

THE ACADIAN.

WOLFVILLE, N. S., MAY 14, 1915.

Editorial Brevities.

Many incomes may be augmented by cultivating the back yard. A penny saved is a penny earned.

Vegetables fresh from the garden are a luxury only appreciated by those who cultivate their own back yard or the vacant lot.

If farmers paid more attention to their seed and seed bed in the spring they would have greater reason for celebrating Thanksgiving Day in the autumn.

Drive the fly from its entrenched position by cleaning up and disinfecting its breeding places—the garbage can, the privy pit and the exposed manure pile.

Japan's insistence has won from China commercial, industrial and other concessions that will make Japan the dominant power in the Flower Kingdom. China, powerless to resist, and shut off by the war from outside assistance, had no recourse but to yield. Many fear that what Japan has now done will cause much trouble in the future.

A subscriber writes: 'I have not been sleeping well lately and concluded there must be some cause, and in meditating, found that my subscription to THE ACADIAN had not been paid for 1915.' This is good news to the editor of this paper and it is to be hoped that this subscriber will now enjoy the peace that an easy conscience allows. At the same time, it cannot but come to mind that there must be an awful lot of insomnia in some sections of this district.

A Maine judge, after disposing of forty uncontested divorce cases in two days, wearily announced that he had done enough, and that the remaining twenty or thirty cases on the docket could stand until the October term. As Maine's liberal divorce laws are frequently taken advantage of by provincialists and other non-residents, the court record exaggerates domestic conditions, and as number of divorces granted for habitual drunkenness exaggerates the drinking evil in that prohibition State. Making liberal allowances for non-resident appeals, the divorce record in Maine is nevertheless an appalling one.

If there is anyone in Canada who is not bearing some share of the burden of a wide world war, in which the very life and fabric of our empire and dominion are at stake, he is not worthy of the name he bears or of the country of which he is a citizen. There must be few in Canada who are not doing something, but there are some who could do more. The cries of wounded and suffering men come out to us in the darkness and call upon us to help. Can we turn a deaf ear to them in their hour of victory and death? We must deny ourselves everything if necessary, in order that our country may be victorious. All of us cannot fight, all cannot bear the actual blast of war but all can do something, however little it may be, for the cause of mercy and humanity.

A law has been passed in the State of Massachusetts under which destitute parents may call upon their children to support them. Such a law should be made universal. There have been cases in Nova Scotia where parents died in the poorhouse who had children well able to care for them. Under the Massachusetts law, 'any person above the age of twenty one years who, being possessed of sufficient means, unreasonably neglects or refuses to provide for the support and maintenance of his parents, whether father or mother, when such parents through misfortune and without fault of their own are destitute of means of sustenance, and unable by reason of old age, infirmity or illness to support or maintain himself or herself, shall be punished by a fine not exceeding $200, or imprisonment for not more than one year or by both fine and imprisonment.'

The Monetary Times is well satisfied with Canadian business prospects at the present time. Dealing with the subject in its latest issue, the Monetary Times says:—'Nine months of war have shown how many of the business fears of last August were groundless. Then, Canadian business and finance almost threw up hands in despair, the despair largely of predicted future events rather than of existing facts. With a great effort, business kept its head but towards fall, commenced to worry again about what bad things might happen after the Christmas trade had passed. The prophets of pessimism having proved wrong again, persisted and forecasted poor spring business. After nine months of war, and keeping always in mind that the country was due for a drastic economic readjustment, Canada is rapidly assuming a healthy condition.'

Battleship Goliath Torpedoed in Dardanelles.

(Special despatch to THE ACADIAN.) LONDON, MAY 13TH—Winston Churchill, First Lord of the Admiralty, announced in the House of Commons to-day that the British battleship Goliath had been sunk by torpedoes in the Dardanelles. Probably 300 men lost, including 30 officers. 160 were saved.

The Maritime Provinces.

Mrs. Ruth Kedzie Wood, the author of tourist's books on California, Russia, Spain and Portugal, is adding another to her long list of guides this spring with 'The Tourist's Maritime Provinces.' This well arranged book covers some of the most picturesque travelling regions and at the same time the most little known of our continent. Halifax, the Land of Evangeline, New Brunswick, Nova Scotia, Prince Edward Island, these contain a great number of quaint, picturesque, out-of-the-way places well worth visiting in a comparatively compact space. In addition Mrs. Wood has included special chapters on the Gaspé Shore, Newfoundland and Labrador, and the Miquelon Islands. These latter islands, south of Newfoundland, are the last of the once vast possessions of France in North America. The life there is essentially French in every particular. St. Pierre Miquelon, the capital, being a bit of Brittany gone adrift. The special features of Newfoundland are its bold coast scenery and its great game barrens and salmon streams, while the section of the maritime provinces on the shores of the Bay of Chaleur and the Gulf of St. Lawrence comprise some of the most remarkable scenery on the Atlantic coast. Mrs. Wood spent five months in sight seeing and preparing for her new book, and she says that the travelling covered by her special chapters that have been mentioned entailed the most rugged journeying of the five months trip.

