Field Notes.

THE Annual Report for 1891-92 is now complete, and the work of shipping to the various Circuits will begin almost immediately. The work will be done as rapidly as possible, but weeks will elapse before it can be entirely completed.

THE income for the past year was the largest in the history of the Society, and came within $700 of the quarter million line. It must be said, however, that a large item in the total was derived from legacies, which will doubtless show a heavy falling off this year, hence a general and enthusiastic effort will be necessary to prevent shrinkage and to carry the fund a safe distance beyond the quarter million limit.

WE venture again to press the great importance of an early date for missionary meetings. With very few exceptions they might just as well as not be held before the holidays, and the money be in the treasurer's hands very soon afterwards. Try it.

REV. J. C. SIDEY, of Red Bay, Labrador, writes as follows:—"Kindly allow me to acknowledge with many thanks the receipt of five dollars as 'a widow's mite.' This is the first and only subscription that we have received as yet. No doubt the great fire in St. John's has claimed the first place in the sympathy of the children of our Father in the provinces. As it is useless to expect help from our own people in the fallen city, upon whom we largely depend, we trust that our efforts to raise a place of worship in this isolated part will not be entirely forgotten."

THE LATE MRS. DR. KILBORN.

WE have to thank our friends for the hearty support the MISSIONARY OUTLOOK has received during the past, and as we try to make each succeeding number surpass the former, we are confident the circulation will continue to increase. New subscribers ordering during October and November will receive the November and December numbers of this year free. Terms, single copies, 40 cents a year; clubs of 8 copies and upwards, 25 cents.

The Missionary Review of the World for October has the following departments, which are fully sustained:—"Literature of Missions," "International Department," "Department of Christian Endeavor," "Editorial Notes on Current Topics," "Monthly Concert of Missions," "General Missionary Intelligence." Funk & Wagnalls Company, Publishers, New York, and Richmond Street West, Toronto, Ont.
