

INTERPRETATION :—

“ of contracts, when ambiguous, according to usage. . . .	1016
“ “ customary clauses supplied though not expressed.	1017
“ “ one clause by another.	1018
“ “ in cases of doubt, in favor of the debtor.	1019
“ “ extent of general clauses.	1020
“ “ in the case of special provision for particular cases.	1021
“ of laws.	11, 12
“ of certain expressions.	17
“ of wills.	2
INTERROGATORIES, upon articulated facts.	1246
“ upon decisory oath, or suppletory oath.	“
“ previous to interdiction.	330
INTERRUPTION (of prescription,) is natural or civil.	2222
“ natural, what is.	2223
“ by judicial demand.	2224
“ not caused by extra-judicial demand.	“
“ not caused by demand before judge without jurisdiction.	2225
“ ceases in certain cases.	2226
“ ceases by recognition of the right.	2227
“ against principal, avails against surety, and vice versa	2228
“ renunciation of prescription by one does not interrupt that of others interested.	2229
“ in favor of one of joint and several creditors avails as regards the others.	2230
“ the same rule as regards heir when the obligation is indivisible.	“
“ but not when debt is divisible.	“
“ against one of joint and several debtors avails against the others.	2231
“ the same rule applies as regards heirs when the debt is indivisible.	“
“ against a debtor does not affect another holder.	“
“ against one of several holders of undivided property avails as regards the others.	“
“ action in.	2057
INTERVENTION, of creditors in actions for separation of property.	1316
“ of vendor to warrant his buyer.	2062
INTERVERSION of title in matters of hypothec.	2048
“ “ in cases of prescription.	2205
INVENTORY, in matters of succession :—See SUCCESSIONS.
“ failure to make, gives minor children a right to claim the continuation of the community.	1323
“ formalities of.	1324, 1325
“ not required in certain cases.	1343, 1354