In recognition of her valuable contributions to the literature of travel this author, Mrs. Ruth Kedzie Wood has just been made a Fellow of the Royal Geographical Society.

Help Wolfville by Resolving:

That you will keep so busy boosting that you won't have time to knock. That you will vote, talk and work for a bigger, better, brighter town. That you will help to make this a good town so that the town can make good. That you will increase the value of your property by improving its appearance. That you will say something good about this town every time you write a letter. That you will invest your money here where you made it and where you can watch it.

That you will not point out the town's defects to a stranger nor fail to point them out to a neighbor. That you will keep your premises cleaned up and your buildings repaired as a matter of both pride and profit. That you will brag about this town so much that you will have to work for this town in order to keep from being a liar. That you will take half a day right now to pick up the odds and ends around the place and turn them into either use, money or ashes. That you will contribute as much money as you can afford and as much enthusiasm as anybody to any movement to develop the town's resources. That you will make friends with the farmers, if a town man, or with the town folks, if a farmer, and help work together for the good of the community of which this town is the centre.

Clean Up Day.

Now, let us give the war a rest, the rout, the siege, the rally, and gaily shed our coat and vest and go and clean the alley! Let's gather up the dogs and cats that have this life departed, and let tin cans and tacks and hats off to the dump be carted. In winter you may voice your views which you believe important, and base long sermons on the news, but in the spring you ortn't. Then every able bodied man should whoop the 'Clean Up' slogan, and chase the old tomato can, the cast off hat and brogan. So let us clear our bulging brows of trifling thoughts and narrow, and gather up the old dead cows, and work the rake and harrow. The rubbish left by careless men, and lazy human cheeses, will bring a host of germs again, and they'll bring punk diseases. And forty billion flies will come with many microbes soaring, and round our weary heads they'll hum and keep us busy roasting. Clean up! Clean up! On every block let all the workers rally! Let no one stand around and talk until he's cussed his alley.

How to Care for Your Complexion.

There is no truer saying than that "beauty is only skin deep." Good features lose their charm under a sallow or blotchy skin and poor features are glorified by a beautiful complexion. A very useful toilet booklet entitled "Your Complexion" has just been issued by Nyl's and contains many helpful hints and beauty hints, including proper methods of massage. It can be had for the asking at the Nyl's Agency Drug Store and you should call or telephone for it. Among other things it points out in that diet, sleep, ventilation, and a thousand other things we cannot escape are continually warring against our complexion. Get a 50c jar of Nyl's Face Cream and convince yourself of its cleaning and refreshing and beautifying qualities. It is greaseless, oxygenated and quickly absorbed by the skin, leaves no shine, and gives a pleasant, smooth, cool sensation, quickly removing the irritation produced by wind and weather. All Nyl's preparations are justly famous and none more so than Nyl's Face Cream which we unhesitatingly recommend. Call or telephone us for your copy of this book which contains most valuable information.

The Kings Co. Temperance Alliance.

At the annual meeting of the Kings County Temperance Alliance, which was held at Forresters' Hall, Berwick, May 4th, the following officers were elected:

President, E. B. Newcombe; Vice-President, Dr. H. Chipman; Secretary, F. H. Beals; Treasurer, W. E. Porter.

Executive Committee: The officers together with Messrs. C. A. Campbell, C. C. Cogswell, N. W. Eaton, B. O. Davidson, Ira L. Cox, C. I. Wolfe, S. B. Chute, S. V. Sanford, Geo. Hutchison, N. I. Bowley, F. H. Northrup, Rev. J. D. Spidell and Rev. A. Saunders. The report of the executive was enthusiastically discussed by President Newcombe, Rev. H. R. Grant, Dr. H. Chipman, Rev. A. H. Saunders, Rev. A. W. Robbins, C. I. Wolfe, S. B. Chute, John Chute, Dr. A. Chipman, James Northrup, B. H. Lee, E. C. Bishop and others, and finally passed. In view of the possibility of an election in the near future, the principles of the Alliance touching its relation to the nomination of candidates, were reaffirmed, namely: (1) The purpose of the Alliance, so far as political action is concerned, is to have the civic affairs of the country carried on by good men, especially such as are favorable to the prohibition of the liquor traffic. (2) 'In making our influence felt, we have no desire to interfere with political parties only when, and in so far as, they stand in the way of the purpose of the Alliance.' (3) 'The policy of the Alliance shall be to refrain from putting candidates in the field, until forced to do so by the neglect or refusal of one or both of the regular parties to nominate men in agreement with our purpose.' In agreement with this statement it was resolved to send a communication to the Liberal and Conservative Associations asking them to nominate suitable candidates, and a committee was appointed to act with the Secretary in framing such communication.
