

A. It has fed the devotion of most of the best men whose lives are recorded in the annals of the Christian Church.

Q. Is there any force in the objection that forms of Prayer tend to produce lifeless formality?

A. No! the real cause of such is found in the hearts of the worshippers, and is equally present under a various practice.

