descriptions. In his fun making he is assisted by Chester Conklin and "Fatty." The famous trio certainly make things hum throughout the entire run of the subject.

As a lady Chaplin excels, his acting being funny in the extreme, while he also displays some elaborate gowns.
His work at the make-up table, when with the assistance of the "grease" and powder he discards his far-famed moustache and is seen in all the fair beauty of a member of the gentler sex is great. The scenes wherein he endeavors to assist the stage manager cannot help but be laughable even to the most sedate. "The Masquerader" is certainly a funny comedy.

Of dramatic interest is the two-part special Broncho feature "Justice" particularly good. In this the leading roles are essayed by Walter Edwards, who is seen as the redeemed crook, and Miss Elsie Williams as the wife of the judge. The rendition of the role portrayed by Mr. Edwards is a dramatic triumph and he shows up to advantage in the court room scenes when he confesses to a crime laid at the door of another.

To vary the Gaiety's Gramophone play means the demand and supplies many interesting scenes from the war zone as well as other topics, representing the latest happenings from all parts of the world.

For the mid-week programme the Reliance Co. will hold feature place in presenting the bold play, "At the Bottom of Things."

ROBERT EDISON AND STAR CAST AT LYRIC

"The Absentee" proved strong drawing card yesterday—Vaudeville features of merit.

Taking as a theme the trials and difficulties which beset successful business man in his search for pleasure and happiness after attaining prosperity, Wm. Cabanne and Frank E. Woods have presented a motion picture production which for unique construction and vital interest has seldom been equalled. "The Absentee," as shown at the Lyric Theatre yesterday, deals with the forces of life in a natural manner, convincing in every respect and at all times compelling in the message it so well conveys. The fact that Robt. Edeson plays the leading role in the story enhances its interest greatly but the main thread of the story itself is of such universal importance that one cannot help but be impressed.

The first act of really the prologue, is utilized to present an allegorical introduction to the modern story. It is most attractive to watch the development of the main plot after seeing the same characters in the introductory chapter, for the story proper is an elaboration of the theme exploited in the prologue, and the modernization presents numerous opportunities to create unusual interest.

The strike riots, the patrol of the militia are handled with an excellent understanding of dramatic construction.

The acting of the piece represents the acme of the pantomime art. Mr.
Edeson plays the absentee with that naive yet pleasing manner which has endured him to the hearts of all lovers of good screen acting. He is ably supported by a select cast of star players, the ladies being particularly good.
The costumes and settings are indeed worthy of the story and acting, and in the five acts the interest does not deteriorate an instant. It is rather difficult to give the story in detail, but if one cannot help but be appreciated.

Billie Goldie, known as the dancing youngster, is the vaudeville feature, and his act is one of snap and go from start to finish. It is doubtful if a more artistic dancer has ever been seen at the Lyric.

The same programme will be repeated today with a complete change on Thursday.

WEDDINGS.

A very pretty wedding was solemnized on Thursday afternoon, at Knox Presbyterian church, when Miss Ellen Baird, daughter of I. C. Baird, of St. John's, Newfoundland, and granddaughter of the late James Baird, became the wife of Burnham L. Mitchell, of the Royal Bank of Canada, Montreal.
The ceremony was conducted by the Rev. I. A. Montgomery.

The bride, who was given away by G. S. C. Sara, was robed in white satin with lace train and veil, and carried a shower of white flowers.
The groom wore a tuxedo, Miss Dalla Baird, who was attired in a frock of pink chiffon and carried sweet peas.
Blake McInerney was groomsmen.
A reception, which was attended by many of the friends of both bride and groom, was later held at the residence of Mr. Sara at Sussex avenue. Among the relatives present from out of town was the bride's mother, Mrs. I. C.
Baird, of St. John's, Newfoundland.
Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell have gone to Quebec, thence they are leaving on a motor tour through Maine and New Brunswick.

Newcastle, Aug. 16—A very pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Thurber, "The Pines," Millerton, Saturday morning, at 10, when their daughter, Miss Marion Jean, was married to Charles Avard White, son of Mr. J. White, Shediac. The bride was charmingly gowned in ivory charmesue satin and carried a bouquet of white flowers.
Ruth Thurber and Margurita Cash of New York, Mr. Chas. Stothart of Newcastle supported the groom. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Tully Montgomery.

After a wedding breakfast to the many guests, the wedding party proceeded to Derby Jet, where Mr. and Mrs. White took the train en route to P. E. I. where they will spend their honeymoon and reside.

MILKING RECORDS OF PURE BRED COWS

Federal Department of Agriculture has issued an interesting report on testing.

Nine years ago the Live Stock Branch of the Federal Department of Agriculture, in co-operation with certain record associations representing breeds of dairy cattle, began to record the performance of pure bred milking cows. Each record association agreed upon a standard of yield for cows of its respective breed to qualify for registration, while the Live Stock Commissioner formulated regulations under which the tests were to be carried out. At the end of each year a report of the work has been issued, containing a list of the animals that qualified for registration during the year, their breed, age, ownership, milking period, production of milk and fat and such other information as might reasonably be looked for in an official report.
Each year the work has increased until the seventh report, just issued contains no less than 152 pages of information. During the year 413 cows qualified for registration, including 196 Holsteins, 123 Ayrshires, 35 Jerseys, 9 Guernseys, 14 French Canadians and 36 Shorthorns. The highest records made were: Shorthorn, 15,345 lbs. milk, 940 lbs. fat; French Canadian, 10,767 lbs. milk, 453 lbs. fat; Guernsey, 11,445 lbs. milk, 529 lbs. fat; Holstein, 23,717 lbs. milk, 834 lbs. fat; Jersey, 15,211 lbs. milk, 754 lbs. fat; Ayrshire, 16,896 lbs. milk, 729 lbs. fat.

This report for the second time contains an appendix containing the records of cows which produced sufficient milk and fat to qualify for registration but failed to calve within fifteen months after the commencement of the test, as required by the regulations.
This report is of special interest to dairy farmers who are anxious to build up the milking qualities of their herds. Copies will be sent to those who apply for them to the Publications Branch of the Department of Agriculture at Ottawa.

Band Concert.
One of the largest crowds of the season was on the King Square last night and listened with interest to an excellent programme of music furnished by the St. Mary's Band under the able direction of Bandmaster Charles H.
Williams. The programme was selected and was admirably rendered by the musicians.

RED CROSS SOCIETY DOING GOOD WORK

Many more people become interested in activities — Donations gratefully acknowledged.

At a meeting of the local Red Cross Society yesterday afternoon eight hundred and fifteen garments were reported sent in during the first week of August; 853 pairs of socks were received, of which 200 were donated by the Lancaster Circle. A letter was read acknowledging two pairs of socks sent for the occupants of the Clarence D. Robinson bed in the Cliveden Hospital. The Main street Circle report splendid work done. Every bit of material used was paid for with money raised by the energetic body of workers in that circle. Nine Red Cross boxes were sent off in the last two weeks, and a box containing two hundred pounds of assorted gaudy bangles was also sent.
