

"Itasca," U. S. ship under Farragut in the Mississippi, 419 et seq.
 Ito, Admiral, Japanese commander-in-chief at battle of Yalu River, 1894, 207; transfers his flag to the "Hasidate," 220.

J.

Jackson, Fort, bombarded by Admiral Farragut's fleet, 1862, 419.
 "Jamaica," British ship at battle of Copenhagen, 16.
 "Jamestown," Confederate gunboat 343.
 "Janus," British gunboat in attack on Taku Forts, 405.
 "Jean-Bart," French ship, squadron of Rear-Admiral Willaumez, 1899, grounds on the Pailen Shoal, 104.
 "Jemmapes," French ship, squadron of Rear-Admiral Willaumez, 1899, 104, 125.
 Johnston, Captain, commands Confederate ship "Tennessee" in battle of Mobile Bay, 434.
 Jones, John Paul, American naval commander, 303.
 Jones, Lieutenant, commands British ship "Lee" in attack on Taku Forts, 410.
 Jones, Lieutenant, second in command of Confederate ship "Merimac," 336; succeeds to command of the ship, 348 et seq.
 Ju Chang Ting, Admiral, commands Chinese fleet, 1894, 206.
 "Jupiter," French ship, squadron of Rear-Admiral Leisselgues, 1895, 94; at San Domingo, 1897, 99.

K.

"Kaiser," Austrian ship in battle of Lissa, 1866, 196.
 "Kearsarge," fight between the "Alabama" and the, 358 et seq.
 Keats, Captain Richard Goodwin, commands British ship "Superb" at battle of Algeiras Bay, 34, 41, 47, 49; commands "Superb," flagship of Sir John Duckworth in action at San Domingo, February 6, 1807, 99.
 Keith, Lord, gives command of British gun brig "Speedy" to Captain Lord Cochrane, 33.
 "Kennebec," U. S. ship in battle of Mobile Bay, 423.
 "Kestrel," British gunboat in attack on Taku Forts, 405.
 "Kingfisher," British sloop reports on February 1, 1897, that French squadron has gone to San Domingo, 98.

 "King George," British cutter, in attack on French fleet at Aix Roads, 1899, 110.
 "King Yuen," Chinese ship in battle of Yalu River, 208.
 "Kite," British brig conveys Nelson to England from Revel, June 19, 1801, 20.
 Korea, Southern, insurrection breaks out in, 208.
 "Kowahing," Chinese transport sunk by Japanese ship "Naniwa," July 23, 1894, 204.
 "Kwang Kai," Chinese ship in battle of Yalu River, 208.
 "Kwang Ping," Chinese ship in battle of Yalu River 1894, 208.

L.

"Lackawanna," U. S. ship in battle of Mobile Bay, 423 et seq.
 "Lady Prevost," British schooner at battle of Lake Erie, 1813, 145.
 "Lai Yuen," Chinese ship in battle of Yalu River, 1894, 208.
 Lake Erie, battle of, September 10, 1813, 128.
 Lambert, Captain Robert, commands British ship "Saturn" at battle of Copenhagen, 17.
 Lambton, Lieutenant, one of British landing party at bombardment of Alexandria, 446; sent on shore to receive surrender of Alexandria, 450.
 "Lark," lugger used for reconnoitering at battle of Copenhagen, 14.
 Lawford, Captain John, commands "Polyphemus" at battle of Copenhagen, 16.
 Lawrence, Captain James, commander of the U. S. ship "Chesapeake," 146; in engagement with British ship "Shannon," 313 et seq.
 "Lawrence," U. S. brig engaged in War of 1812, 142; at battle of Lake Erie, 146.
 "Lee," British gunboat in attack on Taku Forts, 405.
 Leisselgues, Vice-Admiral, in charge of French squadron, 1895, 94; reaches San Domingo, January 20, 1897, 99.
 Lemon, Colonel, has command of British marines in attack on Taku Forts, 411.
 Le Roy, Commodore, commands French ship "San Antoine" in battle of Algeiras Bay, 41.
 Letellier, a Frenchman, directs movements of part of Turkish