McMURCHY.—On Friday. October 24, 1919, to Mr. and Mrs. Dan, McMur chy, Broderick, Sask., a daughter— Norma Cameron.

cember 4, 1918:

Our heads are drooped in sorrow Since our dear one went away; But to God's will we must submit, And so we humbly say God picked the lovely flower. He wanted her that day To dwell among the angels, So he took our Lila May.

Nineteen years ago we took out a twenty-year endowment policy, says an exchange. When it matures, next year, the face of the policy will buy us a pair of shoes, ten gallons of gasoline, a cord tire and a pair of theatre tickets. Twenty years ago we thought it would buy us a house, a new bicycle, a meerschaum pipe, a corduroy waist-coat and a trip around the world.

James McLear, a C. P. R. fireman of London, was seriously hurt while running between St. Thomas and Woodstock on Saturday night. The roof of a box car, torn loose by the windstorm, crashed through the window of the engine cab, striking him on the head? He was rushed to the hospital and will likely recover. Mr. McLear is a nephew of James Corbett of Mosa and is well known here.

After Three Years of Suffering, "FRUIT-A-TIVES" Brought Relief

MADAME HORMIDAS FOISY

624 Champlain St., Montreal.

"For three years, I was ill and from Kidney Trouble and Liver Disease My health was miserable and nothing in the way of medicine did me any good. Then I started to use 'Fruit-a-tives' and the effect was remarkable.

I began to improve immediately and this wonderful fruit medicine entirely restored me to health. All the old pains, headaches, indigestion and constipation were relieved and once more

To all who suffer from Indigestion, Constipation, Rheumatic Pains or great Fatigue, I advise the use of 'Fruit-a-tives'."
